Hibernians Are Urged to Wage War on Ku Klux

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MONTREAL, July 18.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians was urged at today's session of its convention to wage war on the Ku Klux Klan.

President James Deery, in his annual report, declared that no greater duty faced the order than exposure of the Klan. Specifically he urged support of the Unity League of America, which he said was organized in the United States to combat the Klan there.

"In the United States," he asserted, "the Klan questions the right of Jews, Catholics, negroes and foreigners to enjoy the right of American citizenship and has successfully entered the field of practical politics in many States, electing senators, judges, governors, mayors and sheriffs. It appeals to the ignorant and prejudiced mind. It is well financed and well led."

SWAMP GIRL IS FOUND

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WAUSAU (Wis.) July 18.—Mary Lawando, 20, was found in the woods near the home of her parents, six miles south of [illegible] tonight. The girl had been missing for eight days and [illegible] a Sheriff's posse had searched a heavy swamp [illegible] Lawando home.

WAUSAU (Wis.) July 18.—Comely Mary Lawando, 20 years of age, dropped from sight on the night of the 8th inst. On the next night her step-mother was attacked while sleeping in her home. A mysterious assailant beat her over the head with a small ax.

Mary has been missing ever since that night—wandering somewhere in the big timber and in the almost impenetrable swamps that surround her home. Her disappearance, accompanied by a frenzied hunt that has yielded only fleeting glimpses of the girl as she fled from swamp to swamp has given her the picturesque sobriquet of "Mosquito Mary, the swamp girl." That has been the only result of the ten-day search.

SEE FOOTPRINTS

The latest clew to the swamp girl is a series of footprints in the sand leading from a cornfield to a point nea. the Lawando home. Mr. and Mrs. William Lawando, her father and step-mother, recall that during the night the family dog gave an alarm by barking, but no attention was paid to this by either of them. The authorities are more firmly convinced than ever that Miss Lawando is making her home in the dense woods near the home, and have commenced a more systematic search for her.

West of the Lawando home is a small hill surrounded by lower land and this in turn, is surrounded by heavy timber and the north arm of a big swamp, which has been searched for her. There is a clearing to the southwest of this hill where potatoes have been planted and it has been discovered that some one wearing small shoes had crossed this clearing a number of times.

DANGEROUS SWAMP

Every home in the vicinity of the swamp, where Mary might have been hiding, has been visited by representatives of the Sheriff's office, but no trace of the girl has been found.

The swamp is one of the most dangerous in this section of the State and if the girl, who is said to be more familiar with it than any one else, had missed her footing when heading her searchers into its inner depths, she may have been engulfed by the almost bottomless bogs.

Bride Is Slain; Husband Loses Both His Legs

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

PITTSBURG, July 18.—Authorities admitted tonight that they had failed to brush aside the veil screening the slaying of Mrs. Patrick Coyne, 18-year-old bride, who was found shot to death in her home early today. Blocked in their investigation by the serious condition of the girl's husband of three months, a railroad brakeman, who lost his legs in an accident while at work last night, police were awaiting permission of physicians to question Coyne.

With a rosary clasped in her hands, Mrs. Coyne was found in bed with a bullet wound in her head, by her father, John Conroy, when he called to notify his daughter of her husband's accident. After having been taken to a hospital Coyne repeatedly called for his wife.

It was first believed that the girl had been beaten to death, but a search of the house by police revealed a pistol and a later examination of the body by physicians resulted in finding of a bullet wound in her head.

HARDING BACKS GEN. WOOD

Indication From High Authority Is That Administration Will Help Settle Cabinet Row

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, Governor-General of the Philippines, will have the support of the Harding administration in his present controversy with his Cabinet, it was indicated in a high official quarter today.

No official report has yet been received from Gen. Wood concerning the wholesale resignations tendered by the Mayor of Manila and all members of the Cabinet except the Secretary of Education, but the War Department, which has jurisdiction over insular affairs of the Philippines, is thoroughly acquainted with the situation.

HOW TROUBLE AROSE

The present friction between Gen. Wood and Philippine members of the insular government, it is explained, arose as a result of differences of opinion concerning Ray Conley, a United States secret service agent, against whom charges of bribery were preferred. Conley was tried before a Philippine judge and was acquitted, but the peculiar wording of the acquittal apparently left room for the belief that while there was not enough evidence to convict, there were nevertheless certain circumstances which made the case seem doubtful.

Following his acquittal, Conley was reinstated by Gen. Wood, but immediately resigned and his resignation was accepted. In view of the peculiar circumstances surrounding the whole incident, charges were made that the reinstatement and subsequent resignation had been staged for the purpose of clearing Conley.

COMPLAINT MADE

Inasmuch as Conley was directly under the jurisdiction of the Mayor of Manila, the native element, led by Manuel Quezon, president of the Senate, immediately set up a complaint against Gen. Woods's procedure in dealing directly with Conley's case instead of acting through the Mayor of Manila and the Philippine Cabinet apparently seconded Quezon in his attitude.

So far as the law is concerned, there is no question of Gen. Woods's authority to act as he did. If any criticism is to be made at all of his action, it can only be made on the ground of expediency and tact. There also is a question as to the general's authority to name a Cabinet to serve until such time as a permanent Cabinet may be selected and approved by the Philippine Legislature.

CIVIL WAR IS FEARED

Berlin Is Warned to Prepare

Reds Talking of Uprising to Demonstrate Power to Bourgeoisie

World Court Scheduled to to Take Part in Next Reparations Act

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

BERLIN, July 18.—"What does Mr. Chancellor intend to do to prevent the imminent civil war?" the leader of Germany's former Nationalist party wrote in a long letter to the Chancellor, insisting that the government prepare for the eventful revolution.

At the same time the Reds are threatening to show the bourgeoisie their power on July 29 in a country-wide demonstration and are speaking of an uprising, but all the middle parties, with Dr. Stresemann, their leader, are throwing the full weight of their power into the scales in order to prevent trouble and to encourage the country to carry on passive resistance.

PASSIVE RESISTANCE

Dr. Stresemann says that "through passive resistance alone will Germany be able to defeat the aim of Premier Poincare whose strongest wish is civil war among the Germans."

The shortage of foreign currency is so acute that food importers have appealed to the government, stating that they can no longer obtain the foreign currency needed to buy grain and other foods from foreign markets. The Reichsbank answering this complaint tried to force all the Berlin exchange offices, including even the smallest little street shops whom it previously ignored and despised, to turn over all foreign currency in their possession, threatening to close them up unless the funds were handed over.

WORLD COURT LOOMS

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

PARIS, July 18.—The World Court [illegible] to take the [illegible] next [illegible] situation opens in the House of Commons on Thursday, next, Prime Minister Baldwin will be prepared to make his proposed declaration of a separate reparations policy, it is learned tonight on the highest authority.

The second part of the British declaration will call upon the World Court to decide whether or not England is entitled to adopt an individual reparations policy under the Treaty of Versailles without destroying the treaty.

FRENCH FULLY INFORMED

The French government has been fully informed as to the progress of the British deliberations since the Cuno note arrived in London on July 9. Such a declaration of a separate reparations policy was expected by Poincare and was provided against by his speeches in the chamber and elsewhere when he asserted that if England took this action the Treaty of Versailles would no longer be existent.

Thus in order to avoid absolute destruction of the treaty and to release France to do as it pleased face to face with Germany, the Baldwin government postponed its original declaration.

The French government was informed tonight that this declaration will be forthcoming during the course of the debate in the House of Commons unless Poincare agrees to sign the reparations letter which will be submitted by England on Friday.

Since neither side preserves much hope of ability to agree on the letter, the French believe that

WOBBLY ARMY MARCHING ON PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS

I. W. W. Ordered to Take "Direct Action;" Radicals Promised Term on Chain Gang

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Firmly believing in the efficacy of "direct action" hundreds of members of the I.W.W. are leaving here tonight on a crusade to Port Arthur, Tex., the object of which is the "protection of the I.W.W. constitution" and the rights of three members said to have been kidnaped and severely beaten there.

"W don't believe in doing things by official delegation. When there is a job to be done by the I.W.W. the rank and file go to it without bothering about their officials," is the report on the exodus given by local headquarters of the Marine Transport Workers' branch of the organization.

How the men will cover the 2800 miles to Port Arthur is regarded at headquarters as a minor detail. More than 20,000 of them are on the move from all parts of the country, on foot, by freight train and by sea, according to John Shuskie, the secretary-treasurer.

Coincidentally with the I.W.W. exodus came a pledge from the Civil Liberties Union to the general defense committee of the I.W.W. in California to help in the fight against the recent injunction which renders membership in the I.W.W. in that State contempt of court, punishable by a prison term of six months.

The injunction, which followed the declaration of a general I.W.W. strike in California, came as a result of the "pressure of corporations," asserts the Civil Liberties Union, and is unconstitutional.

NEWSPAPER IS SUED

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORT ARTHUR (Tex.) July 18. John Holland, organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, transport workers division, has filed a libel suit for $50,000 against a Port Arthur newspaper for a story based on report from police officials that Holland's finger prints indicated he was wanted for the slaying of two persons in Everett, Wash., it became known this evening.

Holland asserts he was mistreated by Port Arthur police in connection with the taking of his finger prints. When he was arrested in June in connection with his membership with the I.W.W. he is alleged to have resisted, and then received punishment from the officers. His release was ordered following application for writ of habeas corpus in a Beaumont court and he returned to Port Arthur. That night unidentified parties seized him as he was leaving the police station and the next heard from him was at a Galveston hospital, where he was said to be suffering from minor injuries. He said he had been beaten and turned loose on the Beaumont Road.

Members of the I.W.W. reported coming on a crusade here in a passive plea of resistance to fill the local jail will be held on charges of vagrancy and put to work in the labor gangs to take care of the city work, Police Chief W. Covington, declared tonight.

"Let 'em come," he said. "There are many chores to be done in Port Arthur."

FRENCH DIE IN FIELD

Four-Day Offensive Against Moroccan Enemy Proves to be Disastrous

Hope of Catching Troops in State of Unpreparedness Cause of Drive

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1923, by the Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, July 18.—Two thousand French soldiers have fallen in the new war being waged against the Moors in northern Africa since the offense began on the eve of July 14. Great bodies of troops went into the batles, and the reports reaching the capital are that the Moors have been holding their own. What the losses of the Moors are has not been learned, but are believed to be equally heavy.

Twenty infantry battalions, twelve squadrons of cavalry, ten batteries of artillery and five airplane escadrilles under the command of Gen. Poeymirau began an offensive against Mt. Taza, Morocco, on July 13. The losses for the last four days are said to have reached 2000, but the French capital is not aware that the war in in progress.

The stifling heat of the last week-end compelled the government to cancel the huge military review it had planned in Paris "on account of the heat," yet the Moroccan climate is admitted to be pretty warm, even by the War Department here.

The Moroccan forces are at Les Sidi Raho and Sidar Belkacj under the direction of Abdel Malek. Malek's power has been growing greater every day for the past three years, threatening the very existence of the French empire in North Africa. The War Ministry ordered the campaign pushed southward in the summer, hoping to catch the Moors inactive.

The battleground lies north of the impassable mountain district of Taza.

LORD WINS LIBEL SUIT IN LONDON

Peer Sues 'Morning Post;' Says Battle of Jutland News Was Manipulated

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, July 18.—The jury in the libel suit brought by Lord Alfred Douglas against the Morning Post today returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, with damages of one farthing. Judgment was entered and accordingly each party to the suit must pay its own costs.

Amazing testimony was given in court for the last two days. Lord Douglas, well known as a son of the late sporting Marquis of Queensberry, and also a minor poet, has frequently apeared in the courts in various roles.

As editor of the weekly Plain English, he made a series of charges that the Jews were conspiring to ruin the country; that a number of prominent members of that race had made £48,000,000 by manipulating the battle of Jutland and that they were responsible for Kitchener's death because he offended them and that the late Sir Ernest Cassell gave Winston Spencer Churchill £20,000 to furnish a new house as a reward for the latter's asserted aid in manipulating Jutland news.

The Morning Post attacked Lord Douglas on account of his writings. The latter in court asserted that everything he wrote was true but refused to give most of his sources of the asserted information.

An affidavit was read from the Earl of Balfour, who is ill, stating that as first lord of the admiralty he prepared the bulletin of the Jutland battle and that none except himself and members of the Cabinet had anything to do with it. Mr. Churchill took the stand and said there was not a word of truth in the charges against him.

Two Seaplanes for Americans Nearly Finished

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.]

LONDON, July 18.—Two seaplanes ordered by the United States Navy are nearing completion in a British factory and before long will make test flights and undergo royal aircraft supervision and inspection.

The new naval machines are monoplanes of convertible one-seater scout and fighter type, having the same specifications as the fast Curtiss naval scout already adopted, but of entirely different design.

The main feature of their construction is the Handley-Paige slotted wing which diminishes the speed and reduces the landing speed, particularly desirable for alighting on board a ship.

PLAN AIR WAR GAME

Rush Squadron to North

San Diego Awaiting Message of Hostile Attack on Bay City

Planes Will be Loaded on Transport for Scene of Operations

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN DIEGO, July 18.—"Hostile force operating around San Francisco. Rush fighting-plane squadron with mechanics and maintenance force."

This message will be flashed to the fleet air headquarters at North Island next Wednesday morning and will be the signal for a burst of feverish activity that will continue until the planes have been disassembled, taken aboard a Navy transport, rushed to San Francisco, reassembled on barges in the bay there and towed to shore, where a camp will be established from which operations will be carried on.

There will be no hostile force operating around San Francisco on that date, but for the purpose of the interesting war game, the fleet air force is playing, an imaginary enemy will be manufactured.

TRANSPORT AWAITING

With their engines roaring a song of power, the fighting aircraft will "taxi" right down the beach and to the dock where the transport Ramapo will be awaiting them. But the planes cannot be transported intact. They first must be taken apart so they can be stowed on the ship. So a force of fifty mechanics and plenty of crates will be waiting at the wharf. No sooner will the engines be shut off than the mechanics will be all over the seven fighting planes. Off will come the wings and into crates they will be packed and hoisted into the holds of the Ramapo. No effort will be made to take the engine out of its frame, for the engine and fuselage will be hoisted aboard as a unit and "nested" on the decks of the transport.

Every effort will be made to cut down the time required to take down the planes and stow them on the transport and a careful check will be made on the time spent by each crew in dissassembling its plane. The whole operation probably will be completed in an hour or two, and when the last plane is safely aboard the mechanics will climb up the gangway and the Ramapo will steam for "beleagured" San Francisco.

SUMMONED BY RADIO

Arriving at the Bay City, barges will be summoned by radio, the crates dropped to the lighters, and the assembling crews put to work at once. It is expected the airplanes will start coming out of the Ramapo as soon as the anchor chains sing through the hawse pipes.

No sooner will the planes be on the barges than tugs will be heading shoreward with their tows while the work of assembling the fighting machines is being rushed by the mechanics. It is hoped to have the engines roaring and the pilots in the cockpits before the barges reach the dock where the planes will be landed.

The Vought fighting planes then will taxi off the dock under their own power, take to the air and head for the landing field previously prepared. From this landing field the "operations" against the enemy will be carried out, during which time stunt flying and other combat practice will be carried out.

Lieut. Commander P. M. Bates will have with him the following skilled pilots: Lieut. G. T. Cuddihy, R. A. Ofstie and C. C. Champion; Ensigns O. A. Weller, G. L. Richard and D. N. Logan.

Commander Bates himself will head his squadron when it takes the air at North Island Wednesday morning and also lead it through the air to its base after arriving at San Francisco.

GANNA WALSKA HOME

Silent as to Plans but Maybe She'll Have Part in Musical Comedy With Western Setting

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Preceded by a radio message that she would go into musical comedy as the heroine of a wild-west show, Mme. Ganna Walska McCormick returned to America today and encountered those horrid photographer persons. Dozens of cameramen with menacing contraptions on tripods beset her as soon as her steamer, the Olympic, reached quarantine.

They were re-enforced by the landsman photographers at the pier and the allied photographic forces pursued her as she left the seclusion of her stateroom and fled down the gangplank to greet her husband, Harold F. McCormick, who had been waiting long. It was at that same pier the president of the International Harvester Company waved adieu to his wife last April when she sailed for Europe to make an operatic tour of the continent.

Mme. Walska McCormick has always indicated an aversion to newspaper men and photographers but the feeling seemed more pronounced since her operatic performances in Paris were not anthusiastically received. She refused to answer questions by reporters who kept vigil at her stateroom door until the steamer docked and then followed her out upon the pier. As she and Mr. McCormick, who was all smiles, half ran along the pier they took turns in saying to reporters: "I can't say a thing!"

Would they go right out to Chicago? Would madam really go into comic opera? If so, would she join "The Ministrel Boy" to be produced this fall by Thomas Egan, with lots of love and thrills and jazz?

"Can't say a thing."

Out on the street camera shutters clicked like a battery of machine guns.

"Take us to the nouse in Park avenue," Mr. McCormick ordered the chauffeur as he slammed the door of the limousine.

Then the engine stalled and the photographers surged about the machine shooting their cameras from all angles. And Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, thus trapped, laughed good naturedly. They were unmistakably happy to be reunited, even under such annoying circumstances.

COSTS OF FOOD SHOW INCREASE

Government Index Records Advance of 1 Per Cent

Decrease Greatest in Price of Building Materials

Farm Products and Clothing Decline Moderately

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

WASHINGTON, July 18. — Although the general level of wholesale prices throughout the country decreased nearly 2 per cent from May to June, according to figures assembled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the retail food index showed an increase of 1 per cent.

Among the 404 commodities included in the wholesale price statistics, building materails showed the largest decrease, averaging 4 per cent, while metads declined 3 3-4 per cent, chemicals and drugs 3 1-4 per cent, and fuel and lighting materials about 2 per cent. Farm products, food, clothes and clothing and miscellaneous commodities registered smaller declines. Decreases were shown in 190 commodities, increases in fifty-three and 161 were listed as unchanged.

Thirteen articles of food increased in price at retail between May 15 and June 15, while fifteen showed declines and fifteen were unchanged. Potatoes advanced 19 per cent, round steak 5 per cent, sirloin, steak, leg of lamb and onions 4 per cent, chuck roast and bananas 3 per cent, rib roast and cheese 2 per cent, ham and fresh eggs 1 per cent and vegetable lard and substitutes and tea less than ½ of 1 per cent. The chief decreases recorded were cabbage, 23 per cent, and butter, 4 per cent.

Th increase in the retail food price level from June 15, 1922, to June 15, 1923, averaged 3 per cent. The general wholesale markets meanwhile registered an advance of 3 per cent.

During the month ending last June 15, food prices have advanced in thirty-two cities, rising as much as 3 per cent at Newark, N. J., Pittsburg and Washington D. C. The level decreased in sixteen cities and was unchanged in three, but in no city did the average family expenditure for food decline more than 1 per cent.

Johnson's Lead Grows as State Returns Arrive

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) July 18.—A few scattering additional returns from Monday's Senatorial election that dribbled in late today continued to raise the plurality of Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Laborite, and his lead kept up its march toward the 90,000 mark.

Johnson's lead over Gov. Preus, Republican, when 2086 of the State's 3520 precincts had reported, was 83,765, the vote for those precincts giving Johnson 271,400, Preus 187,635 and James A. Carley, Democrat, 18,417.

In the unreported precincts it is estimated there are perhaps 27,000 to 30,000 votes, in which Johnson is expected to maintain at least a 3-to-1 lead, assuring him of a plurality in excess of 90,000.

KILLS MAN; SHOOTS ONE IN ESCAPING

Chicago Contractor Slain in Marital Triangle; His Widow Under Arrest

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 18. — Police squads are searching for a gunman whose role in a marital triangle has resulted in the death of one man, the serious wounding of another and the arrest of the widow of the victim of his revolver.

The dead man is Cologero Salerno, a wealthy contractor. Battling for his life in the Washington Park Hospital is Charles Goetz, an innocent character in the tragedy. And in the detective bureau is the woman, Mrs. Lillian Salerno, young and pretty.

While admitting that there was trouble between her husband and a boarder, Ambresto Gilberto, over asserted intimacy between them, Mrs. Salerno protests her innocence of any misdemeanor with the "other man." Yet, according to the police, the two were to appear today in the Court of Domestic Relations on a charge brought by the husband.

According to witnesses of the shooting, Salerno and his assailant, who answers the description of Gilberto, alighted from a street car at that point. They apparently were arguing heatedly.

"Well, come on home and prove it, then," Salerno shouted, suddenly grabbing his companion by the arm.

"Let loose," yelled the man. Then the man drew a revolver and fired three shots. Two bullets struck the victim below the heart and another entered his back.

Weapon in hand, the man fled. A crowd gave chase, but he held them at bay. At Ogden avenue and Oakley Boulevard the fleeing man leaped aboard Goetz's car. When Gotes was unable to speed as he had been ordered, the slayer fired several shots, wounding Goetz twice in the head.

The murderer then flung himself on the running-board of another automobile and escaped.

VILLAGE OF PREHISTORIC MAN FOUND

Hearth, Flints, Pottery and Other Relics Discovered on Sierra Highway

WOODLAKE, July 18.—On the edge of the Great Western Divide along the route of the proposed Sierra Scenic Highway, recently was discovered remains of an ancient village, unquestionably work of prehistoric man of the stone age. On top of the divide on a flat granite rock are large deep holes ground into the solid rock. A hearth, flints and pottery also are here.

The holes number about twenty and are mechanically arranged in a double row along the top of the flat ledge. They are circular in shape, about thirty-six inches in diameter and fifteen to eighteen inches deep, and very uniform in size. They probably were used for cooking meat, which man did at that time by heating stones and throwing them into receptacles partially filled with water. Numerous burnt stones about the hearth suggest this method of cooking. These primitive utensils are large enough to hold two deer, or a medium sized bear, and suggest that the village must have had a population of thousands.

Flints, consisting of pieces of arrow, spear heads and knives, have been found about the hearth. The spear and arrow heads are of black flint and were brought in from over the mountains, as there is no black flint here. Fragments of burnt clay pottery, resembling a modern teacup, have been found.

It is pointed out that the Sierra Scenic Highway may be an asset to the world by furnishing new fields for scientific research into the history of man. Prehistoric man of a later period than the stone age took the Dry Creek course to the Kaweah River and the San Joaquin Valley, for his paintings are found on rocks at different points along the way from Quail flat to the scenic bridge across the Kaweah east of Woodlake.

Honor of discovering this ancient city goes to three of the foremost boosters for the Sierra Scenic Highway, W. H. Hart, P. B. Cortner and G. A. Barton.

DRY AIDES SWOOP ON NOONDAY LUNCHES

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 18.—Noonday lunchers, who prefer "real" beer and a sandwich to mere homely menus, were rudely driven from their oases today when Federal officers descended on six loop saloons, arrested the bartenders and whipped the patrons' liquid refreshment from under their noses.

OPPOSES TAX RATE BOOST

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

FRESNO, July 18.—Entering the fight against a prospective increase in the city tax rate, the Fresno Realty Board today adopted a report of a special committee on taxation to the effect that the City Commission is under no necessity to raise the rate to $2.25 as proposed but may even reduce it to $1.94. This figure is on the basis of the budget now proposed. The rate for the past fiscal year was $2.17. The board instructed its committee to present its views tomorrow at a meeting of the City Commission.

to the Associated Press, "We must relax the restrictions and encourage big capital to come to Alaska and include a more liberal policy toward mining and coal lands."

This was seconded by Secretary Work who said "many things are needed for developing Alaska's resources—more liberality and an easier way of doing business than heretofore."

As gauged from the hearings, Secretary Hoover's announcement is believed here to indicate that a consolidated board to administer the authority, co-ordinating the various bureaus, and the abolition of large traps as soon as a substitute can be found, are now policies to be established.

TRANSPORT LINES ACCUSED

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

SEWARD (Alaska) July 18.—John E. Ballaine of Seattle, former chief engineer for the Alaska Northern Railroad, charged at a hearing here today before Secretary of the Interior Work that steamship and railroad rates are throttling the development of Alaska.

Ballaine asserted that the ocean rate from Seattle to Seward was two and a half times that from Seattle to New York, including tolls on the Panama Canal.

The witness declared that not only was no effort being put forth to encourage traffic on the government railroad which he said was losing $500,000 a year, but that a deliberate attempt was being made in certain quarters to force steamships to go to Anchorage for a connection with the railroad. He said that this deprived the railroad of freight business between Seward and Anchorage that would be very profitable.

Ballaine told Secretary Work that terminal facilities which have been provided at Anchorage will become pure waste. He asserted that the harbor at Anchorage was silting so fast that in three years only small boats would be able to reach the docks.

The witness recommended that the government encourage the establishment of steamship lines to San Francisco instead of Seattle on the ground that the California port would afford better markets.

Soviet Contends Wrangell Island Goes to Russia

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.]

BERLIN, July 18—The soviet authorities are prepared to make a vehement protest against the pretensions of Vilhjalmar Stefansson to annex Wrangell Island to Canada. Their objection is based not on a mere matter of prestige, but on the belief of Bolshevist geologists that the island may contain the same strata as California, Alaska and Siberia and turn out to be an Arctic gold mine if properly investigated.

They will therefore contest any claim to Canadian sovereignty on the grounds that the island, which was discovered originally by the Russian Wrangell expedition, was formally taken possession of by the Russian government in 1910.

MATE LOSES LEGS, WIFE IS MURDERED

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE]

PITTSBURG, July 18.—The nude body of Mrs. Patrick Coyne, an 18-year-old girl, who was married only a few months ago, was found in her home today by her father, John Conroy, when he went there to tell her that her husband, a railroad brakeman, had lost his legs in an accident and was battling for his life in a Pittsburg hospital. Mrs. Coyne had been beaten to death as she lay in bed. Coyne went to work yesterday afternoon, leaving his wife at home and soon after midnight Conroy was notified by the hospital that he was there calling for Mrs. Coyne. Conroy hastened to his daughter's house, but repeated knocking brought no answer. He forced the door and found his daughter dead. The Coynes lived in Port Perry, a suburb.

AMERICANS ACCUSED OF BRITISH AID

Turks Say Missionaries Help Spread Anti-Kemal Propaganda

BY CLARENCE K. STREIT

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1923, Public Ledger.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 18.—The Turks have discovered circumstantial evidence which they believe tends to confirm their suspicion that American missionaries helped the British to carry on anti-Kemalist propaganda among the Turks during the critical early days of the Nationalist movement.

In one of the thirty-six boxes of personal effects of Robert Stapleton, an American missionary, which were shipped here from Trebizond, Turkish customs officials found thirty-six copies of an anti-Kemal proclamation which the ex-Sultan issued for subterranean circulation in Anatolia. Angora has been unable to ascertain the agencies which distributed that propaganda in its territory, but correspondence seized in the past has implicated American missionaries, many of whom are known to be extremely anti-Kemalist. The local American Bible house disclaims any connection with the proclamations and declares the box in question was one of three left in storage in Trebizond in the past two years by its owner, a British ex-Consul, and which Stapleton, not knowing of its contents, indiscreetly consented to include for him in the shipment of his own effects.

It was pointed out at the Bible house that the proclamations were used as packing for pictures in the box. Despite that explanation, however, it is feared the incident will make it harder to settle the status of missionaries in the treaty which America and Turkey are negotiating. Most of the Turkish correspondents in Lausanne give Joseph C. Grew, the American observer, much credit for hastening the agreement.

The Daily Item, under the headline, "American Intervention Produces Effect," says: "Conference circles believe Ismet's firmness regarding concessions as well as his final success was due to the support given him by America's open-door protest against the Allied claims."

CHURCH ROW OPENS AGAIN

Rival Factions Meet at Same Hour at Long Beach; Police Take Charge of Sessions

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, July 18.—The long-smouldering dispute between two rival factions in the Church of Christ at Olive avenue and Ninth street, broke out afresh at the mid-week prayer meeting tonight, causing a near-riot, which was halted only by police intervention.

The dispute, which has split the congregation of the church for the last year, recently was carried into Superior Court by one faction, which sought a restraining order to keep the other group from using the church for meetings.

MEET AT SAME HOUR

Tonight both groups set the hour of 7 p.m. for their prayer-meeting. One service already had started when the members of the other faction arrived. A lively discussion followed and finally S. W. Settle, the minister of one faciton, took his place in the pulpit and began to read from the Bible.

The other group left the church and telephoned for police aid. Wher Chief of Police Robberson and a squad of patrolmen arrived, they displayed a restraining order signed by Judge Hardy, which they said gave them the right to the church.

The group, flanked by police, then adjourned to the church auditorium, where the other group was holding prayer-meeting.

CHIEF IN PULPIT

Chief of Police Robberson mounted the pulpit.

"As police officers it is not our duty to settle a civil question or to interfere in religious matters," said the Chief. "Do not believe for a moment that I am ordering any member of this congregation to leave his own church. But in the name of common sense and of the principles of the religion which you profess, I request you to leave this building quietly and wait until a court of law can decide the dispute between you."

Theft of Papers Charged to Man by Blind Newsie

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Accused of stealing a newspaper each day for six months from the stand of David Glickman, a blind man, Matthew Levy, 66 years of age, today was held under $500 bail.

Arraigned before Magistrate Smith, Levy was specifically charged with the larceny of one newspaper valued at 2 cents. Levy protested that the bail was high in proportion to the amount involved, whereupon the magistrate told him the bail was not excessive if the charge were true.

The blind man sometime ago noticed that he was short 2 cents in his accounts each day. Then he learned the time of the asserted daily theft by feeling for the pennies after the departure of each customer. Levy came about 9 o'clock each morning. Glickman finally told a friend, Philip Sacks, about it and the latter watched. When Levy took a paper this morning and walked off without paying, Sacks called a policeman and had him arrested.

Drug Shipment Seizure Is Made on Agent's Tip

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Col. L. G. Nutt, head of the narcotic division of the prohibition unit, received a wire that on information furnished by the freight claim agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, Narcotic Agent in Charge Will Gray Beach, of the Chicago division, seized 208 ounces of morphine sulphate and fifty ounces of cocaine at Prairie Du Chien, Wis.

The goods, which were tax-paid, had been checked through by persons unknown and carried no marks of identification but it is believed they are of American manufacture, taken out of the country and being smuggled back in again to be peddled. This phase is now being investigated.

The amount seized, when represented in terms of doses for the normal adult, would mean 437,500 strong "shots" or doses, Col Nutt said.

The men were convicted in Detroit of an attempt to bribe Lieut. Reamey, chairman of sales in the Detroit division.

NEW MOVE TO FLOAT STRANDED STEAMER

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) July 18.—Another effort by tugs to float the stranded Japanese steamer Yonan Maru, is to be made this afternoon at Peacock Spit, near the mouth of the Columbia River, where the vessel has been fast since last Thursday. The vessel has been lightened by the removal of much of her lumber cargo and was dragged twenty-five feet yesterday through the action of anchors thrown out and tightened by winches.

GREAT PARADE PLAN APPROVED

Pageant Will be Outstanding Event of Harding Visit

Elaborate Arrangements Are Made for Entertainment

Neighboring Towns Will Join in Great Spectacle

Hearty indorsement of plans for the historical pageant to be held in honor of President Harding's visit on August 2, has been given by the committee. Attorney John G. Mott recited the colorful features of the parade yesterday afternoon and received reports from each member.

Neighboring cities desire to be represented in the division which will show the glories of civilization today in California. President Harding will be shown the fruits and flowers of the State in striking abundance on elaborate floats which will be prepared by each town. Ten big floats will feature this part of the spectacle.

All Southern California has been surveyed in search of mettled steeds upon which the Spanish gallants and others will ride and many of the most valuable horses in the State have been offered. These will be matched for each division of the pageant. To protect these animals the streets may be spread with sand at various points.

GIANT INDIAN COMING

An Indian more than six feet in height is on his way from a southern reservation, to ride near the head of the parade. Twelve Spanish costumes recently arrived in the city directly from Madrid, for one group of riders. From out of the past will ride representatives of each of the four picturesque and romantic periods of California's stirring history under its four flags.

The co-operation and patriotism shown by such organizations as the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Elks, the G.A.R. and many other bodies and associations is a guarantee that the reception is going to be a tremendous success, according to the committee. The enthusiasm displayed on every hand is said to surpass the expectations of those in charge.

In addition to the reception tendered by 80,000 school children, clad all in white and waving American flags, the G.A.R. is to present the President with an official Presidential flag, at the stadium shortly after 11 a.m. on the day of his arrival, and following the pageant. This is said to be the first time this has ever been done outside of Washington, D.C.

LEGIONNAIRES TO HELP

The American Legion is to assist in caring for the school children at the Coliseum, in guarding their safety and taking care that none but the children and their mothers are allowed to enter at the time. The children will be seated some time before the arrival of the President but entertainment will be provided for them until the important event. The general public will be admitted for the evening ceremonies, which will start about 8 o'clock.

Impressed with the great possibilities of the picture to be made by the parade and the huge assemblage of children, many motion picture concerns have asked that special accommodations be given them to film the spectacle. The pictures will be sent all over the world.

The police are making special plans to handle the crowds. Every officer in Los Angeles will be on duty that day. No one will be allowed on vacation or leave of absence. Further details of the arrangements will be announced as they are completed by the committee.

QUOTA VIOLATIONS COSTLY TO STEAMERS

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE]

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Trans-Atlantic steamship companies will have more difficulty avoiding payment of fines for bringing in immigrants in excess of the monthly quotas under the restrictive law, Commissioner-General Husband of the Immigration Bureau predicted today upon his return from New York, where he conferred with Ellis Island officials.

The White Star liner Baltic, he said, brought over about 400 desirable British immigrants in excess of the July allotment and stands to lose about $120,000 as a result. A fine is imposed for each immigrant landed in excess of the quota and the steamship company is obligated to refund passage money and return the passengers to their homes.

HONOLULU SEIZURES NEWS TO ENGLAND

LONDON, July 18. — In answer to a question in the House of Commons this afternoon, Ronald McNeill, Undersecretary for Foreign Affairs, said that his attention had not been called to the fact that British vessels proceeding from Canada to Australia which put in at Honolulu were deprived of their spirituous liquors and that they were compelled to continue the voyage without liquor. The questioner expressed surprise that the Foreign Office had not been informed, as the Canadian papers were full of it. He suggested that the Foreign Office make inquiries.

only a miracle can preserve the Entente.

The Baldwin declaration, however, will leave France still bound by the Treaty of Versailles—thus preventing further occupation of Germany or any further measures of pressure. In other words, M. Poincare is definitely assured that England wishes to preserve the Treaty of Versailles by calling on the World Court to decide its status. The World Court's role is to make a juridic ruling which would enable England to adopt an individual policy toward Germany without tearing up the treaty.

The only benefit that France could hope to expect from a split in the Entente would be the destruction of the treaty, enabling it to deal direct with its debtors. Baldwin's double-headed declaration, however, kills this possibility, leaving France isolated without the benefits of isolation.

Under the circumstances, it is declared, the Poincare government intends to make a determined, though practically hopeless, effort to adopt the British terms. If all efforts are useless, as the Foreign Office here seems to believe, the only thing left is to contest England's action before the World Court, which would be like a wife contesting a divorce.

MAUGHAN READY FOR DAWN-TO-DUSK FLIGHT

TRIAL PROVES PLANE TO BE IN CONDITION FOR LONG JUMP

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

MITCHEL FIELD (N. Y.) July 18.—Lieut. Russell L. Maughan was in readiness tonight for his expected take-off at 3:30 Eastern standard time tomorrow morning in a second attempt to fly across the continent between dawn and dusk. A test flight proved his plane to be in perfect condition. Weather conditions were reported favorable.

Lieut. Maughan's first effort, the 9th inst., was frustrated by engine trouble near St. Joseph, Mo.

On this flight he will follow the same itinerary, which calls for four stops en route—McCook Field, Dayton; Municipal Field, St. Joseph; Air Mail Field, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Salt Lake, Utah.

By his original timing, Lieut. Maughan would reach San Francisco in sixteen and one-half hours of daylight flying, but the trip will now have to be made in sixteen hours and sixteen minutes, as he lost fourteen minutes of daylight in the nine days since his first attempt.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, July 18.—Fruit and field crops have been benefited by the moderate, seasonable temperatures that have prevailed throughout the State during the greater part of the last two weeks, according to the semi-monthly report of the United States Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the California Department of Agriculture.

Beans and cantaloupes in the Turlock district have improved considerably, while in the leading grape districts it is thought the spread of mildew has been checked. The report follows:

"Valley pastures throughout the state are dry—the usual condition at this time of year—while feed on the mountain ranges is in excellent shape. The supply of dry feed is reported as sufficient for all needs. While temperatures during the latter part of June retarded the growth of alfalfa, they have been very favorable the past two weeks. Contra Costa county reports the third crop now being harvested, which is of excellent quality. No change is reported in the condition of cattle and sheep since the 1st inst.

HARVESTING PROGRESSES.

"Harvesting of the grain crops is progressing about as usual. It is estimated that for the State as a whole, approximately 50 per cent of the wheat crop and 70 per cent of the barley is in the sack. San Joaquin Valley is nearly completed. In the Ducor section, in South Tulare county, about 75 per cent of the wheat has been threshed. However, yields are considerably below the average for the district due to the drought in March. Tulare Lake region, which is the largest grain district in the State, estimates 35 per cent of the wheat and 45 per cent of the barley as harvested. Regardless of the lack of the spring rains, grain yields over the State are reported as being comparatively good.

In most sections there is a tendency on the part of the producer to hold his grain for better prices. This seems to be the case regarding wheat more than barley as good brewing barley is apparently finding ready sale at present.

PLENTY OF LABOR

"The majority of reports indicate that harvest labor is sufficient. However, there is no surplus, while some localities report a shortage with wages too high.

"Comparatively speaking, temperatures this spring have been abnormally low and instead of retarding the maturing of fruits as expected, the opposite effect has been produced. Shipments show that up to and including the 11th inst. more than 6200 cars of peaches, plums, cherries, apricots, pears and grapes have been shipped compared to slightly over 2100 cars at this same date last year.

"Grape prospects, especially in the San Joaquin Valley, have had a rather severe setback on account of the cold weather in June promoting the spread of mildew. The percentage of loss is yet uncertain, reports of damage ranging from 5 to 40 per cent where mildew is prevalent. Favorable returns are being received for grapes shipped from Imperial and Coachella Valleys. The cantaloupe season has opened at Turlock.

MIDINETTES IN MARBLE GROUP

Paris Unveils Lorieux Statue Of Girls Whose Fun Delights City

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, July 18.—Two events occurred in Paris recently which were of the kind that still endear the city to sentimental tourists.

At one part of the city just back of the Opera occurred the unveiling of a statue of the midinettes. A marble group represents the little Paris sewing girls, whose laughter and lighthearted fun are still one of the finest traditions of the city. The girls are sculptured in the costumes of 1908, the sculptor, M. Lorieux, having died in the war.

The other event was the placing of two memorial tablets on the house where Claude de Bussy was born in St. Germain-en-Laye. The house was formerly his father's china shop, where the composer often helped out behind the counter.

CITY HALL OPEN AGAIN IN MEXICALI

Business Proceeds With No Interruption; Urgent Matters Taken Up

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

MEXICALI (Lower California) July 18.—Following the fatal rioting Saturday, the City Hall offices here were reopened today by Rafael Rosas, vice-president of the municipality. He convened the majority of the members of the Council in place of Juan Loera, Mayor, who was wounded in the Saturday night fighting. Business of the Council proceeded without disturbance and urgent official matters were taken up after a lapse of two months during which time the regulars were out and so-called Loera substitutes occupied office.

Until the Mexican courts pass on the present controversy here, it is understood the Rosas organization will operate the government. This, it is learned, is under orders received last night from Mexico City.

Loera Councilmen involved in the rioting Saturday, were removed yesterday from the City Hall to the Federal Barracks and later freed on their own recognizance. They are now in seclusion in their homes.

Loera and three Councilmen, wounded in the fight, are under treatment at the Municipal Hospital.

Society Drama to be Enacted in Divorce Suit

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, July 18.—"The Awful Truth," last season's sophisticated comedy, in which the other man was called upon to tell the lady's fiance that there was in reality nothing between them, is to be enacted in real life when the divorce case of Mrs. Constance Farnsworth and Samuel Farnsworth is heard.

Florian De Donato, architect, will come to Chicago from his home in California to tell "the awful truth" of his relations with Mrs. Farnsworth. He will testify that there was nothing but a fine friendship between them and that the lurid tales of a sumptuous "love room, where Venus in white marble showed the way to love" were all a product of the husband's imagination.

According to Charles E. Erbstein, counsel for Mrs. Farnsworth, De Donato will then answer the charges of alienating the wife's affections, which were valued at $50,000 when Farnsworth followed his divorce action with a suit against the architect only to be countered with a $50,000 suit for slander.

Soviet Planning Exportation of Much Foodstuff

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIGA, July 18.—Russia will export raw products, principally foodstuffs, worth $150,000,000 during the present year, according to data in a book published by Leonid Krassin, Commissar of Foreign Trade.

The book was published on the eve of the opening of the Moscow agricultural and trade exhibition on orders of the soviet government in the hope of increasing the number of visitors to Moscow.

While M. Krassin is considered one of Russia's best business men, his debut as a statistician arouses ridicule in the Baltic press, which asserts that he has been aided by some Communist "fancy figurer" as the statisticians are now called in Moscow.

SALMON PRICES HIGHER

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PORTLAND (Or.) July 18.—While no official announcement has been made by Columbia River salmon packers of association selling prices, individual packers say they will be in dozen cases, $2.50 for half pounds, $4 for pound flats and $5 for ovals. These are increases of from 25 to 50 cents over last year's opening prices. The run is up to normal.

MANY MILLIONS IN VERDE PLANS

Nine Hundred Landowners to Vote on Bonds

Reclamation Plan Dates Back to 1889

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, July 18.—About twice the expenditure on the Salt River project, by which the valley around Phoenix is irrigated, is contemplated by the Verde River Irrigation and Power District. On August 7, the 900 landowners under the project will vote on the issuance of bonds to the gross amount of $23,000,000 to have security in the pledging of about 100,000 acres, mainly northeast of Phoenix, and of great hydroelectric works that have been planned.

The proceeds of less than half the bonds will be used in the erection of three storage dams, with gross capacity for about 1,000,000 acre feet, or about two-thirds the capacity of the Roosevelt reservoir. One of these dams is to be placed across the Verde channel below Camp Verde, another at Horseshoe Bend, about thirty miles north of McDowell, and the other on New River, north of this city.

TWO FLOOD PERIODS

The Verde has two flood periods, and there is expectation of a double filling annually, though the normal flow of the stream already is appropriated by the Salt River project. Most of the land to be covered is in Paradise Valley, where frost is rarely known and where it is believed the greater part of the acreage will be planted to citrus fruits.

It is planned to handle the regulated flow of the Verde as a whole through power-houses to be established, delivering the lower valley its full share of the water, yet using it for development of about 70,000 horsepower, double the power generated on the older system.

The reclamation plan is not a new one. As earyl as 1889, the Rio Verde Canal Company started work at the Horseshoe site and dug a canal in Paradise Valley, selling stock in an enterprise into which only Christian Church members were to have been welcomed.

SALARY POINT FOUGHT

Referendum petitions now are being circulated, with the design to leave the salary of the City Manager at $8000, despite the late action of the City Commission in receding from raising the salary to that figure from the former $6000. Opponents of the proposition declare it a clever move to keep the salary at the higher figure for a year, till the next municipal election. The opposition had prepared a referendum petition against the rise. This petition was summarily rejected by the City Clerk.

The matter was to be taken into the courts when the commission majority retracted. From this last action the referendum now is to be invoked.

CONVICTED SLAYER DIES

Robert G. Stewart has died here in the hospital. He was a participant in one of the most noted crimes of the Southwest, convicted in Pinal county of the murder of A. J. Daggs, a Phoenix attorney.

Daggs had established title in the courts to mining ground, near Superior, in which Stewart claimed an interest. On January 1, 1908, the Phoenix man started to visit the claims, accompanied by a bodyguard, George Hunter, who later was found to have been George Dittmore, a Chicago detective. From a distant hill, a miner saw a rider shot down from ambush and his companion pursued along the trail and killed. Then the two assassins returned and departed.

Investigation found Daggs and Dittmore dead, as well as the horses they had ridden and Dittmore's two dogs. Nearby, where Daggs had thrown it, before the murderers returned to finish their work, was a note book in which had been written, "Stewart and Fondren have killed me." Stewart and Edwin Fondren, arrested and tried in Florence, received twenty-year sentences. Fondren was pardoned after three years and Stewart in five years.

WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

She Claims Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did It After Everything Else Failed

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I feel that I ought to let you know about my case. I was ailing and could barely do my housework and washing I was so run-down, just from having one child. I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do every thing that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAIECHECK, 944 28th St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so praised by women.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. All druggists can supply you.—[Advertisement.

Tracks to Cross Phoenix for Outlet

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) July 18.—With no active opposition, Phoenix today by a vote of 3525 to 256 gave a franchise to the Tucson Railroad to cross the city on Madison street business thoroughfare, blanketing the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific, which cross the city one and two blocks south of Madison, while the new union depot also is two blocks to the southward.

It is stated work will be started on the new road in December. It is hoped to secure the old Phoenix & Eastern right of way from Mesa to Phoenix, paraling the Southern Pacific which claims successorship in interest to the Phoenix & Eastern, which has been leased to the Arizona Eastern, a Southern Pacific subsidiary and has been rebuilt.

ASSURED OF SADARY

Continuance of the City Manager's salary at $9000 for the next year was assured today by the filing of a petition carrying 1600 names calling for referendum on the late action of the City Commission in reconsidering its own raise of the salary from $6000. The petition is considered checkmate on the element that opposed the raise, including two members of the commission.

PAIR HELD FOR BREAKING TRAIN

Locomotive Uncoupled; Seek Prisoners' Records

Wilslow (Ariz.) Mayor Figures in Auto Accident

Woman Asks for Husband's Job as Constable

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FLAGSTAFF (Ariz.) July 18.—In the County Jail, held on a thirty-day sentence for vagrancy, are two men, who gave the names of Paul Allen of Des Moines and Carl Latham of Ranger, Tex. Specifically, they are charged with having uncoupled the engine of east-bound Santa Fe train No. 22 from the coaches at a point east of Winslow. The engineer soon discovered his loss and hastily ran back to the train, where the passengers had been thrown in heaps by the sudden working of the automatic air brakes. The two men, who appear to have been hiding on the front of the first car, saw the locomotive returning and took to the woods. They later were captured near Sunshine, in this county, having concluded to retrace their steps westward. The records of the two prisoners are being investigated.

Under somewhat similar circumstances, the locomotive of the fast west-bound mail No. 7, was uncoupled by three lads at a point a short distance east of Williams, the engineer running into the depot before he found that no coaches were trailing. He struck back without waiting for orders, for another passenger train was following closely, possibly saving a serious rear-end collision. The three young men said that the uncoupling was an accident and had not been deliberately done.

MAYOR IN ACCIDENT

WINSLOW (Ariz.) July 18.—While Mayor C. L. Milam was driving a party of friends to the Petrified Forest, a slide-slip in gravel threw the car to the side of the road, where it overturned, pinning all the party save the Mayor beneath it. Mr. Milam managed to lift the side of the automobile and freed the imprisoned ones, who were little hurt. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Burson of Santa Ana, Cal.

PLENTY OF WATER

PHOENIX, July 18.—Though water in the Roosevelt reservoir is down to less than 500,000 acre feet, Manager C. C. Bragin of the Water Users' Association states that no anxiety need be felt for the coming season. It is probable that at least 250,000 acre feet will be added from the summer storms in the mountains, while preparations have been made for speedy installation of large pumps at the heads of the valley canals, capable of handling 100,000 acre feet for the season. More than 100 drainage pumps also are available for maximum service along the canals where the water table is relatively high. Summer irrigation is expected to be almost wholly from the water of the Verde River, leaving the inflow above Roosevelt held behind the dam.

SEEKS HUSBAND'S JOB

WINSLOW (Ariz.) July 18.—Application for appointment as constable of Winslow precinct is said to have been made by the wife of Edward Gardner, former constable, lately sentenced to a term in Leavenworth prison on conviction of conspiracy in connection with the interstate theft of an automobile. Mrs. Gardner has been left with a family to support and believes she could fill the place of her husband as an officer of the peace.

STATE DIVISION OF MARKETS TO GO ON

MRS. PIERCE SETTLES ALL DOUBT ABOUT ITS CONTINUANCE

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, July 18.—Definite announcement was made today by Mrs. Nellie Brewer Pierce, chief of the division of budgets and accounts of the State Board of Control, that the division of markets of the State Department of Agriculture, will continue to function.

Following a conference with James Mills, chairman of the Governor's agricultural council, Mrs. Pierce declared there had never been any intention to abolish the division, which she said was created by statute.

Mrs. Pierce said the board had approved the request of the division to inaugurate a market report service in co-operation with the Federal government, and had decided to allow the Department of Agriculture an additional $11,200 for quarantine work.

NOTAS TELEGRAFICAS

Noticias de Washington

WASHINGTON, julio 18.—Nótanse señales de que va a resucitar la oposición a la nueva designación del Presidente Harding, como resultado de la victoria radical de Minnesota.

La Sociedad Siderúrgica ha terminado su testimonio en la audiencia de Pittsburg.

El Coronel Nutt, de la oficina de las fuerzas de prohibición, ha recibido noticia de un gran contrabando de licor en Prairie Du Chien, Wisconsin.

El Senador de la Legislatura de Illinois, Buck, dice que la administración de Harding debería dejar de seguir haciendo hincapié en el tribunal mundial y en la prohibición, y consagrarse a los asuntos fundamentales.

El Gobernador General Wood tendrá todo el apoyo de la administración en las trifulcas de las Filipinas.

Viene la Duse a Trabajar a América

NUEVA YORK, julio 18.—Para ver si le es posible recuperar la fortuna que perdió durante la guerra, Eleonora Duse, la "Bernhardt Italiana," volverá a las tablas en este país. Supóse hoy que había firmado con un teatro de Broadway un contrato de diez semanas, que comenzarán en octubre. La famosa trágica, que cuenta ahora sesenta y cuatro años de edad, aparecerá probablemente en las piezas de Ibsen, que está representando actualmente en Londres.

Lo de los Magistrados de la Suprema Corte en Méjico

CIUDAD DE MEJICO, julio 18. Anoche se hicieron resueltos esfuerzos por romper en el Congreso el callejón sin salida que desde el 31 de mayo, está estorbando la elección de los once magistrados de la Suprema Corte.

Una comisión de la Cámara de Diputados informó favorablemente sobre un proyecto de ley que provee a la destitución de dieciséis senadores, en caso de que éstos no reanuden su asistencia a las sesiones del Senado, pues su ausencia hace imposible alcanzar en las votaciones la mayoría de las dos terceras partes, que la ley exige. Los seis irreconciliables pertenecen a varios colores políticos, y se declararon en huelga porque no estaban satisfechos con los candidatos que propuso el partido cooperatista, que es el que se halla en el poder. Los huelguistas han declarado que ellos tratan de que se elijan magistrados de carácter tal, que segreguen por completo la Suprema Corte de la política. Según la constitución, los Magistrados de la Suprema Corte son de elección vitalicia, y sólo por desafuero se les puede remover. Hay pendiente en el Congreso un projecto de ley, por el que quiere reducirse a seis años su período de servicios.

NOTAS LOCALES

Se Está Averiguando lo de la Película del Match Dempsey-Gibbons

La averiguación del asunto del transporte a Los Angeles, de la cinta del combate Dempsey-Gibbons vendrá a parar eventualmente al gran jurado federal, del que se solicitarán acusaciones de conspiración para violar una ley federal, según indicaron ayer, el Sr. Burke, Procurador de los Estados Unidos, y el Sr. León Bone, Jefe del Departamento de Justicia de aquí.

Las cintas, que los agentes del citado departamento ocuparon la noche del martes en los talleres Horsley, estaban todavía ayer en la caja de caudales del Departamento de Justicia, a pesar de los esfuerzos que ha hecho la citada compañía de cine para que se le devuelvan. Las vistas fueron tomadas en Shelby por un empleado de la casa Horsley. No se dió a conocer por los funcionarios federales la identidad de los culpables de importar dichas vistas al Estado de California; pero como se supone hubo una conspiración entre todos los que prestaron la mano en este transporte ilegal, créese que en la acusación van a consignarse numerosas personas.

Muchacha que se Resiste a Volver a su Casa

Leota Rosamond Bray, chica de cuerpo, pero sobrada de energías, se irguió ayer hasta sus casi cinco pies de estatura en la sala del Juez Crail, y declaró que no volvería a estar bajo la potestad del Sr. y la Sra. Andrew Bray, antes de Deadwood, Dakota Meridional, y que hoy viven en Tacoma.

"Por lo que yo sé, no son mis padres," dijo la joven. "Mi primer recuerdo de ellos es cuando tenía yo cinco años. Tengo ahora 17; puedo ganarme la vida, yo lo he estado haciendo."

La Srita. Bray compareció ante el Juez Crail a virtud de un escrito de "habeas corpus" que obtuvo el letrado J. R. Wilder, quien declaró que la muchacha tenía ya más de 14 años y podía, por lo tanto, nombrar a su propio tutor. Que se la tenía detenida en la Corte Juvenil, sin autorización de la ley.

La Sra. Ruth Violet Southern, actriz de cine y camarada de escuela de la Srita. Bray, manifestó que la joven defensora del libre albedrío había comenzado a trabajar para la pantalla, y parecía dar muestras de aptitudes, que la permitirán ganarse la vida en ese arte.

Policías Acusados de Prevaricación

Ayer se formularon cargos contra dos agentes de policía, asegurando que estaban recibiendo dinero por dar protección a una gran banda de timadores que desde hace varios meses trabaja en Los Angeles. Louis Leon, que se dice miembro de esa banda, es quien, en una supuesta confesión, formuló esos cargos ante el Teniente Fiscal Stafford. Leon se declaró culpable en la sala del Juez Cole del cargo de haberse apoderado, con pretextos falsos, de $1250 de Martin Bueler. Después de esto, hizo sus revelaciones ante el Teniente Fiscal.

DEPORTES

Golf

Los campeonatos anuales de jugadores menores de golf del Estado comenzarán hoy en la pista de Del Monte, con treinta de los mejores jugadores menores del Estado inscritos para estas pruebas. Don Davin, as de San Diego, que apenas cuenta quince años de edad, es el favorito para llevarse los primeros honores. En el torneo del año próximo pasado salió segundo, habiendo sido primero Jimmy Wade. Todos los muchachos d e15 años o menos pueden entrar en estas pruebas. Jimmy Wade, tenedor actual del título, queda este año fuera del juego, por haber pasado el límite de edad.

Baseball

Los Angeles le ganó ayer a San Francisco el segundo juego de la serie en el parque Washington, habiendo sido la anotación, 10 a 7. El equipo de ésta ha demostrado gran adelanto en los últimos días.

Boxeo

El anfiteatro de la Legión Americana en Hollywood ha sido completamente reformado, y va a abrirse de nuevo la noche de mañana. Bobby Harper, uno de los mejores pesomedios de la costa, peleará contra el marinero Ashmore, muchacho de aquí, en el número principal. Harper viene de Portland, Oregon, donde ha tenido various combates muy buenos.

Tennis

NUEVA YORK, julio 18.—William M. Johnson, de San Francisco, ganador del campeonato mundial de tennis en el reciente torneo de Wimbledon, volvió hoy al país con otros seis notables jugadores americanos de tennis, que tomaron parte en dicha prueba. Venía entre ellos Francis T. Hunter, a quien Johnston derrotó en las finales.

El 23 del corriente comenzará, en las canchas del Club de Tennis de Los Angeles, el juego para los campeonatos de tennis de Sudcalifornia.

Seek Relation of Police Chief to Klan Group

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

LUMBERTON (N. C.) July 18. An effort to learn whether or not Mike Lawson, Chief of Police of Fairmont, N. C., is actively identified with the Ku Klux Klan at Fairmont, was seen tonight when subpoenas were issued out of the Robeson County Court against the asserted Grand Klaliff of the Fairmont Klan.

Lawson, Johnson Hedgepath and Hugh Bronson, are being tried on charges growing out of the flogging of Mrs. Mary Watson and Mrs. Hattie Purvis.

Jule Brogdon, one of the three asserted Ku Klux Klansmen indicted in connection with the whipping of the two women, took the stand and made a full denial of participation in the whipping and declared that he never had been connected with the Ku Klux Klan. Under questioning he admitted that his wife had a living and a divorced husband at the time he married her. He denied that A. Godwin, first husband of his wife, and who was said to have since divorced her, had ever shot at him. Brogdon admitted that he had once been fined for using profanity.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DEL MONTE, July 18.—Over thirty junior golfers, hailing from all sections of the State, will tee off here tomorrow in their annual championship tournament. The entry list this year is the most brilliant in the history of the affair, and keen competition is anticipated.

The strongest contender from the southern part of the State is Don Davin of San Diego, winner of the juvenile championship of Southern California. This 15-year-old star was runner-up to Jimmy Wade of Los Angeles, in last year's championship. According to Peter Hay, Del Monte professional, who has been watching his play, Davin is one of the most finished juvenile golfers ever developed in the West. Hay thinks that the junior tournament will compare favorably with that in the State amateur championships.

A strong aggregation of junior mashie wielders from San Francisco are here anxious to take the title to the northern city. Their supporters claim that many of the San Francisco lads have developed with surprising rapidity in the last year, and are due to give the southerners a run for the honors. They are pinning their hopes on Georgie McDaniel, the Olympic club boy star, and Herbert Fleishhacker, who has been shooting the Del Monte course for the last few days in close to par.

Golfers from Stockton, San Jose and Sacramento will be represented in the tournament.

The play will start with the handicap qualifying round tomorrow and continue with match play until Sunday, when the finals will be run off. The tournament is open to all boys, affiliated with State associations and clubs, who have not passed their sixteenth birthday. The birthday restriction eliminates Jimmy Wade, the present champion.

Charley Deal, Now a Bengal, Signs Papers

According to Eddie Maier, owner of the Vernon baseball team, Charley Deal, whilom third sacker of the Angels and now a striped cat, proved an easy man to do business with. Charley was yesterday signed up as a Bengal. The idea of a bonus was not hinted at, according to Maier. Bill Essick, however, will hardly get the benefit of Deal's services for some time as Charley is suffering from a peculiar affliction of the eyes similar to the trouble that put George Sisler out of the game.

Deal is now under the care of an oculist and will undergo treatment for a few days. If at the end of that time his vision shows improvement he will at once join the Tigers. However, it is hardly likely that Deal will don a uniform for a week at least. According to Maier, Deal seemed pleased with the prospect of becoming a full-fledged Bengal.

ATHLETIC BODIES ENTER FEDERATION

At least fifty people were present last night at the L.A.A.C. at the banquet given in honor of Elward S. Brown, executive officer of the National Amateur Athletic Federation. The affair was arranged by Bob Weaver. Mr. Brown in an address described the plan and scheme of the federation.

At least fifteen different organizations in Southern California—in fact, all athletic organizations of Southern California voted unanimously to go into the federation. A committee was appointed to meet today and start work on the organization's plans. The organization meets today at 5 o'clock at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

TENDLER IN GRAND CONDITION

"Lefty" Tears into Sparring Partners in Workout for Leonard Tilt

BY HARRY NEWMAN

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DELANCO (N. J.) July 18.—We found Lew Tendler this afternoon as the famous side-winder was tearing into a flock of sparring partners at his training place here on the banks of the Delaware. In preparation for his approaching battle with Benny Leonard, lightweight champion. Lefty Lew is doing his stuff on the estate of Clarence H. Taubel, a son of the "hosiery king," and a great admirer of the Philadelphia slugger.

What we saw of Tendler convinced us that Leonard is in for a decidedly brisk evening at the Yankee Stadium next Monday. A fitene-round trip is scheduled with the lightweight championship at stake. Tendler looks great; probably never was in better shape in his life and is confident he is going to beat the champion. Lew is modest to a degree, but his manager, Phil Glassman, declares he doesn't think Leonard will be there for the tenth round. Glassman says Leonard was lucky to go the route the last time they met, at Boyle's Thirty Acres.

Tendler made surprisingly frequent use of his right in the training scrimmages. He weighed just a point over 135 pounds. Henceforth he will take things easy.

TOOL'S STAND IS BACKED BY MOGULS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

ROCHESTER (N. Y.) July 18. The International League club owners at a meeting here today commended President Toole on his stand in the umpires controversy, which started on Monday with the discharge of Umpire William Phyle.

It was said today that Umpires Magerkurth and Deer had withdrawn their resignations.

Toole said he would confer with Umpires McDevitt and Geisel, who also resigned. It was said that these two umpires also were anxious to return to the fold of the International League.

There is no shortage of umpires, Toole declared, for he has as many as twenty-five applications now on hand for positions.

Fred G. Smith intends to give Cleveland a spacious billiard and bowling establishment, all on one floor.

Bill Johnston Returns With World's Title

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—William M. Johnston of San Francisco, winner of the world's tennis championship in the recent tournament at Wimbledon, returned home today with a half dozen other American tennis notables who took part in the meet.

The party included Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle, whom Johnston defeated in the finals and five women players—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, New York; Miss Martha Bayard, Shorthills, N. J., and Misses Eleanora Sears, Katherine Gardner and Leslie Bancroft of Boston.

Another passenger on the Olympic was Brian I. C. Norton, South African tennis star, who has been prominent in European tournaments the past six years. He intends to participate in several eastern invitation tournaments and in the national championship in Philadelphia in September. Norton was defeated by Johnston in the semifinals of the Wimbledon tournament.

THREE TIE FOR LOW HONOR

Kerrigan, Farrell and McDonald Smith Shot 72 in First Round of Metropolitan Tourney

BY WALTER HAGEN
Former American and British Open Champion
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
[Copyright, 1923, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

CANOEBROOK COUNTRY CLUB, SUMMIT (N. J.) July 18.—The largest field of golfers that I ever saw take part in a metropolitan championship was out at Canoebrook Club today. As Bobby Jones took away our national title the professional element is very keen on winning this event, as it is considered the next most important title to the open, played last week at Inwood. Personally I feel a great interest in this championship as I had possession of the title for five years in succession. Two of these years, however, there was no tournament played on account of the war, but as I had won the previous year, the title held over.

Bob MacDonald won the honor away from me two years ago. Last year it was won by Martin O'Loughlin at the famous Lide course. A strange thing happened to Marty today in defending his title. Just before starting this morning he was hit on the hand by a ball driven by one of the other players and was painfully injured. This will undoubtedly put him out of the running as he took an eighty-four and is rather far back in the list.

THREE TIE FOR LOW

Three golfer stars are tied for low on the first day's round. The trio is composed of MacDonald Smith, who played so well at Troon Tommy Kerrigan, who finished third in the British open two years ago, and Johnny Farrell, who is one of the promising home breds of the country. They had cards of 72, which is regarded as first-class golf over the Canoebrook course. This course is very long and there is plenty of trouble at hand with a golfer who wanders from the straight and narrow path. The inward half appears to be much harder than the outward. Both Kerrigan and Smith were out in thirty-four, but it took them four more strokes to come home. Bobby Cruikshank, the sensation at Inwood, did a 75. He appeared to be over-golfed as he has played twelve rounds in the last week.

I got a very late start today on account of having played an exhibition in Rochester Tuesday. I got around the course in seventy-four strokes and consider that I am in a very snug position. Gene Sarazen did his round in seventy-seven; he did not seem to be hitting the ball with his usual precision. He got a bad start and covered the first half in thirty-nine. Jim Barnes was one stroke worse than Gene. He was going very well in the first half but required forty-two to come home.

There was a large gallery on hand, almost as many as were at Inwood last week. The player that the gallery was particularly interested in was George McLean. George failed to qualify at Inwood but he went down to Shaunee and won the open there with four remarkable rounds.

There is only one amateur in the field who is considered to be a dangerous contender for the title. This is Frank Dyer of Upper Montclair. He holds the Metropolitan and New Jersey amateur titles. Frank is a good golfer with a very sound game learned when he was a youngster. He has a chance to win this championship but the professionals would hardly want to see another amateur following in Bobby Jones's footsteps so soon after the latter's victory last week. We play another round tomorrow and wind up with two rounds on Friday.

FINAL SHOOT FOR TROPHIES SUNDAY

The final shoot of 100 targets of an eight-shoot series on three trophies will be held next Sunday, by the Vernon Gun Club at the Vernon traps. A trophy is up for each of three classes, the shooter having the best two scores on 100 targets of the series to win.

In the seven shoots held, Lou Reed, the crack local gunner, leads in class A, while L. F. Bailey tops the class B shooters and Bill Pugh, club secretary is ahead in class C.

MITCHELL STOPPED BY WHITE

Richie's Seconds Toss in Sponge After Knock-down in Fourth Round

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Charley White, Chicago lightweight contender, stopped Richie Mitchell, blonde Milwaukee boxer, tonight in a brief but slashing battle before a crowd of more than 10,000 in the New York Velodrome. White scored a technical knockout in the fourth round when Richie's seconds tossed in a sponge as their man went down for the second time in the round from a battering attack to the jaw.

Richie's handlers underwent a change of heart after their action and sought to have the fight continue, but boxing commission officials at the ringside ruled otherwise and ordered the bout ended. The finish came only twelve seconds before the end of the round.

White's heavier punching had its effect on Mitchell from the start, but Richie, fighting gamely and aggressively, flashed occasional spurts that had his opponent on the defensive.

Mitchell staggered White in the second round with two smashing rights to the jaw after he had been nearly floored by one of White's left hooks. Both emerged from the fray bleeding.

Richie rallied again in the third when on the verge of a knockout, but he was unable to follow up his advantage.

The fourth round witnessed White's finishing drive, a right to the jaw, flooring Mitchell once and a right and left hook sending the Milwaukeean down for the last time.

White weighed 133 and Mitchell 133½.

Trio of Fast Bouts Grace Harbor Card

Wildcat Willie O'Brien and Don Davis, boys that displayed speed and pep for four rounds at 128 pounds, will oblige in the wind-up of the Chief Petty Officers' boxing show at the harbor tonight. Willie is from this city and Davis is from the Navy's air fleet. Mathmaker Lucas of the harbor club contends they make one of the most attractive wind-ups he has landed for his harbor club.

Joe Mendino, Los Angeles, and Sailor Dencio, San Pedro, will box the semi-wind-up. They are 124-pounders, well known to Southern California ring bugs. Frankie Britten, a San Francisco boy, and Jackie Jones of Arizona have been awarded the special event at 126 pounds.

In addition, Lucas has Kid Hoppe of Huntington Beach and Frankie Smith of Los Angeles, milling at 120 pounds. Red Williams of Los Angeles, and Young Thompson of San Pedro, scrapping at 158 pounds; Young Barber of Sacramento and Phil Cruz of San Pedro, mussing at 118 pounds and Kid Palmer of Los Angeles and Benn Diaz of Los Angeles battling at 116 pounds.

The usual officials will handle the bouts.

FEDERAL OFFICERS ON PICTURE TRAIL

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, July 18.—Rumors that pictures of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight will be shown for the first time at the society gathering of the grand bal de lumiere at Onwentsia Country Club, Lake Forest, Saturday night reached the ears of Federal officials here today.

This report will be investigated, District Attorney Edwin Olson said, and both maximum fines and imprisonments will be asked if it is found the Federal laws are violated.

HEAVYWEIGHT MILL HELD UP

Proposed Dempsey-Firpo Tilt Still Hanging Fire

Kearns and Rickard Fail to Agree at Confabs

Promoter Getting Cooler on Argentine Venture

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Tex Rickard's efforts to sign, seal and deliver the proposed Jack Dempsey-Firpo match for the world's heavyweight championship either in the United States or the Argentine, apparently were no nearer completion today after a series of conferences among the promoters, Firpo, the latter's trainer, Jimmy De Forrest and Jack Kearns, manager of the champion.

Rickard declined to reveal the exact status of affairs, beyond saying that "a number of things were holding up negotiations" but Kearns added that he expected definite developments within the next forty-eight hours. He may confer with Rickard again tomorrow on the match, he said.

ANOTHER HITCH

The chief difficulty surrounding the bout was believed to be its site, although it was said an additional hitch had developed in the form of increased financial demands by Firpo.

Regardless of this angle, however, Firpo reiterated to Rickard his desire to fight Dempsey in his native city, Buenos Aires, while Kearns adhered to his preference for two title bouts in this country, the first with Firpo around Labor Day and the second with Harry Wills, negro challenger, about World's Series time. The champion's manager was to have decided today definitely on Rickard's proposal to stage the Firpo match in the Argentine, but he reserved final answer pending possibilities of arranging the match in this country.

At the same time the belief gained ground that Rickard is now less enthusiastic about an Argentine venture, feeling that despite assurances from his agents of probable financial success, considerable risk would be involved.

SEVERAL OTHER SITES

Color was added to this tonight by advices from Buenos Aires quoting newspaper opinion as being skeptical of the prospects of a paying "gate" for the proposed match.

While Rickard has not withdrawn his Argentine proposal, he admitted today that he had several other sides in mind, outside of Buenos Aires and Boyle's Thirty Acres, his arena in Jersey City. What these are he would not reveal, although there was a revival of talk that he might effect a working agreement with Tom O'Rourke, matchmaker at the Polo Grounds, for the use of the Giants' ball park as a championship site.

Neither promoter, however, would admit this possibility.

WHAT THEY SAY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BUENOS AIRES, July 18.—"While all South Americans are proud of Firpo, not all will pay big prices to see him fight. Quite a lot would be content to read about it afterward," says the Herald, English language newspaper in an editorial today, declaring the proposed Firpo-Dempsey bout in Buenos Aires would not be a financial success.

Asserting that the estimated gate receipts in excess of $350,000 are too large to be attained, the newspaper adds: "Rickard had better forget Argentina, once for all. It is no place to stage a world's championship, because there is not enough population."

The Herald thinks few Brazilians would make the ocean voyage to see the fight and few Chileans would attempt the expensive trans-Andean trip.

The Standard, which is also printed in English, says it is too much to expect the reportedly required gate of $800,000 from Argentine's population of 9,000,000 people.

SUBSTITUTE O'DOWD FOR JOHNNY BUFF

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

CHICAGO, July 18.—Phil O'Dowd, Columbus, O. bantamweight, who holds a referee's decision over Joe Lynch, bantamweight champion, today was substituted for Johnny Buff to box Harold Smith in one of the ten-round bouts at Aurora, Ill., Friday night. Buff suffered a broken hand and was knocked out in a bout in New York last night.

LONDOS THROWS NOZZERINO

Jim Londos, Greek champion, triumphed over Poggi Nozzerino, A.E.F. star, in the main event of the first of Lou Daro's weekly wrestling shows last night. Londos won the go in two straight falls, the first coming in one hour and five minutes and the second after seven minutes of grappling. At the start of the affair, Nozzerino looked liked he might take the Greek champion's measure, but as the bout progressed, and Londos was able to use his famous flying head-[illegible]

Probably the best bout on the card was the feature go between Jack Washburn and Andres Cantanos. The Spanish star won his fall in 25 minutes. The pair were on the go from the start and served the enthusiasts with some excellent wrestling.

In the preliminary, Cyclone Johnson and Ray Steel wrestled fifteen minutes, the time limit, to a draw.

Bull Montana handled the refereeing in big-league style, several times breaking up what might easily have developed into a fight between the wrestlers. Lou Daro announced his intention of matching Londos with Ad Santel in the near future. Such a bout should be the biggest drawing card in the wrestling line ever staged in Los Angeles.

BATES DEFEATS FUKUDA

Japanese Champ Loses in Longwood Bowl Tourney; Harvey Snodgrass Wins Again

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

BOSTON (Mass.) July 18.—Wallace J. Bates, youth from the Pacific Coast, eliminated Masanosuke Fukuda, Japanese Davis cup player from the Longwood Bowl singles tournament today in straight sets and tomorrow will oppose R. N. Williams, II., of Bryn Mawr, Pa., in the round before the semi-finals.

Fukuda was puzzled by Bates' controlled speed and the count in the first set reached five-love before he could break through for a game.

Favorites advanced in the singles draw from top to bottom and the best match of the eight fourth-round encounters was that in which N. N. Niles, veteran Bostonian, defeated Philip Neer, of Leland Stanford University in straight sets. Neer's aggressive strokes enabled him to force Niles to two deuce sets, the first of which required eighteen games. Niles' steadiness was the difference in their games.

The seeded teams in the double tournament held their places in the draw and two of the strongest combinations seeking the title will clash tomorrow when Fukuda and Zenso Shimizu face Williams and Niles in a fourth-round encounter.

The summary:

Singles, fourth round:

R. N. Williams, II, Bryn Mawr, Pa., defeated R. N. Bradley, Harvard, 6-4, 8-6, 6-2; Wallace J. Bates, San Francisco, defeated Masanosuke Fukuda, Japan, 6-3, 6-2, 7-5; Carl Fischer, Philadelphia, defeated J. S. Nicholl, Boston, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2; Arnold W. Jones, Providence, defeated R. C. Seaver, Boston, 6-0, 6-1, 6-1; Harvey Snodgrass, Los Angeles, defeated C. G. Plimpton, [illegible]

Please Be Cautious

Since we started to feature the Stewart double bar Autoguard it seems as though every shop in the country has started to turn out a bumper that is supposed to be just as good. This is not a knock at other brands, for some of the new bumpers are good products—others are bumpers in name only. So when buying bumpers for your car, even if you decide to get the tried and true Stewart, don't let low price mislead you into buying something that will not protect your car.

SEALS SLIPPING OFF THE ROCKS

Angels Again Deal Out a Licking to Visitors

Heavers Scott and Hodge Tapped Urgently

Red Smith is Still Going Like Prairie Fire

BY ED O'MALLEY

Whoopala—Angels again depressed the Seals, this time, 10 to 7, incidentally running up George Putnam's blood pressure almost to the bursting point. Oh boy, oh boy—the Seals am sure slipping off the rocks—yea—slipping apparently in that department where they were thought to be invincible—the heaving.

But how about our Angels? Who can fathom this Dr. Jekyl-Mr. Hyde bunch of ball tossers? Talk about mussing up horsehide—every one of the Celestials is bruising the sphere with berserker rage. Let us hope that it is not a flash in the pan and that the sluggers of yesterday will be on the job again today dealing havoc to the pesky Seals.

JUST A MOMENT

Stay jailer—just one moment, and hear our wail. San Francisco hasn't as yet tucked away that old gonfalon by a jugfull. The Bay City soothsayers are trembling in their socks and several more Cherubic joltings dealt their pets this week will probably make them see white livers in every animal pried open for the omen stuff.

Angelic triumph yesterday was compassed in a huddle of astounding muffs, sensational fielding stunts, free slugging and gimlet-eyed umpiring. Hood, Carroll and McCabe seemed to have been crossed by a high sky, a canopy so remote as to bring on a fit of near sightedness. These high skies at times, when viewed intently, bring on an attack of "twinkling flies," and the only antidote that will nullify their work is constantly to chirp, "Shoo fly, don't bother me. Horsefly, don't tickle me."

JIM EVAPORATES

Jim Scott faced the Angels and that's about all he did do. The terror of his sobriquet, "Death Valley," seemed to evaporate under the Krugmen assault and he was ditched in the second, Master Hodge taking up the Seals' burden. Hodge was no better than Jamsey, he, too, falling by the wayside in the eighth, a real bull Seal showing up in the form of Lefty Mitchell.

Our own George Lyons dealt the slants for Krug and was in the quicksands early and often. Wallace displaced him in the sixth and did nobly.

The Angels started out like a prairie fire and soon had Scott wishing he had that old mustache so he could have something to pull on. In the very first canto they tatooed the plate three times, Red Smith starting off with a thrilling single to left. Krug bunted in front of the plate. Scott rushed in helter skelter but when he dipped for the ball, the old ball wasn't there, so Marty was safe at first.

COPPED AT PLATE

Twombly swung a single to right in that inimitable style of his, but Smith was caught at the plate, Waner to Ellison to Yelle. The fans roared their disapproval in oodles of groans and moans for they were certain that Smith was not only safe but that the play wasn't even close. Griggs darted one over Scott's head right at Kilduff, but as Pete was about to grab the apple it leaped far over his head for an excursion to center field, Krug scoring. Hood lined to Compton, Twombly tallying after the catch. McCabe bunted to the Wrigley sign for a mountain of a triple, sending Griggs over the plate. McAuley flied to Waner.

In the very next frame, the Seraphs came back with four more as follows: Byler sent a Texas Leaguer to left for a single. Lyons sacrificed Mulligan to Kilduff. Smith lifted a dropper back of short, the lazy onion dropping between Kelly and Walsh, Byler going to third. Krug poled a Texas Leaguer to the left of second, which fell in front of Compton, Byler crossing the plate.

GRIGGS DOUBLES

Twombly flied to Compton, Smith hiking to third after the catch. Griggs drilled a double to right, scoring Smith and Krug. Hood singled, scoring Griggs, and went to second on the throw in. McCabe hit a hot one to Kilduff, who threw low to Ellison, who dropped the ball, but Hood was nailed at the plate, Ellison to Yelle.

After scoring a run in each of the first five innings the visitors threatened to tie up matters in the first of the sixth. Yelle started off with a torried drive at Smith, which Red found too hot to handle. Hodge went out, Smith to Griggs. Kelly then gently dropped one over the left-field fence, sending Yelle home in front of him. Compton hit a long one to Hood, who muffed the ball, but the ambitious Pete was nailed at third, Hood to McAuley to Smith. Mulligan was an easy out, Mulligan to Ellison.

OH, YOU RED

Just a mouthful or two about Red Smith. The veteran is going like a gusher at Signal Hill and is ironing out the old onion to the Queen's taste. Red has established a tabasco factory at third and is ladling out the hot stuff to his team-mates in big tablespoonfuls. Smith has really transformed the difficult corner into a hot corner and has his name emblazoned on the front door in gilded letters.

Probably the uncanniest fielding stunt pulled off here this year bobbed up in the last of the fifth inning. McAuley hit sharply toward second. Walsh at short, darted like a leaping tuna toward the keystone bag. He arrived their on the low, full stretch just in time to get his left mitt on the ball. In swinging to an upright posture he quickly flicked the pill from his left to his right hand. Clear off his balance, he underslung the pill with lightning-like rapidity on a low line to Ellison, the first sacker scooping it just in time to beat Mac's tap of the bag. Had Walsh been able to set himself for the peg, the stunt would even then have been phenomenal, but the mere fact that the throw was made off balance, made the play uncanny. Walsh was roundly cheered for his effort. The glad tidings follow:

"PINKY" QUITS JOB AS MENTOR

"Pinky" Griffith, popular Pasadena High School mentor, has resigned according to an announcement made public yesterday by the Crown City school board authorities. "Pinky" has coached the football, basketball and baseball teams at the Pasadena institution ever since the resignation of Duffy Seay several years ago. Although he has always enjoyed the whole-hearted support of the students, his popularity increased by leaps and bounds last year, when he defeated Long Beach, Pasadena's ancient rival, on the gridiron. Mr. Griffith will continue as a member of the Pasadena faculty, as an instructor in the department of sciences. His successor as athletic director has not been named, although it is rumored that one of the Shlaudeman boys may receive the appointment.

Bass fishing is steadily improving at the Pines on Bass lake, according to word received by Pete Peterson, fish and game authority of the B. H. Dyas Company. The water at the lake is receding and although no limits of fish have been reported caught, the messes of fish that are being caught are of good sized bass.

TRICKEY'S IRVINERS STEPPING

Beanpickers Out of Slump and Playing Winning Ball Once More

BY JOE BUSH

Manager Trickey has his Irvine Beanpickers going at a speedy clip at present and opposing nines can expect a tough afternoon when going up against them. For a couple of weeks the Beanpickers were in a slump, but are now making up for their losses with a vengeance.

The Irvine twirler, Williams, has been pitching good ball, while Bert Cutting, first sacker, and Left Fielder Ranney have been walloping the ball hard and often. The team as a whole is fielding in fine fashion and Trickey and the Irvine fans are expecting a lot of victories.

Playing against the Rosslyn Hotel Club last Sunday, Shortstop Morrow of Watts accomplished a very rare batting feat. Morrow drove out six hits in six times at bat, one of the blows being a triple. Pruett and Kolstead, also of Watts, were not far behind Morrow, the former getting five out of six and the latter collecting four safeties in a half-dozen times up.

Glen Roselle, center fielder for the Compton Firemen, will probably be named chief of the Compton Fire Department for his wonderful work against Downey last Sunday. Roselle accounted for both Compton runs and was responsible for his team winning, 2 to 1. Roselle drove out a triple, double and a single in three times at bat, but his real performance was in the last of the ninth, when he made a shoestring catch of a liner and threw to first for a double play, ending the game.

Right Fielder Settle of La Habra and Pitcher Hoover were the only La Habrans to solve Twirler Milt Nolan's delivery last Sunday, when the Kant-Skore Pistons trimmed La Habra, 11 to 3. Settle got three hits and Hoover drew two.

The Cox-Haas club took the lead in its three-game series with Azusa by winning the opener of the series, 3 to 0, at Brookside Park Sunday. Twirler Duncan hurled a wonderful game for the winners, and although he was touched for ten hits, he was invincible in the pinches. Willitts and Dierkes uncorked some good pitching for the losers, but all for naught.

SACS GRAB AND CREEP UP ON LEADING SEALS

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SACRAMENTO, July 18.—Going into the final half of the ninth inning with the score at 4 to 4, in today's Moreing Field struggle with the Siwashes the Solons opened up a barrage on Harry Gardner and drove him from the hill, Gregg replacing him, after McGinnis had singled, with one down, and Ryan had doubled, preceding a walk purposely issued to Kopp, filling the bases. On the second pitched ball by Gregg, McGinnis shot for the plate and Hemingway dropped the ball to the grass. It was a perfect "squeeze" and Gregg didn't have a chance to get McGinnis. Thus the Solons made it two straight with a 5 to 4 count, while the Seals in the south repeated for loss, putting the locals but four games behind the league leadership. Prough outpitched Gardner. Jakie May Bests Colwell in Pitchers' Battle

Rader's Hot Single Drives Winning Run Over

BY ED HUGHES

OAKLAND, July 18.—Vernon beat Oakland again today and again the Tigers had to work overtime. The score was 4 to 2 in eleven innings.

Three hits and Massey's error gave the Tigers their two runs in the eleventh inning. They were enough to win the game, although the Oaks touched Jakie May, the Vernon southpaw, for two hits in their half of the inning.

BRUBAKER FAILS

Ray Brubaker had a chance to tie the score by getting a long hit, but the best that he could do was to paste a fly to Hyatt in right field, and his team sank deeper into the cellar.

The pitching duel between May and Ira Colwell eclipsed that of the day before between Ernie Alten and the great Walter Mails when the Oaks and the Tigers battled for thirteen innings. Colwell had the better of today's tussle until the fatal eleventh. High started the last round with an infield hit to Massey and was forced out at second by Hyatt.

Warner drove a Texas leaguer over short. Rader's hot single to left scored Hyatt and Bott hit to Brubaker, who threw to Massey, forcing Rader at second, but Warner scored when Massey threw wild to first trying to complete a double play.

PUT OVER TWO RUNS

Vernon put over two runs in the third inning. Hannah opened with a double to right and went to third on May's sacrifice. He was held while Knight tossed out Murphy. Chadbourne walked and crossed the plate behind Hannah when High doubled to left field. The Tigers got only three hits from then until that eleventh inning rally. In the seventh Colwell struck out three men.

The Oaks knotted the count in the fifth. Brubaker singled, Read fanned and Maderas singled. Colwell beat out a bunt. Brubaker scored on the hit and when Warner threw wild to first, Maderas trotted to third. Massey singled, scoring Maderas. Cooper fanned to end the inning.

BASEBALL WASHINGTON PARK
SAN FRANCISCO vs. LOS ANGELES
TODAY—GAME CALLED AT 2:30

cketers Tangle Here Monday

They required too much of Jess Willard. Whatever chance the Kansan had on winning the championship, and that chance was very slim, vanished when they imposed on the old gladiator the heartless task of beating two men prior to meeting the title-holder.

Conceivably, Willard had one good fight left in him. He was obsessed with the idea he could beat Dempsey. That was the event for which he desired to prepare himself. He knew Dempsey's style, and what to expect. He knew why he had failed at Toledo. With all his energies centered in one battle, every faculty trained and centered on it and spurred by a desire for revenge, Willard might have risen to unexpected heights and beaten the man who conquered him.

Dempsey, the sight of Dempsey opposite him, is the one thing in the world which could have made Willard vicious, and this might have made him a great fighter—something which he wasn't against Floyd Johnson or Firpo.

But they interposed two fights between him and the dream of his declining years. The task cut out for Willard would have been worthy a younger man of his ability. He fulfilled as far as humanly possible the cold-blooded program mapped out for him, but his aging limbs would not permit him to complete the task.

Folks all over the circuit are talking about Jimmy Welsh, 19-year-old first baseman of the Seattle Indians. Jimmy is an Oakland boy. He first applied to the San Francisco club for a job. The officials of that team happened to be busy. So Jimmy walked over and visited Seattle, which was playing in San Francisco at the time. Jack Adams, then piloting the Siwashes, immediately tendered him a contract.

Last spring, in a conversation with the writer, Harry Wolverton likened Welsh to a second Harry Heilman. Welsh is faster than Heilman and a much better fielder. He does not need to hit quite as hard to be as valuable. Also, Welsh has that rare quality best described as baseball instinct. He stands head and shoulders above several youngsters who have come in for excessive praise during the past two or three years.

Always interesting to know what former baseball players are doing. It will surprise many to learn that "Glittering Gus" Gleichmann is now a full-fledged boniface, which is slang for hotel man. Gus writes me that he is now the chauffeur of a caravansarie at Chowchilla, this state. Sounds like Mexico, but isn't.

Not only that, but Gus's hotel is named the Chowchilla, with the accent on chow. He ought to win with that name. Says that T. Cuttlebone Cartwright was one of his paid guests recently. Sight of T. Cuttlebone emerging from dining room is good, robust ad for any hotel.

Gleichmann formerly played first base for the Vernon club, and later with Los Angeles under Frank Chance. A severe beaning in Salt Lake put a terrible crimp in his baseball career. He plays occasionally with Madera in the Valley League, but admits that business is too brisk to permit of his performing regularly.

Then there is Walter Slagle. Met up with Walter recently. He has been working in the oil fields for some time, and is now a full-fledged driller drawing big pay. He is living at Montebello, and still pitches a game occasionally, mainly for art's sake and the exercise.

Many will recall Slagle and his slow ball when he was with the Los Angeles club. Henry Berry, as I recall it, brought him out from Louisville.

Frank Decanniere is another former pitcher who has made good in the going after petroleum. Frank was on the Vernon team some years ago. He was at his best in 1916, and could have pitched effectively for several years, but decided to tie to something more permanent.

Then there is Pinkey Grindle. Not so many will recall Pinkey. He wasn't in the game here a great while, and that seems a long time ago. I believe he had a tryout with both Los Angeles and Vernon. He gathered his baseball education at St. Vincent's. Pinkey, after much wandering, is back here, and a member of a drilling crew at Signal Hill. Recently he made the mistake of getting tangled up with a fly-wheel which outweighed him. He escaped with his life but lost his shirt. Next thing he will be challenging a buzz-saw.

Holly Nine Tackles Hyde Park Sunday

Manager Carleton of the Hollywood Merchants will take his fast squad to Hyde Park Sunday. Incidentally, the Hyde Park nine is one of the leaders in the South Coast League, and the Movie City boss figures the game as one of the hardest his team has had this summer.

A few youngsters have been released by Carleton, and such players as Frank Sweetzer, Johnny Neales and John Wall have been added to the roster. Hollywood has defeated the best teams in and around Los Angeles, and boasts a record of eleven games won and but two lost.

Eddie Awerkamp, Hollywood chucker, has been going great, and Marty Krug, Angel boss, is seeking his services. He has signified his willingness to remain with the Merchants, however, for the remainder of the summer.

Peter Henley is First in Maco Corset Event

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

KALAMAZOO (Mich.) July 18. Favonian, sired by J. Malcolm Forbes, and bred in Kalamazoo by the late D. D. Streeter, won the $10,000 Exchange Club purse for 2:05 trotters this afternoon. He was driven by Fred Edman and trotted the first heat in 2:03 1-4, which sets a new record for this event. Favonian's victory was a popular one. In every one of the three heats he won his race in the quarter stretch, demonstrating that he is every inch a trotter.

Against Favonian was pitted a great field, including among others, Clyde the Great, Guardian Trust, Fayette National, Peter Pfaff and others.

Anna Bradford's Girl, Ben White driving, captured the $3000 purse for 3-year-old pacers.

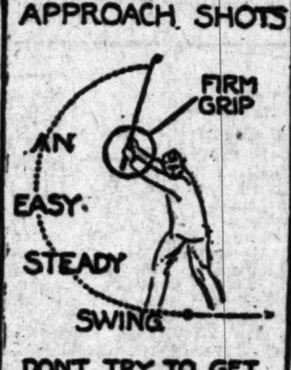
LITTLE LESSONS IN Big Sports

FOR SHORT APPROACH SHOTS



DON'T TRY TO GET STRENGTH INTO DRIVE

In general, what is the proper method of approaching the green when the distance is not great?

Answered by
WILLIE HUNTER

Member and captain British international golf team for several years; the man who introduced golf into British East and South Africa, and in New South Wales. Teacher of Willie Hunter, British amateur champion.

Use a mashie. Do not try to get strength into approach shots. Let the length of the swing, rather than its power, give the ball its impetus. Instead of strength, a solid grip is essential. The ball must be addressed in such a manner that the player does not have to reach for it, thus causing tenseness in the body and destroying the effectiveness of the swing.

ELK BOWLERS CLASH ON ANGELUS ALLEYS

Some fast bowling is looked for tonight at the Angelus Academy alleys when the Huntington Park Elks team takes on the Glendale Elks in a league game. Play will start at 8 o'clock.

The Bills' team from Huntington Park has been rolling high games in recent competition, taking three straight from the San Bernardino held last Sunday at San Bernardino.

The Little Warrior

BY P. G. WODEHOUSE

Ronny shook his head.

"Don't you believe it, old son. Don't you believe it. Stands to reason it must have been because the poor girl was broke. You wouldn't have done it and I wouldn't have done it, but Underhill did, and that's all there is to it. I mean, a tick's a tick, and there's nothing more to say. Well, I know he's been a pal of yours, Freddie, but, next time I meet him, by Jove, I'll cut him dead. Only I don't know him to speak too, dash it!" concluded Ronny regretfully.

Ronny's news had upset Freddie. Derek has returned to the Albany a couple of days ago, moody and silent. They had lunched together at the Bachelors, and Freddie had been pained at the attitude of his fellow clubmen. Usually, when he lunched at the Bachelors, his table became a sort of social center. Cherry birds would roll up to pass the time of day, and festive old eggs would toddle over to have coffee and so forth, and all that sort of thing. Jolly! On this occasion nobody had rolled, and all the eggs present had taken their coffee elsewhere. There was an uncomfortable chill in the atmosphere of which Freddie had been acutely conscious, though Derek had not appeared to notice it. The thing had only come home to Derek yesterday at the Albany, when the painful episode of Wally Mason had occurred. It was this way:

"Hullo, Freddie, old top! Sorry to have kept you waiting."

Freddie looked up from his broken meditations, to find that his host had arrived.

"Hullo!"

"A quick bracer," said Algy Martyn, "and then the jolly old foodstuffs. It's pretty late, I see. Didn't notice how time was slipping."

Over the soup, Freddie was still a prey to gloom. For once the healing gin-and-vermouth had failed to do its noble work. He sipped sombrely, so sombrely as to cause comment from his host.

"Pipped?" inquired Algy solicitously.

"Pretty pipped," admitted Freddie.

"Backed a loser?"

"No."

"Something wrong with the old tum?"

"No. . . . Worried."

"Worried?"

"About Derek."

"Derek? Who's . . . ? Oh, you mean Underhill?"

"Yes."

Algy Martyn chased an elusive piece of carrot about his soup plate, watching it interestedly as it slid coyly from the spoon.

"Oh?" he said, with sudden coolness. "What about him?"

Freddie was too absorbed in his subject to notice the change in his friend's tone.

"A dashed unpleasant thing," he said, "happened yesterday morning at my place. I was just thinking about going out to lunch, when the door-bell rang and Parker said a chappie of the name of Mason would like to see me. I didn't remember any Mason, but Parker said the chappie said he knew me when I was a kid. So he loosed him into the room, and it turned out to be a fellow I used to know years ago down in Worcestershire. I didn't know him from Adam at first, but gradually the old bean got to work, and I placed him. Wally Mason his name was. Rummily enough, he had spoken to me at the Leicester that night when the fire was, but not being able to place him, I had given him the miss somewhat. You know how it is. Chappie you've never been introduced to says something to you in a theater, and you murmur something and sheer off. What?"

"Absolutely," agreed Algy Martyn. He thoroughly approved of Freddie's code of etiquette. Sheer off. Only thing to do.

"Well, anyhow, now that he had turned up again and told me who he was, I began to remember. We had been kids together, don't you know. (What's this? Salmon? Oh, right ho.) So I buzzed about and did the jovial host, you know: gave him a drink and a tooper and all that sort of thing; and talked about the dear old days and what not. And so forth, if you follow me. Then he brought the conversation round to Jill. Of course he knew Jill at the same time when he knew me, down in Worcestershihe, you see. We were all pretty pally in those days, if you see what I mean. Well, this man Mason, it seems, had heard somewhere about Jill losing her money, and he wanted to know if it was true. I said absolutely. Hadn't heard any details, but Ronny had told me and Ronny had had it from some one who had stable information and all that sort of thing. 'Dashed shame, isn't it!' I said. 'She's gone to America, you know.' 'I didn't know,' he said. 'I understood she was going to be married quite soon.' Well, of course I told him that that was off. He didn't say anything for a bit, then he said 'Off?' I said 'Off.' 'Did she break it off?' asked the chappie. 'Well, no,' I said. 'As a matter of fact Derek broke it off.' He said 'Oh!' (What? Oh yes, a bit pheasant will be fine.) Where was I? Oh, yes. He said 'Oh!' Now, before this, I ought to tell you, this chappie Mason had asked me to come out and have a bit of lunch. I had told him I was lunching with Derek, and he said 'Right ho,' or words to that effect. 'Bring him along.' Derek had been out for a stroll, you see, and we were waiting for him to come in. Well, just at this point or juncture, if you know what I mean, in he came, and I said, 'Oh, what ho!' and introduced Wally Mason. 'Oh, do you know Underhill?' I said, or something like that. You know the sort of thing. And then . . ."

Freddie broke off and drained his glass. The recollection of that painful moment had made him feverish. Social difficulties always did.

"Then what?" inquired Algy Martyn.

"Well, it was pretty rotten. Derek held out his hand, as a chappie naturally would, being introduced to a strange chappie, and Wally Mason, giving it an absolute miss, went on talking to me just as if we were alone, you know. Look here. Here was I, where this knife is. Derek over here—this fork—with his hand out. Mason here—this bit of bread. Mason looks at his watch, and says 'I'm sorry, Freddie, but I find I've an engagement for lunch. So long!' and biffed out, without apparently knowing Derek was on the earth. I mean . . ." Freddie reached for his glass. "What I mean is, it was dashed embarrassing. I mean, cutting a fellow dead in my rooms. I don't know when I've felt so rotten!"

Algy Martyn delivered judgment with great firmness.

"Chappie was perfectly right!"

"No, but I mean . . ."

"Absolutely correct-o," insisted Algy sternly. "Underhill can't dash about all over the place giving the girl he's engaged to the mitten because she's broke, and expect no notice to be taken of it. If you want to know what I think, old man, your pal Underhill—I can't imagine what the deuce you see in him, but, school together and so forth, makes a difference, I suppose,—I say, if you want to know what I think, Freddie, the blighter Underhill would be well advised either to leg it after Jill and get her to marry him or else lie low for a goodish while till people have forgotten the thing. I mean to say, fellows like Ronny and I and Dick Wimpole and Archie Studd and the rest of our lot,—well, we all knew Jill and thought she was a topper and had danced with her here and there and seen her about and all that, and naturally we feel pretty strongly about the whole dashed business. Underhill isn't in our particular set, but we all know most of the people he knows, and we talk about this business, and the thing gets about, and there you are! My sister, who was a great pal of Jill's, swears that all the girls she knows mean to cut Underhill. I tell you, Freddie, London's going to get pretty hot for him if he doesn't do something dashed quick and with great rapidity!"

"But you haven't got the story right, old thing!"

"How not?"

"Well, I mean you think and Ronny thinks and all the rest of you think that Derek broke off the engagement because of the money. It wasn't that at all."

"What was it, then?"

"Well . . . Well, look here it makes me seem a fearful ass and all that, but I'd better tell you. Jill and I were going down one of those streets near Victoria and a blighter was trying to slay a parrot . . ."

"Parrot-shooting's pretty good in those parts, they tell me," interjected Algy satirically.

"Don't interrupt, old man. This parrot had got out of one of the houses, and a fellow was jabbing at it was a stick, and Jill—you know what she's like; impulsive, I mean, and all that—Jill got hold of the stick and biffed him with some vim, and a policeman rolled up and the fellow made a fuss and the policeman took Jill and me off to chokey. Well, like an ass, I sent round to Derek to bail us out, and that's how he heard of the thing. Apparently he didn't think a lot of it, and the result was that he broke off the engagement."

Algy Martyn had listened to this recital with growing amazement.

"He broke it off because of that?"

"Yes."

"What absolute rot!" said Algy Martyn. "I don't believe a word of it!"

"I say old man!"

"I don't believe a word of it," repeated Algy firmly. "And nobody else will either. It's dashed good of you, Freddie, to cook up a yarn like that to try and make things look better for the blighter, but it won't work. Such a dam silly story, too!" said Algy with some indignation.

"But it's true!"

"What's the use, Freddie, between old pals?" said Algy protestingly. "You know perfectly well that Underhill's a cootie of the most pronounced order, and that, when he found out that Jill hadn't any money, he chucked her."

"But why should Derek care whether Jill was well off or not? He's got enough money of his own."

"Nobody," said Algy judicially, "has got enough money of his own. Underhill thought he was marrying a girl with a sizeable chunk of the ready, and, when the fuse blew out, he decided it wasn't good enough. For Heaven's sake don't let's talk any more about the blighter. It gives me a pain to think of him."

And Algy Martyn, suppressing every effort which Freddie made to reopen the subject, turned the conversation to more general matters.

three days between Los Angeles Harbor and Santa Barbara. Admiral Solland, owner of the Viking, was congratulated on sticking to his sails during the calm, in spite of the fact that he had auxiliary power. As Admiral Overton came ashore on an Eagle boat yesterday, Mrs. Overton skippered the Spindrift in an hour after the Viking had dropped anchor. The Spindrift also carried motors which were left sealed.

Announcement was made today that the two ships have definitely entered the Honolulu race. Admiral Solland's Viking IV, Admiral Overton's Spindrift, Commodore Pedder's Diablo, the Idalia, C. B. Eyers's schooner; the Poinsettia, Max Whittire's beautiful yawl, and L. A. Norris's Mariner of San Francisco. The craft will leave on the sporty 2220-mile cruise at noon Saturday, probably competing for trophies in classes as well as for the master trophy offered by the Honolulu Yacht Club.

Like Looking at the Sun

If you were to look into one of the great rotary kilns in a cement mill, you would see only a glare of light so intense that it would be like looking at the noonday sun. For a few moments after, you would be unable to see anything.

But borrow the workman's colored goggles to protect your eyes, and peer through the peep-hole again. Then you will see a tornado of powdered coal—or gas or spraying oil—bursting into a sheet of sun-white flame. Into the other end of the kiln flow the finely ground limestone and clay—the materials for cement.

In their three-hour journey through this inferno, the materials undergo many changes. Moisture and gases are driven off as the rotation of the kiln tumbles the materials about, subjecting them to gradually increasing heat until the sun-white flame half melts the powder and it rolls into glass-hard clinker. This clinker, an entirely new chemical compound, when pulverized becomes portland cement.

Scientific control marks every stage of the burning process. Producing the required 2,500 to 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit of heat consumes great quantities of fuel—30 pounds of coal, or its equivalent, for each 94-pound sack of cement.

For the whole cement-making process, the consumption of coal is approximately 50 pounds a sack—more than half a ton of coal to a ton of cement.

DISRESPECT FOR LAW DISCUSSED

Crime Commission Aims Are Told W.C.T.U.

Ratio of Real Felons Small, Asserts Tuller

But Third of One Per Cent of Population

"The tremendous disrespect for law, both Federal and municipal, is one of the deep-seated menaces of our country today," said Maj. Walter K. Tuller, chairman of the Los Angeles Crime Commission, speaking yesterday on the aims and accomplishments of the commission before the women of the Federation of W.C.T.U. chapters at the monthly session of the body in Exposition Park.

Maj. Tuller was one of three citizens to address the organization upon topics uppermost in importance in the public mind at the present, his associates being George H. Dunlap, secretary of the Board of Freeholders, who outlined needs to be met in the proposed new city charter, and Dr. Bonner of the National Narcotic Suppression Association. The last named speaker, who was formerly a statistician in the United States Bureau of Education, dealt with the growth of the drug evil in this country in the last fifteen years.

CRIMINAL PROPORTION

Crime tabulations show, Maj. Tuller told his listeners, that less than one-third of 1 per cent of the total population of the country today is criminal. In spite of this fact the proportion of murders in the United States is one to every 1200 persons. The percentage of convictions for the crime of homicide he set at less than one. In his opinion the shockingly large number of local first-degree crimes committed is attributable to the lure of the city which, as a world playground, draws the rich from the four corners of the earth, with the crook and gangster hot on the trail of wealth.

CRIMINAL LAWS DISGRACE

As a member of the bar, the speaker admitted his regret at stating his conviction that the criminal laws of the United States, in the manner of administration today, are a national disgrace. Every change in criminal law for the past twenty-five years, he affirmed, has been in favor of the criminal and against the enforcement of strict justice.

He outlined the formation of the Los Angeles Crime Commission, composed, in addition to editors and publishers of daily papers, of sixteen citizens imbued with the determination to effect civic betterment. As results of the body's activity since its recent formation, he cited the increase in numbers and efficiency of the police department; the additional pay for peace officers, and the fact that, while the number of police substations has been lifted from eighteen to twenty-four, the cost of maintenance, by establishing the substations in fire houses of the city, has been reduced from $1,000,000 to $20,000 annually.

ON CITY CHARTER

Mr. Dunlap, in sketching features advisable in the event the city charter is to be rewritten, stated he was expressing only his personal views. He outlined the growth, through amendments, of the present charter, which has been in existence since 1889, when Los Angeles boasted a population of 50,000. By means of the added amendments the charter has responded normally to the city's needs, and has provided for a government better, in his opinion, than that of any other American municipality. He instanced the fact that Los Angeles has the cheapest water and the cheapest light systems of record in the country.

One person out of every 100 in the United States is or has been a drug addict, according to a recently made government survey Dr. Bonner stated in his address on the narcotic evil. A canvass made by the American Legion increases these figures to one out of each seventy-three persons. The passage of the Harrison Narcotic Act reduced the percentage of drug users in this country from 36 per cent in 1915 to 12½ per cent at the present. Dr. Bonner advocated the use of more emphatic measures in school instruction upon the evils of drug using.

Orders Doctor to Pay Spouse Small Amount

Dr. William R. Price was ordered to pay his wife $5 a week alimony yesterday by Judge Summerfield, pending the trial of her divorce suit. The figure was set by the court after Dr. Price had declared that his psychology business had suffered a slump, that students were scarce, and that his fortune generally was at low ebb.

Dr. Price is charged by his wife, Mary L. Price, with breaking the monotony of married life by bringing other women to their home. She also asserts that on one occasion he took a woman into the bathroom for a bath, and there scrubbing her back until it was "as red as a lobster."

BRIBE-TAKER TO CELL

Former Deputy Sheriff Will Go to San Quentin Tonight

Former Deputy Sheriff William Anderson, convicted of having accepted a $10,000 bribe from Joe Furay, Texas bunko man, will be taken to San Quentin prison tonight by Deputy Sheriff Nolan. Walter J. Lips, who was accused with Anderson and later convicted, already is in San Quentin. Furay, who was internationally known as a swindler, died last year in the Texas State prison at Huntsville. His body was shipped to relatives at San Francisco. The records show Anderson and Lips arrested Furay while he was here. After the acceptance of the bribe they released him. Later Furay again was arrested and the evidence about the bribe was brought to light.

Many Close Friends of Late Pasadenan Honor His Memory at Funeral

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, July 18.—David B. Gamble, former secretary of Proctor & Gamble, Cincinnati soap manufacturers, was described as a Christian business man at his funeral services, conducted today at 4 p.m. at his late home, 4 Westmoreland Place. The designation was made by Dr. John Willis Baer, former president of Occidental College, who told of Mr. Gamble's services to that institution, of which he was president of the board of trustees.

The services were in charge of Rev. James Leishman, assistant minister of Pasadena Presbyterian Church. Mr. Leishman praised Mr. Gamble's efforts as an elder of the church and his work for foreign missions.

About 100 close friends of the deceased manufacturer and philanthropist attended the services. Among them were Dr. Remsen D. Bird, president of Occidental College; Dean Burt, Rev. Hugh K. Walker and Rev. Joseph Stephenson.

Mr. Gamble's body will be sent to Cincinnati for burial. He died early Monday at Pasadena Hospital, after a brief illness. His two sons, Dr. Sidney Gamble and Clarence Gamble, who were out of town, arrived home in time for the services.

HARBOR TO LEAD REST OF WORLD

Brig.-Gen. Fries Tells Masonic Club of Local Port's Prospects

Los Angeles Harbor is destined to be the greatest harbor in the world if its construction is continued on the same broad lines which are now being followed, Brig.-Gen. Amos A. Fries told members of the Los Angeles Masonic Club yesterday noon.

Brig.-Gen. Fries, who made the preliminary survey of the harbor for the government in 1906, stated that if necessary the breakwater could be extended to Newport. Money expended on this harbor goes further, he said, than that spent on any other harbor in the world, because of natural topographical conditions. The port, he added, is not only a great asset but gives Los Angeles a big duty to perform, that of maintaining an adequate outlet for the interior country of the Southwest.

Brig.-Gen. Fries, who was during the war and now is head of the United States Army Chemical Warfare Service, told of experiments which that organization is now making toward compounding a barnacle-proof paint.

In discussing Masonry the speaker mentioned many noted men who were members of the fraternity and emphasized the importance to civic life of its principles.

POLICE HUNT STRANGER IN DEATH CASE

San Francisco Man Found Dead in Hotel With Pistol Lying Beside Body

A stranger, who registered at a hotel at 613½ West Sixth street a few days ago in company of A. Molinari, San Francisco pressman, was being hunted by detectives investigating the death of Molinari by a bullet wound in the head in his hotel room yesterday afternoon.

The stranger was last seen in Molinari's company about noon. Some time later, Mrs. E. W. Briggs, wife of the hotel manager, heard a pistol shot. She tried the door of Molinari's room, and found it locked.

Patrolman Kern was called in, and broke the door down. Molinari lay on the floor in a pool of blood, with a bullet wound through the head. A .32 calibre pistol lay beside him.

Mrs. Briggs told Detective Lieutenants Oker and Craig that the two men came to the hotel last week, and occupied the same room. Papers in Molinari's pocket indicated that he was employed as a pressman in a San Francisco printing establishment.

There was no note to show that Molinari may have killed himself. The body was taken to the Garrett undertaking rooms.

Date is Set for Face, Figure and Costume Revue

The mermaids who inhabit Southern California's beaches will be given an opportunity to display their pulchritude of both face and figure on August 5 at the annual bathing girls' fashion contest at Redondo Beach.

The fair contestants will be divided into two groups, the first composed of motion-picture actresses in fancy costumes, and the second of those wearing bathing suits designed primarily for swimming.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners in both divisions. The first three prize winners in each group will receive $75, $50 and $25 each.

DE MOLAY TO ADD CHAPTER

The fourth chapter of the Order of De Molay in Los Angeles will be instituted at Highland Park August 15, at which time the new Highland Park Masonic Temple will be dedicated by the Grand Master of Masons in California. The ceremonies will be preceded by a parade through the business district of Highland Park. Edward Greene, chief deputy assessor of the city, heads the advisory board of the new council.

EXTORTION IS CHARGED TO WOMAN

Drug Suspects Say She Collected Money From Them as "Fixer"

Accused of extorting money from narcotic law violation suspects, on the pretense that she could "fix" their cases with the police and United States Attorney Burke, Alice Tiernan was arrested yesterday by Detective Yarrow, whose name she is charged with using in her talks with suspects.

The complaint issued by Dep. Dist.-Atty. McClelland sets forth that Miss Tiernan collected sums of money from at least two persons. The witnesses against her are N. Wier, who said he gave her $150, and Joe Bruno, who says he paid $300.

Wier was arrested by Detective Yarrow some time ago on a narcotic charge, while Bruno was arrested by Federal narcotic agents. The two men said that Miss Tiernan came to them shortly after their arrest, and persuaded them she had "pull" with the authorities. Wier said she told him Detective Yarrow was a "special friend" and that she could arrange to get his release. Bruno said that she told him she was a particular friend of Mr. Burke.

SPEEDERS DISTANCED BY JUSTICE

Court Hears 111 Cases and Collects $1450 in Fines in Little More Than Hour

The rush of a speeding automobile seemed like standing still to 111 speeders who experienced the rush of Justice Baird's court yesterday. In a little more than an hour, the court heard the 111 cases and collected fines totaling $1450.

"This speeding is going to be stopped, if the whole city has to go to jail," said the justice. It was noticeable, however, that there were fewer cases and the rate of speed was not so high as during last week's hearing.

Only one of the 111 went to jail. He was M. H. Behr. Justice Baird gave him choice of $250 fine or ten days in jail.

"Twenty-five dollars a day," murmured the defendant. "I'll go to jail."

J. W. Johnson was asked to choose between a $250 fine or fifty days. He paid. So also did W. A. Cory, given choice of $150 fine or thirty days. Four paid $75, when given the alternative of fifteen days. They were A. Simon, R. M. Roberts, C. W. Hill and J. R. Wilson.

Woman Slashes Throat; Little Chance for Life

Mrs. Della Ulner, 45 years of age, of 3155 Carlyle avenue, attempted to end her life in the bedroom of her home yesterday by slashing her throat with a razor. She was in a critical condition at the Receiving Hospital last night and hope for her recovery has practically been given up.

The woman left a note which stated that she was tired of life. She was found in her bedroom by her daughter-in-law, who summoned police.

CHANGE OF VENUE ORDERED FOR SUIT

Judge York in Superior Court ordered yesterday a change of venue to Tulare county, where the defendant lives, in the $150,000 breach of promise suit of Mrs. Laura Hazelle against Charles C. Boylston, wealthy rancher of Porterville. Mrs. Hazelle asserts Boylston pursued her for eight years, got her divorced from her husband, lived with her for a time as man and wife and at last cast her off. Once she got a job as nurse in a hospital and was getting along well until Boylston came courting and she was discharged, she declares. "He has been a constant force for evil in my life," Mrs. Hazelle asserts.

JEFFRIES TO PREACH ON PALESTINE PLANS

James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight pugilist champion, will preach in Los Angeles on the restoration of Jews in Palestine at the W.C.T.U. Hall, Temple street and Broadway, tomorrow beginning at 7:30 p.m. One of the speakers will be Prof. A. F. Futterer, who has been training Jeffries in his lecture course. Prof. Futterer will use chart illustrations to depict the history of the twelve tribes of Israel.

RECONCILIATION TRIP BYL CHICAGOAN FUTILE

William L. McKee, former cashier of a Chicago bank, was ordered to pay his wife Goldie $15 a month temporary alimony by Judge Summerfield yesterday. McKee testified that he had left a position paying him $7500 a year to come to California in the hope of becoming reconciled with his wife but that she has refused to resume domestic relations. At the present time, he said, he is earning $125 a month, about half of which goes to pay for the apartment in which he resides. Mrs. McKee recently filed suit for divorce, charging that her husband mistreated her.

PLAN STREET CARNIVAL

A street carnival for the benefit of the Twelfth street center of the Young Women's Christian Association will take place on East Second street near Central avenue tomorrow. Proceeds will be applied toward the balance needed for the payment due this year on the buildings at 1008 East Twelfth street. Mrs. Smith Green is managing the affair.

JAIL PICKET ON CHARGES BY WOMAN

Striker Declared to Have Struck Girl After Row at Garment Plant

Samuel Rose, of 703 Penrich Drive, was a strike picket until yesterday but today he is one of the city's numerous guests at the City Jail, where he is being lodged temporarily on a charge of disturbing the peace.

The transition from picket to prisoner came after Rose carried his duties as a picket to the extent of inflicting bodily punishment upon Miss Mary Gargone of 131 West Seventy-ninth street, according to police.

Miss Gargone is employed by the D. J. Topper Garment Company at 302 East Ninth street. Some of the company's workmen walked out recently in a general but ineffective strike of clothing workers. When Miss Gargone appeared at the factory yesterday she was accosted by Rose.

She resented his remarks and attempted to pass on, according to police. Rose struck her in the face, the police say, breaking her eyeglasses and driving a splinter of glass into her forehead. Patrolman Tilson, hearing the girl shriek, hurried to the scene and placed the picket under arrest.

Richardson to be Present at Religious Play

Gov. Richardson and his family, with a group of friends, will be special guests Friday night at the Pilgrimage Play, Hollywood Bowl, the occasion being designated as Long Beach night.

During the Pilgrimage Play season last year Long Beach arranged five civic excursions to the play. This year Long Beach is among the first of the near-by municipalities to schedule a special night.

Another delegation attending the play Friday evening will be a group from the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles. Monday's special parties will include representatives from the Huntington Park Methodist Church and the First Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles.

Indicted Man to be Brought Back for Trial

Indicted in Los Angeles on a charge of passing worthless checks, Harry G. Lewis, private in the Army, waived extradition in Chicago yesterday, and will be brought back at once for trial.

Tenny Dennison, former lieutenant of field artillery, arrested at the same time on a charge of forgery of government checks while impersonating an officer, is being held in Chicago until a certified copy of the indictment returned against him by the grand jury here can be sent.

Both Lewis and Dennison recently had been married and were on their honeymoons when arrested.

MONEY IN TREASURY

More Than Fifteen Million in Vaults of City

The balance in the City Treasury on June 30, last, was $15,578,098, as compared with $14,309,369 on that date last year, according to the report for the fiscal year of City Treasurer Powell laid before the City Council yesterday. During the year the cash receipts amounted to $33,509,103 and the transfers and appointments to $28,534,620.

Is Age Controlled by Glands?

Dr. Serge Voronoff of France, famous physician and surgeon, who has devoted years to research and experimentation with glandular treatment, says: "A man is worth only as much as his glands."

Dr. Arnold Lorand says in his book, "Old Age Deferred," in speaking of the glands: "We must insist upon the reinforcement of their functions if changed by age or disease by means of extracts obtained from the similar organs of healthy animals."

The new scientific formula—Glandogen—embodies this method. Glandogen is a highly concentrated gland compound in convenient, compact tablet form which combines the important extracts of the vital glands of healthy young animals with other efficacious ingredients. Hundreds of keen-eyed men and women are today taking Glandogen.

Glandogen can be obtained at Blaney-Chambers Drug Co., 5th and Los Angeles; Chambers Drug Co., 1st and Broadway; Henderson Chambers Drug Co., 3rd and Main.—[Advertisement.

Question: When were the first and last eruptions of Mount Shasta? E. R. W.

Answer: Mount Shasta has had no eruptions within the period that it has been known to white men. In common with Lassen Peak, the eruptions began in Tertiary time, (the time interval immediately following the Mesozoic era) and continued down to a very recent period of time. Mount Lassen has been active within the past ten years, but Mount Shasta has remained quiescent.

Q.: What is the language of the Lithuanians? A. M. N.

A.: While in no sense a pure language, that which is spoken by the Lithuanians is the nearest to the ancient Sanskrit of any modern language and is practically the same as that in which the Vedas or the sacred books of India are written. The Lithuanians are probably the best preserved examples of the Indo-Europeans who formed the most important basis of the races of West Europe.

Q.: How many of the civilian population of Gettysburg were killed during the fighting there? R. F. C.

A.: Jennie Wade was the only Gettysburg civilian killed during the battle. She was in her kitchen baking bread when a stray bullet struck her.

Q.: When was formaldehyde first used in this country in treating grain seed for smut? J. E. S.

A.: Formaldehyde was introduced into the United States by a man named Boley of the North Dakota Agricultural Experiment Station in 1897. It was used to prevent bunt in wheat, stem smut of rye, covered smut in barley, either of the smuts in oats, and it has proved to be the most convenient and effective fungicide known.

Q.: Who originated the daylight saving plan? D. J. G.

A.: The idea was originated by Benjamin Franklin. The modern proposal came first from an Englishman, William Willett, in 1907, who published a pamphlet called "Waste of Daylight."

Q.: Has the climate of any part of the world changed materially? E. R. T.

A.: There have been no well-authenticated changes of climate within the past 2000 years. Changes due to man, such as deforestation, agriculture, the building of canals and railroads have only a local effect.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES

A Parting Word

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am going home tomorrow. In a few days I will again be among friends and old-time haunts of Cincinnati, but before I go I want to say "thank you" to the Southland through the columns of your paper. I have been here but a few months and business connections and family ties call me again to the Buckeye State. I would be ungrateful indeed if I failed to express my gratitude for the pleasant days spent amid your orange groves and pepper trees, by your beautiful sea, under the shadow of your magnificent mountains.

California, that is Southern California, is as truly remarkable in summer as in winter. Here you seem to be doubly blessed. You should all be happy in such surroundings and feel that Nature is giving out to you the best there is with no limit on the quantity of the precious gifts.

It will be impossible for me to carry back even a partial picture of all the good things I have seen. I know I will be classed as one careless of the truth when I tell them of the glories of your climate, the richness of your soil, the hospitality of your people and the greatness of your city. All of these things I fear have become all too common to many who live here and it is in the hope that I will arouse a deeper appreciation among those who are inclined to belittle the abundance of good things given you that I write these lines.

It is with regret I leave Los Angeles. Were it not for the hope that some time I can return to stay I fear my trip would be the cause of the greatest disappointment of my life. Good-by and good luck.

T. P. GUNSETTE.

At the Wrong Hour

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Here's a kick worth some attention. Did you ever notice that just at the hour the theaters are over and the street filled with people, is the time the city garbage wagons have chosen for collecting the refuse of restaurants and hotels on Hill street and Broadway?

It's a fact. Just at a time when thousands of persons are on their way to their homes the air is filled with the most awful odors and all the frightful things that go with the collection of bad-smelling, decaying foodstuffs.

Last night I noted in particular one of these heavy iron stench wagons just ahead of a packed street car. The driver took his time, holding one wheel in the car track so the car could not pass, while his assistant dumped can after can from the curb into the vehicle.

There certainly is little excuse for this as the collection could be made an hour earlier or an hour later, and most of the crowds would be avoided. Los Angeles has no alleys so that these cans must be set out on the streets, so if this condition must exist why in heaven's name is not an effort made to make the collection at an hour when as few people are on the street as is possible?

CARRIE CARTER.

Another "New Freedom"

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] To one who believes that woman will have entered into her own estate only when she is physically, mentally and economically free, the facts registered in the recent census concerning women are particularly cheering.

The decreasing birthrate proves that many wives have secured their right to physical freedom—freedom to assume or reject motherhood.

Fifty-two million women wage-earners, so the record reads, which means that 52,000,000 women are released from a state of dependency and pay their own expenses with their own money.

Aye, it means more than that—it means that these women know the joy of receiving money without the accompanying admonition to "make it go as far as possible."

Physically free women who open an account in a safe bank and add to it from time to time, have the necessary foundation for a happy life, and a reposeful old age, which few things can equal and nothing excel.

ELIZABETH QUIGLEY.

He Fears Cannibalism

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I was sorry to see in The Times a report of Dr. Held's unnecessary observation that there may be something in cannibalism of super-nutritive quality.

Since there is scarcely a heinous crime or immorality that has not at some time appalled the residents of Los Angeles county, in many cases over and over again, we may now expect to read of an epidemic of cannibalism upon vacant lots, so suggestible are the swarms of morons that seem to migrate hither.

This suggestibility will certainly show itself in a great augmentation of drug addicts following the advertisement that this vice has lately received at the hands of enterprising motion-picture producers and by parades, etc.

All this is shocking bad psychology. You cannot frighten a dope fiend by showing him pictures of hell. A situation that is appalling to you, objectively, is quite a different thing to him in his subjective state. All these pictures accomplish is to pollute the minds of those who would otherwise remain fancy free.

"Dope is a creature of such frightful mien, that to be hated needs but to be seen; but, seen too often, familiar with her face, we first endure, then pity, then embrace." A well-known quotation very slightly adapted.

Oh, well, perhaps they "mean well," but these promoters had better search their own hearts for fundamental motives.

C. E. REYNOLDS.

Preachment in Picture

LOS ANGELES, July 17. — [To the Editor of The Times:] If ever there was a sermon in a cartoon it was this morning, when the cartoon of Gale in The Times called attention to the desperate condition at grade crossings. It is surprising that with the frightful toll these death traps have demanded for years we have been so slow to take advantage of the lesson Europe shows us in saying in an emphatic manner that no railroad track can cross a public highway at the grade.

I am not in a position to quote statistics, but many deaths recorded in our daily papers are occurring on public highways are caused by an oncoming train hitting an automobile. It makes no difference who is at fault, the railway or the autoist, the killings continue to occur. Alarm bells, flagmen and every other so-called safety device depend upon the human element and for the very reason that no human is perfect, there are bound to be slips—and such slips, costing human lives, cannot be paid for in dollars and cents. So it follows that every railway track should go over or under a street or highway, regardless of the cost. It may be a fair proposition to have the State or the county share the expense with the railway, or it may be that the public should foot the whole bill, but disregarding who is to pay the money, grade crossings should be abolished so that no more victims will be compelled to pay with their lives.

That is just another application of the Golden Rule, another opportunity for State and corporations to join in a movement which will tend to prove that the world is getting better, that human life has more value than money and that the ultimate object of every person is to aid a movement to do unto others what we expect others to do unto us. In this complexed and tangled civilization we are still our brother's keeper.

From Celair to Garret

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Having read numerous letters pertaining to Pershing Square, the library, the offering a suggestion that to me park and its use, therefore I am may cover it all and may solve the problem:

1. Erect a building so that the underground terminal may run below the street. 2. A floor of this building to be used for large conventions and gatherings. 3. A floor dividing into smaller rooms for lectures, etc. 4. For the use of a Public Library. 5. The roof to be used as a roof garden or park with seats, palms, etc. 6. And as many stories as it is desired for the use of the public good, such as a day nursery for the mothers to leave their children while shopping. A meeting and waiting place for many and a general benefit for those that live here and those that visit us from all over the world, as well as being a monument and benefit to Los Angeles.

A nominal fee to be collected for all services rendered, and rent from rooms to help pay for overhead.

CAT BATTLES REFLECTION

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 18.—Huntington Park has a cat that fights its own reflection.

The little animal has attracted the attention of many passersby, who, for a moment think the cat has "gone mad." It will start to pass one of the show cases in the shop it calls home, when, on looking in, will see it's reflection, and then the battle will begin. It will lunge at the reflection, and not receiving a response when it bounds against the glass, will back up, and with its back in an inverted V shape, will start at the reflection again.

Believing the "cat in the glass" is mocking it, the real kitten will make several attempts to get at its likeness. After tiring itself out, it will seek a corner and forget the one-cat battle for a while.

HARDING TO STAND ON HIS RECORD

President Will Not Trim His Sails to Farm-Labor Winds, Says Lineberger

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, July 18.—President Harding will stand on the acts of his administration, according to Congressman Lineberger of this city, commenting today on the victory of Magnus Johnson, Minnesota's farmer-laborite candidate for the United States Senate. The President, Maj. Lineberger said, will not trim his sails to any adverse Farm-Labor winds that may blow up from Minnesota and adjoining States.

"The situation arising in Minnesota is the expected result of dissatisfaction among farmers there over present farm produce prices, which is in reality the results of world economic conditions," Congressman Lineberger said.

Farmers, he declared, are venting their resentment against the Republican party because they have failed to analyse correctly the elements entering into present economic conditions. But the real blame lies with the Democratic party, which during the war played up to the industrial group.

Congressman Lineberger would make no comment on the proposed candidacy of Charles H. Randall of Pasadena for Congressman in this district. It is presumed that Randall will again enter the contest, and although Congressman Lineberger today declined to cross any bridges until he comes to them, it is generally understood here that he will be a candidate for re-election.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

Gabbert and Ella Gabbert, well-known ranchers in the Mound district, have brought suit against the company in Superior Court here. Two separate suits were filed. One asks for damages of $1922.75 and the other for $3782.93, which they claim as the sums lost to them by crop failure for which they charge the defendant responsible.

FRUIT PICKING WAGES FIXED

Same Schedule as Last Year is Suggested

Growers Are Urged to Stick to Scale

Only Way to Cut Loss in Crop Value

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

FRESNO, July 18.—The wage scale for fruit pickers in this section of the San Joaquin Valley was fixed this morning at a meeting of directors of the Valley Fruit Growers' Association, at which the same schedule recommended last year was adopted.

The scale applies to the unit system, which means that the remuneration is paid for picking 500 bearing vines, irrespective of the distance when planted.

The wages is figured when the entire acreage is picked; thus where the picking of seedless grapes averages a tray to a vine, the wage will be 2½ cents a tray, but where the grapes average from 100 to 200 trays per acre the wage will be 4½ cents a tray. The complete scale for picking seedless and Muscats follows:

COMPLETE SCALE

Picking seedless—Trays to unit, 2½ cents 500 and over; 3 cents 400 to 500; 3½ cents 300 to 400; 4 cents 200 to 300; 4½ cents 100 to 200.

Picking Muscats—Trays to unit, 3 cents 500 and over 3½ cents 400 to 500; 4 cents 300 to 400; 4½ cents 200 to 300; 5 cents 100 to 200.

The remuneration for peach cutting is also fixed on the same basis as last year and will be 5 cents per 40-pound box and 6½ cents per 50-pound box. This is for average-size freestones.

Wages for farm labor are fixed by the board of directors at from $3 to $3.25 a day and board, according to experience, or 35 cents an hour without board.

At the conclusion of the meeting the board authorized the following statement:

SMALLER PROFITS

"The scale which has been fixed shows prices and is now in the nature of a suggestion. We are holding to last year's schedule through necessity as labor must have a fair wage although the growers will not get anything like the profits of the past.

"We realize that the things that the laborer has to purchase have not gone down in price, and that in order to attract labor here, a fair price must be offered. Farm Bureaus and farm centers are cooperating in this movement.

"We believe that if the farmers adhere to this price schedule instead of raising it as they did last year, the loss in crop value will be cut."

PASADENA GROCER ESCAPES JAIL TERM

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, July 18.—Because of the fact that his business would suffer by his absence, Paul Doleshal, grocer, this morning escaped serving a five-day sentence in the City Jail after he had been convicted of driving his machine at the rate of forty-five miles an hour. The original sentence as imposed by Judge Newell was five days and the payment of $25. Because of his store the judge gave him the privilege of serving his term at night so that he would be at liberty in the daytime. Even this did not please the speeder and he asked for a straight fine. This was given and the defendant paid $75.

FUMIGATION CREW WALKS OUT RATHER THAN BE GUILTY OF ASPHYXIATING A BLACK CAT

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE]

REDLANDS, July 18.—An age-old prejudice served as a buffer between death and the nine lives of a black cat here last night.

There is an orange grower here who owns a big black cat. And he was anxious to get rid of it.. So when a fumigating crew began work on his grove he asked the foreman to place the cat under one of the tents and "gas" it.

The foreman agreed but left the job to his crew. And the crew was made up of colored men. When the foreman returned he found the tents still on the ground and no work done. Inquiry and the following information submitted by the spokesman:

"Boss, we is done struck. We is willing to haul them there tents all over Southern California and pull them over de biggest orange tree dat ever grew but when it comes to killing black cats we is out. Nassuh, nothing doing, none whatsoever. And dats final."

And not until the foreman placed his hand on the black cats head and swore immunity for the feline did the crew return to work.

TWO GIRLS ARE FREED ON BOND

Charged With Shoplifting at Santa Barbara

Depart for Los Angeles After Release

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, July 18.—B. L. Boyd and F. L. Ashe of Los Angeles today obtained the release of Patsy Neal and Isola Ray, girls charged with shoplifting, by depositing $5000 bonds in each case. Immediately following their release the girls with their bondsmen left for Los Angeles.

A large amount of costly clothing, including gowns and furs, repose in the office of Chief of Police Wall, as evidence against the girls who, it is asserted, took the articles from exclusive stores here where they called as customers.

Following their arrest the girls wired to Los Angeles asking that Attorney S. Harris of Los Angeles be sent to their aid and in response Harris has been looking after their interests here.

The girls had been held for trial in the Superior Court under $5000 bail each. As this is court vacation season the case against them will not be called, it is believed, until September.

Ordinance to Quiet Dance Halls Urged

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, July 18. — Riverside county dance halls are soon to come under the law as the result of a county dance hall ordinance now being drafted by Dist.-Atty. Kelley. It is being drawn to do away with numerous complaints received on the grounds that certain dance halls have been allowing improper conduct, drinking and late hours.

Among the provisions of the new ordinance will be one requiring that every public dance must be supervised by a deputy sheriff, appointed by the Sheriff and paid for by the dance-hall proprietor. It will be his duty at all times to see that order is preserved and that other conditions are met with.

Dance-hall proprietors, or those directly in charge of any public dance within the county and outside of the limits of incorporated cities, will be held personally responsible for the actions of their guests as concerns the drinking of liquor on the premises or other acts of improper conduct.

COUNTY WINS SUIT

Auto Dealer Unable To Collect For Supervisors' Car

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BAKERSFIELD, July 18.—George Haberfelde, local automobile dealer, has lost his suit against Kern county to recover $3485, the price of a high-powered automobile, said to have purchased illegally by Stanley Abel, Supervisor from the First District.

The demurrer filed by Dep. Dist.-Atty. W. A. McGinn, was sustained without leave to amend. The demurrer charged that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for action. Neither did it state the authority by which Abel gave a requisition for the car to the purchasing agent or by which the purchasing agent gave a requisition to Haberfelde.

Abel bought the car on September 14, 1922, turning in an old car for which he was allowed $700. When the balance of the bill was presented it was not paid and later when the Board of Supervisors met to pass on the bill they refused to honor it.

Gypsy Gasps "Sweet Papa" as Sentence to Jail is Suspended

SANTA ANA, July 18.—Rosa and Marie Mitchell, gypsy fortune tellers, looked glum today despite their gayly-colored raiment as they appeared before City Recorder Heathman, following their arrest for fortune telling. Heathman heard the tale of the arresting officer and thundered "sixty days in jail."

A moment of suspense had its effect, then in a quieter tone Heathman said he would suspend the sentence if the women would depart immediately.

FIRE DANGER PERIOD PAST AT CRAFTON

Hills East of There All Burned Over but High Ones Which Are Guarded

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

REDLANDS, July 18.—The fire raging in the hills east of Crafton has now burned over about forty square miles and has just about covered all the territory it can unless it goes toward the higher hills.

Rangers and fire fighters are guarding against this and it is believed the fire will burn out tonight.

It did not reach any of the orange groves and the only property damage was to a small house at the end of Crafton avenue, which was owned by a Mr. Owens. This was a three-room frame house and not valuable.

Twice last night the fire breaks and road toward the mountains held back the fire. It is believed the danger period is over.

Police Chief and Sheriff Talk to Riverside Lions

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, July 18.—"Experiences in enforcing the Volstead Act" were the subjects of Chief of Police Deiss and Sheriff Ryan's addresses to the Lions Club at luncheon this noon.

Chief Deiss presented figures showing the appalling increase in the number of arrests for drunkenness and the transporting of liquor. The number more than doubled during the years 1920-21-22, according to the Chief's figures. In pointing out the best way, according to his belief to check the illegal manufacturing and distributing of liquor the Chief stated that the maximum punishment given to offenders would come the nearest to accomplishing the desired end. Deiss gave his sentiments with regard to the duty of the citizens to support the laws and Constitution of the United States.

Sheriff Ryan told of the rapid strides made in law enforcement through the county. He stated that he believed that the passage of a law which would make it a misdemeanor for an individual to purchase moonshine would be a factor in the slowing up of the manufacture of illegal beverages.

WATER SUPPLY SURVEY BEGINS

Needs of San Gabriel Valley Prompt Investigation

Alhambra is Headquarters for Three-Year Task

Pasadena and Other Cities to Aid Enterprise

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ALHAMBRA, July 18.—What is expected to be the most extensive survey of water resources ever conducted in the State is to be launched immediately to determine the surplus water which can be diverted for the benefit of the San Gabriel Valley. Alhambra has been chosen as headquarters from which the investigation will be carried on. It is predicted by State officials that the survey will occupy about three years.

The work of investigation, in which this city in common with Pasadena and other communities are vitally interested, will be under the personal direction of Harold Conkling, associate hydraulic engineer, Division of Water Rights, State Department of Public Works. Mr. Conkling is now in Alhambra and will reside here during the period of the survey. An office is to be opened and an organization will be perfected at once.

CLAIMS SET FORTH

This survey comes as a direct result of the city of Pasadena's application to the State Division of Water Rights for a permit to impound the water in the San Gabriel Canyon. Other cities, whose future development is also linked closely with these water resources, have set forth their claims to a portion of the water and the investigation is designed to determine definitely the amount of water available and how it can best be diverted for the general good of the various communities. This is the first time, it is stated, that a constructive investigation has been undertaken to get at the actual facts and conditions and the results will be of farreaching influence and permanent value to the entire district.

The question of the development of the water resources of the San Gabriel Canyon was the subject of a conference on June 28, in Los Angeles, called by H. A. Kluegel, chief of the Division of Water Rights, State Department of Public Works, and which was attended by representatives of virtually all those cities and towns and irrigation companies which are dependent upon the San Gabriel for their water supply. This includes all the territory from the mountains, where the San Gabriel River has its source, to the sea.

COST APPORTIONED

As a result of the conference, at which Alhambra officials were present, and the immediate occasion for which was the application of the city of Pasadena for a permit to build reservoirs in the San Gabriel Canyon and thus divert water to that city, the present investigation and survey have been started.

The cost of the work will be borne by the various interests in the valley, certain equipment, including automobiles, to be furnished by the State. It is understood that the city of Pasadena has offered to share a portion of the expense.

The full scope and details of the investigation have not as yet been fully determined but will be worked out in co-operation with the Geological Survey, the Los Angeles Flood Control District and the various interested cities and water users in the basin and coastal plain, according to Mr. Conkling.

The city of Alhambra is especially interested in the project as part of its water supply is drawn from the San Gabriel watershed, and the results of the investigation as pertaining to the available supply of water will be of the utmost importance in planning the future development of the city.

Incendiarist Breaks Under Rigorous Quiz

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, July 18.—F. B. Padilla, who confessed he started at least two disastrous fires in Riverside, has begun to weaken. Officers at Fullerton are attempting to line Padilla up with the Wobbly gang. Padilla having acknowledged that members of the I.W.W. had taught him the use of waste from box car journal boxes in starting fires, authorities declare.

The prisoner, however, continues to deny that he was a member of the I.W.W., or that he had a companion in his fire plot. Padilla declares that at Sanger he was educated in the stunt of setting fire to box cars by using the oil waste.

"They told me if ever I wanted to blow anything up to use plenty of dynamite," the prisoner said.

In his signed statement Padilla retracted a statement to the effect that he was a resident of Albuquerque and declared he came from El Paso.

BUSINESS NEWS OF BUSY MARTS

Oil Production Curtailment Costs Very Dearly

Globe Grain and Milling Report Profitable Year

New Bank Listed; Tax Appeals; Arizona Cantaloupes

What the curtailment of production in Southern California is costing California Petroleum is indicated in the financial report for the month of May released yesterday through the offices of the company here. Net earnings after taxes and depreciation but before the preferred stock sinking fund were $504,839, a decrease of 61 per cent from the previous month. Net earnings in April, before the institution of the curtailment program, amounted to $815,994.

Compared with May of 1922, the net earnings of May of this year show an increase of 71 per cent.

The sinking fund for the retirement of certain amounts of the preferred stock each year is accumulated by the deduction of 5 cents a barrel from the total gross production, and in the opinion of the secretary's office of the company, should not be charged against earnings before dividends.

GLOBE REPORT

Earnings of the Globe Grain and Milling Company for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1923, total $545,883.82 before dividends, according to the annual report of the company distributed yesterday. After the addition of the yearly earnings, the surplus and undivided profits before the deduction of dividends and certain depreciation items, amounted to $3,250,571.01.

The balance sheet indicates that the company's inventory of merchandise is valued at $1,443,191.35. Cash on hand and in banks $309,854.77, and accounts and notes receivable $1,592,549.25. Plant and equipment are valued at $5,632,156.72 after depreciation.

COOTE EXPELLED

A. W. Coote, stock broker, whose business was thrown into involuntary bankruptcy June 18, was expelled by the Board of Governors of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday, as a result of his failure to satisfy claims held by members against him. Mr. Coote was suspended as soon as the bankruptcy petition was granted, and at the expiration of the period of suspension yesterday expulsion was automatic.

Mr. Coote became a member of the exchange February 24, 1913, and has served several terms on the Board of Governors. At the time of his suspension, he held a position on the board, which is now filled by Robert E. Hunter of Hunter, Dulin & Co.

TAX APPEALS

Residents of California, Nevada, Utah and Arizona may present appeals from the action of the Income Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., to the field subcommittee on appeals and review at a series of hearings beginning August 1 in the Federal Building here.

The result of the work of the subcommittee at St. Paul, Minn., which was begun April 20, 1923, is said to justify a continuation of the bureau's plan to hear cases outside of Washington and at points even more remote that the Middle West. After completion of its docket at St. Paul, the subcommittee will proceed to Los Angeles at a date in the fall, to be announced later, will conduct further hearings at Portland, Or., of cases appealed by residents of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Wyoming.

The purpose of these hearings in the field is to affard taxpayers of the Pacific Coast States, who can only appear before the bureau at Washington at the cost of considerable time and expense, an opportunity to present their cases on appeal before an appellate body of the bureau, sitting in the appellant's own locality. All evidence, however, considered in cases heard upon appeal must have been previously submitted to the Income Tax Unit in accordance with the established practice of the bureau.

Members of the subcommittee are Rorbert J. Service and LeRoy Russell. Appointment of a third member will be announced later.

ARIZONA CANTALOUPES

Estimates of the size of the Arizona cantaloupe crop have been revised from 1200 to 1500 cars, according to local officials of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. The Rocky Ford district in Colorado does not begin moving its crop until August 15.

Current Comes From Sonoma Tame Geysers

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—For the first time in America a group of geysers have been harnessed and are now producing electrical energy. The geyser field is in northern Sonoma county, and the experiment was watched by engineers from all parts of the country. Hot-water strata were tapped by 400-foot wells, developing steam that operated turbines, which in turn ran generators.

Engineers say the operation of the first unit of hot-water wells did not affect the temperature in other test hot-water wells bored in the vicinity. They assert electricity can be generated on a big scale, probably far larger than in a similar geyser field in Italy.

The geyser field where the new power plant is located consists of 13,000 acres of rugged territory about 100 miles from San Francisco.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Following its contest for a higher tariff, the California Almond Growers' Exchange proposes to increase its capital investment here approximately to $500,000, to provide facilities for the vacuum packing of blanched and salted almonds.

This means that more than 3000 almond growers of the State will become a dominant factor in the shelled almond business of America, as they already are in the unshelled almond trade.

The present investment of the growers in Sacramento exceeds $350,000, and plans approved by the board call for an immediate investment of $30,000 more to increase equipment.

At present most of the blanched and salted almonds are sold through confectioners. The growers, however, are determined to compete with these foreign-grown almonds, which are sold in bulk.

MODERATE ADVANCE IN NEW CROP COTTON

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Cotton futures closed 2 points off to 18 points higher at the end of a quiet session in which the new crop months advanced moderately, while July declined at intervals under scattered liquidation. The undertone was somewhat improved, and the market, after starting unchanged to 7 points lower, went steadily higher under a steady volume of buying orders for the new crop months, but July declined about 20 points and did not come back to around the previous closing level until the late trading. Betterment of other months than July was shaded in the early afternoon and at the close was only about half what it was at the day's best.

Spot cotton was quiet and unchanged at 27.35 cents for middling upland. Southern markets: Galveston, 26.60 cents, 40 points decline; New Orleans, 26.50 cents, 25 points decline; Norfolk, 27 cents, unchanged; Augusta, 26.38 cents, 18 points decline; Memphis, 26.50, 75 points decline; Houston, 26.50 cents, unchanged; Little Rock, 27 cents, unchanged.

McDONNELL & CO.

The report that unfilled orders of the great steel corporation had declined 595,000 tons set many men to thinking. The corporation enjoyed some 6,910,000 tons of unfilled orders in January, 7,405,000 tons in March and about 6,386,000 at the end of June. In the peak of war demand advance orders were as high as 12,183,000 tons, whereas the average unfilled tonnage in both 1912 and '13 was about 6,100,000; that is less than the present figure. Of course, the producing capacity has greatly increased and is still increasing, but the nation grows in wealth and population. There is not overproduction of steel, and probably will not be during the active part of this year, while the effect of winter slowness cannot be predicted at this time.

Shortage of labor has retarded steel production, and the mining output. Now the government fiscal year starts, and some 357,800 immigrants may be admitted. Many men come from Great Britain, where 2,000,000 are unemployed and the steel industry is sluggish. Some of the newcomers will be skilled in steel making. That with the slowing of steel demand may solve the labor shortage. Then will come the promised abandonment of the twelve-hour day. That should increase per capita production. One excellent authority asserts it will not add to the cost of steel making. Steel, like many other highly developed industries, can produce more than can be consumed domestically. The foreign markets, like our own, are not overstocked, and some 50,000,000 tons of orders are thought to await ability to finance purchase. The big fellows have been developing foreign trade for sometime and making some money at it. Why in the name of common sense don't the government and the people help develop foreign trade? There is nothing more important.

IRON AGE

The Iron Age predicts good steel business throughout the year and says that while the situation "had its bearish factors, it has by no means been such as to destroy the optimism of the majority of producers;" but managers of enterprise are natural optimists. The companies are not turning away as much business as they were a few months ago, and it is not so difficult for independents to procure ore, coal and limestone. But this is the off season; there is slacking of the inordinate building boom, and, of course, the railroads will not continue to place "catch up" orders for equipment and supplies. March, April and May were boom months, and now things are more normal.

BUSINESS SITUATION

The Business Bulletin, issued by the La Salle Extension University of Chicago, finds that "the feeling of pessimism regarding the business outlook which was quite prevalent a month ago has largely disappeared. The present attitude, however, is one of uncertainty, of watchful waiting, rather than of optimism. Current business is good, and the conservatism on the part of business men in practically all lines brightens the outlook for the future.

"Had business continued to expand at the rate it was going in March a reaction would probably be setting in by this time. At present business is for the most part on a solid basis and is likely to remain so, so long as due caution is exercised. Business depressions do not occur when everybody is prepared for them. The business bubble, like the toy balloon, bursts when overinflation occurs. If care is used to avoid overstocks of material and merchandise, if plant capacities are enlarged to take care only of real needs of consumers rather than ot execute orders of the overoptimists and speculators, our present good times will continue.

"Reports received indicate that for the most part purchases are for actual needs, and on a conservative basis. Industry, though moving at a slower pace than it was several months ago, is active, and labor continues fully employed at high wages."

C. F. CHILDS & CO

The Liberty Bond market when subjected to the most searching analysis reveals at present only two conspicuous facts:

First: There are and will continue to be two dependable, sure buyers, the strongest financial powers in the world, seeking several hundred million bonds each year; and

Second: There are no visible-known sellers of any such vast amount of bonds at prices below par.

Money rates have no bearing on the first factor; they must buy regardless of the condition of the money market. There is nothing apparent on the financial horizon to alter the second factor. The only question is when will the market level of all Liberty Loans be par. The answer is, sooner than is expected if owners of bonds will patiently and confidently refrain from sacrificing the best investment in existence today.

Trying to Mix Oil and Water

Investing in something which promises safety to the principal combined with big, quick profits is like trying to mix oil and water. It simply can't be done. Whenever you attempt to force your capital to earn more than a reasonable wage, you must take the gambler's chance of losing all you put in. In many cases, the heavy odds against you at the outset are altogether out of proportion to the possible gain.

While legitimate yields may vary one or two per cent, with changes in the money market, the maximum rates which money can earn without jeopardizing the principal have been pretty definitely determined through ages of actual experience. To make sure of getting ALL your money back, together with a certain income, you must invest it in securities which are surrounded by strong safeguards.

An excellent example of this type of investment is described below:

Pacific Southwest Realty Company
$3,000,000 6½% Cumulative Preferred Stock
(Par Value $100 per Share)

The leading element of safety behind this issue is the fact that the proceeds of the sale of the stock will be used to purchase and operate valuable real estate and buildings, most of which is now occupied by the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank. The payment of the dividends and the annual maturities of the stock is assured by the terms of a 30-year lease with the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank.

As the bonds are retired each year, the equity of remaining stockholders will increase, and the safety will become correspondingly stronger.

The stock is issued as fully paid up and non-assessable. In the opinion of counsel these shares are exempt from Normal Federal Income Tax and from Personal Property Tax in California.

Being issued in denominations of $100, these shares constitute a splendid security for the small investor.

BOND QUOTATIONS

EUROPEAN'S ADVANCE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Gilt-edged investment bonds held firm or moved slightly upward in today's bond trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The feature of the day was a sharp advance by European issues, particularly the French government bonds. These issues, however, yielded some in the later dealings and closed only fractionally higher.

United States government bonds were steady, the four Liberty issues being unchanged, the tax-exempt 3½s up 1-32 of a point and the Treasury 4 1-4s yielding 1.32 of a point.

Railroad mortgages were in good demand most of the day, and a few closed at their high prices, Reading general 4s being up a point and New Haven 7s francs up half. Norfolk and Southern 5s sold 2 1-4 points lower.

Industrials were dull and price changes unimportant.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Following are the closing quotations on the New York Stock Exchange. Furnished by Logan & Bryan.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Developments on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday were uninteresting aside from the minor fluctuations in some of the oil stocks. The mines were quiescent and the bonds were moderately active, with the largest call for the public utilities.

Globe Petroleum accepted the most important decline in the oil group, falling from a high for the day of 75 to a close of 72 cents, which was off 4 cents from the previous day. United Oil lost ¾ of a point at a final price of 29¼, after selling as high as 32. General Petroleum common closed unchanged at 32¾, and Holly Development was quiet at 95.

United Eastern managed to acquire 2½ cents on a final quotation of 1.65. Yellow Dog sold at 32 and Virginia Louise at 6. Nellie was taken at 5⅛ cents.

Some demand was noticed for Goodyear Tire and Rubber preferred at 87 and for Southern California Edison common at 103¾. Edison 6s of 1944 sold at 101.

Following are the closing quotations and sales:

What Cotton Milling means to Los Angeles

TEN years ago, Gastonia, North Carolina, was a sleepy, little Southern town—lifeless and unprogressive.

Then came the first cotton mill.

Today Gastonia is throbbing with life and activity. Over 91 cotton mills are in operation. Payrolls mount up to millions of dollars annually.

What the textile industry has done for Gastonia, it will do—and more—for Los Angeles.

The Pacific Coast annually consumes more than 150,000,000 yards of cotton cloth, largely supplied from Eastern mills at high transportation cost. The nearby fields of the Imperial and Salt River Valleys offer a supply of raw cotton. Cheap power, favorable labor conditions and adequate transportation facilities make Los Angeles the logical milling center to serve this tremendous market.

[The Imperial Cotton Mills Company of Los Angeles is a forerunner of the great textile industry. Eight months of operation has demonstrated its complete success.]

Over 500 persons are now employed, operating 20,000 spindles with nearly 600 looms at full capacity. Yet present equipment is capable of producing but a small percentage of the goods required in this immediate territory.

In order to provide for doubling the capacity of the present mill, IMPERIAL COTTON MILLS COMPANY is now offering its 8% Cumulative Preferred Stock. Price $100 per share. 8% Dividends are cumulative and there is further participation with the Common Stock up to 12%. Conversion into Common Stock may be made at $125.

Double production means double the number of employees—twice the present payroll—growth for Los Angeles—greater prosperity for everyone who lives and labors here.

You will want to have a part in this great industry which means progress for Los Angeles and certain profits for yourself. Call—or send name and address—for further information—today.

DAILY TALK ON TRADE GIVEN

would rather pay par than buy at discount prices for the sinking fund. Its credit for future refunding at or below a 4 1-4 per cent rate would benefit thereby. The British Treasury will have to pay par if nobody surrenders bonds at lower levels. There seldom exists such an opportunity to see one's wishes materialize, and a sellers' strike-for-par would accomplish the result within a week.

JAMES B. CLEWS

Favorable crop forecasts, made by the government and apparently showing a prospective value of products amounting to $1,000,000,000 in excess of last year, have demonstrated once more the basis of the good business outlook of the autumn. Further growth in railroad traffic, with loadings often considerably above 1,000,000 tons weekly, indicates the unusual height of current trade volume. Good fiscal reports and earnings conditions shown by many corporations the first especially the railways, for the first six months of the current year, point to the actual existence of a sound, strong basis of business resting on past accomplishment. With these elements to support it the market has naturally tended to shake off the depression from which it has suffered, and has exhibited a more optimistic turn during the last week.

INDUSTRY SOUND

Louis G. Kaufman, president of the Chatham and Phoenix National Bank of New York City, says: "In the main there is nothing to cause business interests any undue anxiety. It is safe to say that all danger of money stringency has been permanently removed from possibilities threatening business here. Our highly organized monetary credit system is now on such an effective basis that, so far as it is humanly possible to see, all danger of business retardation from the banking viewpoint is forever removed.

"There was never a time in the history of the country when manufacturers corporations and merchants were in such sound financial position. A country that has weathered the trying problems of the war period and the time since the armistice with such slight disturbance can have little to fear for the future. A conservatively enterprising spirit prevails in the conduct of the fundamental business of the country."

CHARLES M. SCHWAB

We have every reason to feel confident of business conditions in this country, which, on the whole, are on a firm and substantial basis, and there is no logical reason for the caution now being displayed.

It is only when industry is built up on an artificial foundation that we should think of pulling in our sails and looking for a storm, but I see no ominous clouds on the horizon at the present time. Mr. Schwab contends that the slackening up in commerce is a good omen, asserting that the fundamental consideration to bear in mind is that industry and business as well as banking are on an even keel. The stock market is a very poor barometer of business today and neither reflects commercial conditions nor the sentiment of the people at present, according to the steel man.

METAL MARKETS

Daily Review

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CLEVELAND (O.) July 18.—Contraction of iron and steel activity is so gradual and so much tonnage is to be delivered that marks of developing weakness are few says Iron Trade. The weakest point is in merchant pig iron as stocks in furnace hands continue to rise and production keeps in excess of current demand. A few more blast furnaces are out this week.

With a tapering off of orders on mill books caused by reduced new buying of steel, deliveries are becoming easier all around. This is increasing offers of tonnage by producers where shipment is not far extended. Many of these opportunities are being taken up by buyers without hesitation indicating a good reserve demand. Good buying is being done in plates, steel bars, structural shapes and by jobbers in pipe.

Some independent sheet mills need business. Independent sheet sales fell to 67 per cent of capacity. With slight exception finished steel prices are firm. Concession of $2 per ton by an Eastern shape producer has not extended outside.

Need for storage capacity to take care of present overproduction is bringing oil companies into the market for additional tanks. Sinclair interests have placed twenty tanks, requiring 3000 tons of plates. Wyoming interests are negotiating for 30,000 tons and the Pan-American Oil Company for 4500 tons.

New railroad buying keeps especially good except for new equipment. The Ford Motor Company is figuring on two 12,000-ton lake ore freighters to serve its Detroit furnace plants.

Sales and inquiry for pig iron are moderately heavier. Buffalo and valley foundry iron is down to $25, Southern Ohio to $26 and Eastern Pennsylvania to $26 furnace.

Some revival of building activity after the June let down in structural steel awards which this week are up to 23,395 tons, the highest in over two months. New pending items total 30,000 tons.

The composite of fourteen iron and steel products compiled by Iron Trade is $45.25. Last week it was $45.49, in June $46.46 and in July, 1922, $37.50.

MARKET REVIEW

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, July 18.—Practically all markets exhibited increased activity with moderately higher prices, and with an almost complete absence of the pessimism which has been productive of unsettlement and irregularity. There was, of course, no pell mell rush to buy either stocks or commodities and no doubt a careful analysis of the character of buying would bring the conclusion that most of it was for the account of those who had previously sold for the decline. But, nevertheless, in some directions at least, the character of purchasing, especially in wheat and the best class of stocks, was sufficiently aggressive to provide a strong tone for the markets all day. It is yet much too early to say whether this is a mere technical rally, in effect, a straightening out of oversold markets, or whether stocks have fully discounted the seasonal dullness now apparent in many lines and are preparing to anticipate business developments of the fall.

The rally in wheat was accepted as the day's most important financial development, and, as such, received almost unlimited attention in other speculative markets. It is not evident that in the last three days there have developed any factors which will prove of pecuniary aid to the wheat farmer. Weather conditions in the belt are just as favorable now as then; foreign buyers are to be classed as a development whose impulse came from within the market itself rather than from without. A nation-wide campaign to improve domestic consumption, patterned along the lines of the "buy-a-bale-of-cotton" movement, which aided the South at the outbreak of the war, is in the making. This, of course, may have accelerated the recovery.

The stock market was a little broader and a trifle more active than it has been on any previous day this week and some moderate gains were established in a wide list of stocks. Most of them, however, are out and out speculative vehicles.

Possibly, this furnished another bit of evidence that the main buying power at the moment is coming from those who have sold for the decline and who wish to close their commitments. Stocks which might be considered of a semi-investment nature scarcely stirred and as a matter of fact, railroad shares as a group lost fractional ground. It was quite evident in the market for many of the more speculative issues that offers had been withdrawn overnight and the "spread" between the bid and asked prices of many of them was extraordinarily wide.

Industrially the most interesting development of the day was to be found in the summaries of conditions in the iron and steel industry by recognized journals of the trade. The Iron Age remarked that "a sharp reduction in pig iron is promised in the next thirty days, with a relatively smaller decline in steel production," and that "buying at today's prices is carefully limited." The Iron Trade Review notes that "so much tonnage is to be delivered that marks of developing weakness are few," and that "with the tapering off of orders on mill books, caused by reduced new buying, steel deliveries are becoming easier all around."

Probably an important straw, indicating the direction of the wind, is the fact that many of the large construction companies again are willing to bid on contracts, to be completed in 1924.

Better Market Zone

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, July 18.—The stock market displayed a distinctly better tone in more active dealings today.

There were numerous favorable developments, notably a sharp advance in wheat prices, firmness of sugar, cotton and copper, an advance in the price of crude rubber and more favorable news from abroad. The buying, however, was limited largely to industrials and specialties.

After a relatively active and strong opening, prices receded slightly on dullness, but little or no selling pressure was encountered at any hour of the day. Some of the popular leaders moved up in the early transactions on short covering operations, but generally net changes in those shares were negligible.

A wide assortment of industrials and specialties, including the motor accessories, public utilities, shipping, textile and merchandising, tobaccos, chemicals, coppers, independent steels, foods and some miscellaneous stocks recorded gains of 1 to 3 points.

United States Steel was fairly active but fluctuations were confined to a narrow area, while some of the independent steels registered substantial gains.

Some of the larger gains were Consolidated Cigar, up 4 points, International Cement, 3, and Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, Rock Island 7 per cent preferred, Loose Wiles, Mathieson Alkali, Montana Power, National Lead, Postum Cereal, United Drugs and Utah Copper up 2 to 2½ points. Fisher Body jumped 23½ points to 163½ on one sale, and Kresge rose 11 3-4 on a single transaction. Motors and equipments showed moderate strength in the early dealings but later fell off with net changes on the day unimportant.

Call money ruled unchanged at 5 per cent. The time money market was quiet, brokers refusing to bid more than 5 per cent, although an occasional loan is made at 5 1-4 per cent. Commercial paper continued around 5 per cent.

The foreign exchange market was irregular. Demand sterling eased slightly to $4.59. French francs moved up 3 points to 5.86½c and marks yielded from yesterday's figure of .0004 1-16 to .0003 3-4 cents.

Total stock sales, 418,600 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 90.01; net gain, .51. High 1923, 105.38; low, 87.64. Twenty railroads averaged 79.25; net loss .08. High 1923 90.63; low 76.85.

About "Watered Stock"
SOMETIMES misinformed people express the fear that the rates they pay to the public utility company for service are made unreasonably high so that dividends may be paid on "watered stock," that is to say, stock which is not supported by its full face value invested in the business.
This fear is groundless insofar as a California public utility corporation is concerned, because the State Railroad Commission bases rates for service upon the actual useful investment in the property, and not upon the amount of stock outstanding. Even if stock and bond issues were the basis for rate fixing, the consumers of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation would not be called upon to pay higher rates, since the actual investment in the property of the Corporation far exceeds the par value of the outstanding stock and bonds.
The original capital stock of The Los Angeles Electric Company was $150,000. That was in 1882, when electric lighting was an experiment and the demand for it was limited.
During the past 41 years, this electric system has grown by the constant investment of new capital in plant and equipment. In 1922 alone, Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation invested 2⅓ million new dollars on account of its electric system.
There is no "water" in the stock of Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, and the consumer pays rates based upon the value of the property as determined by the California State Railroad Commission.

LOWER CALIFORNIA OIL NEWS

Every geologist visiting the OIL fields in Lower California brings back the most favorable reports.

Information received this week tells of one well reaching the oil sands at 600 feet, and another well coming in with 8100 barrels of 53 degree Baume oil. Possibilities for greater gravity combined with larger volume than ever produced in the U. S. exist in Lower California.

We're about to start drilling on a 6000-acre tract. We offer to sublease acreage directly adjoining at ten dollars per acre in ten-acre blocks, and give GRATIS TEN UNITS in our 6000-acre drilling syndicate with each ten acres purchased.

The most skeptical and conservative investors have come in. Write or call for information.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

Coincident with the opening up of the first two units of the Torrance Gasoline and Refining Company's plant at Torrance yesterday, the Wizard Oil Company began work on the foundation for its gasoline-absorption plant. Both establishments will make casing-head gasoline and are the first refineries to enter the Torrance field.

The plant of the Torrance Gasoline and Refining Company is fitted up for four units, but only two are being operated to start with. The capacity of the two units is estimated at 3000 gallons a day.

Gas from which the gasoline is being extracted is being taken from the Chanslor-Canfield Midway wells,of which there are now eleven on production. It has taken approximately seven miles of pipe to reach the wells on the big Chanslor-Canfield Midway leases which total 3000 acres.

The test at the Torrance Gasoline and Refining Company's plant has shown that one gallon of gasoline can be extracted from every 1000 cubic feet of gas.

The plant of the Wizard Oil Company, which is located on the Hub Oil Company's Smith lease on Carson street, just west of Torrance, will not be as large an establishment as the Torrance Gasoline and Refining Company's plant. It has already contracted for the wet gas from the Hub and Gilmore wells and later expects to get gas from the wells of the other independent producers in the field.

To Deepen Dome

After delays of several weeks during which time attempts were made to place the well on production, the Santa Fe Dome No. 1 is being deepened. The well is 4500 feet deep at this time and will be sent 200 feet farther into the Meyers sand.

Delay was caused recently by the fact that no two and one-half-inch drill stem was available. The stem has arrived and the work of deepening the well will have been completed within two weeks, it is expected. The tract is known as the Bandini lease and is in the east end of the field.

Expect Three Soon

Three wells located in the Santa Fe Springs field are preparing for production and, according to the men associated with the development companies, should be on production within the next few days.

The Boeseke Oil Syndicate's well, located one block east and one south of the Four Corners, is standing with the bailer in the hole ready for the tests. Kirkpatrick No. 1 is swabbing in the Meyers sand and the Union Oil Company's Farwell No. 4 is being prepared for production.

Storage Tank Ready

Union Oil Company of California has completed a new 80,000-barrel storage tank at its Wilmington shiploading plant. Another container of similar capacity is well under way at the same point. Construction of both tanks is under the supervision of L. O. Hampton, engineer in charge.

Making Good Progress

Well No. 1-A of Southern California Oil Company at Santa Fe Springs has cemented the water string at 4546 feet, after finding by coring, the top of the Meyer sand, according to a statement from Secretary Burney Donnell. The test for water shut-off is now being made and the well is expected to be on production within two weeks.

Repairing Leak

A duplication of the condition found Tuesday at the Dobyns No. 2 well on Signal Hill developed yesterday at the Shell company's Godadrd No. 3, when an oil leak was discovered around the casing while the well was being swabbed for production. The same remedy as was applied at the Dobyns well, that of cementing around the conductor string, was being applied by the Shell operators yesterday to offset the leak.

The Goddard is located on the top of the north slope of Signal Hill and is down to a depth of 5285 feet. Because of the distance from the outlaw Union gasser which worked havoc last week, Shel company officials do not believe that the gas blowout is responsible for the condition. The Goddard has shown good oil and gas indications and has blown to the crown block during swabbing operations.

Start Wells for City

Two new wells were started yesterday on city-owned property in the Signal Hill field by the Ramsey Brothers. One of the new wells is located on Reservoir Hill and the other on the lease near the Discovery well.

Both wells are close to producers that are bringing large royalties into the Long Beach city treasury. The well on the Reservoir Hill tract will be carried down to the 5000-foot level, it is asserted.

Southland Production

According to the American Petroleum Institute, the total production of crude oil for California in June was 22,667,106 barrels. Total stocks at the end of the month were 72,637,147 barrels. This increased stocks 3,156,742 barrels. Seventy-nine wells were completed with an initial daily production of 152,974 barrels.

DAILY MARKET LETTER OF THE NEW YORK COMMERCIAL

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, July 18. — There was a good demand for California oranges today, but the market was lower on 216s, while other sizes were strong. Sales were twenty-seven cars, the market being quoted at a range of $2.50 to $7 per box.

There were 118 boxes of California grapefruit sold at $2.20 to $4.50 per box.

California lemons were lower, three cars being sold at $4.85 to $6.54 per box.

There was a good inquiry for Florida oranges and grapefruit. Three hundred and twenty-five boxes of oranges sold at $2 to $4.75 and 1800 boxes of grapefruit sold at $1.63 to $4.88.

DRIED FRUITS

Buying of carry-over raisins from the association continues the chief feature of the dried-fruit market. Buyers are taking hold of the market with more confidence and the raisins are moving. Independents do not see anything in it for them to take hold of any of the carry-over stock, as the advertised brand of the association will normally command a premium over unadvertised brands and there is not enough margin for the independents to cut the market to a trading basis.

While buying of new California apricots continues slow the decline in prices, which has been the most consistent feature of the market since the first opening a few months ago, appears to have been arrested.

CANNED GOODS

Opening prices on 1923 pack California canned fruits were named today by one of the largest independent packers. Prices are considerably under those for last year, cling peaches being from 20 to 45 cents lower, according to grade. The packer in question reports a fair volume of business. The prices were interesting to the trade as an index to price views of the larger Coast interests.

The spot canned-foods market was uninteresting throughout and prices were unchanged.

SUGAR

There was but a limited amount of interest shown in the raw-sugar position today. Some of the local refiners were understood to be bidding for raws in small lots, on the basis of 5 1-4 cents for Cubas. One interest bought 5000 bags Porto Ricos at 7.03 and a small lot of 1700 bags of Cubas, late July shipment, at 5 1-4 cents, cost and freight. Most of the offerings of the latter were on the basis of 5½ cents, cost and freight, and it was also understood that Cuban sellers were not so anxious to dispose of their holdings at that level. Late business worked on Tuesday included 13,000 bags of Cubas at 5½, cost and freight, late July shipment; 15,000 bags Porto Ricos, July shipment, at 7.28 cents; 7000 bags Cubas at 6.20 cents, f.o.b. Cuba, and 10,000 bags Cubas, August shipment, at 5 1-4 cents, cost and freight.

The sugar futures market settled 3 to 4 points net lower. Business was only in March, September and December options. There was strength shown for a time, but the low bids for raws and unwillingness of consumers to pay the advanced opening prices accounts for the lower market.

In refined sugar it is believed that the bulk of trade interests are covered on requirements for the remainder of the week and into next. As a result offers are coming forward on the basis of 8.75 cents.

COFFEE

Coffee opened strong at a net gain of 7 to 10 points, continuing the upward trend established toward the close of the previous session. There was not much business, but apparently enough was doing to cause uneasiness among the small, short interests and July was even up without much trouble, at one time selling at a net gain of 30 points. September was also in pretty fair demand. The tightness of the position was attributed to the fact that values here are really below the cost of import.

Sales were reported in some sections on the basis of early shipment from Brazil at 8.80, equal to 9.13 delivered in New York. Based on this figure September in the New York market was selling more than a cent below the cost and freight position. March sold 6.95 and 7.12; May, 6.95 and 7.10; July, 8.75 and 8.95; September, 7.60 and 7.80; December, 7 and 7.17 cents.

TEA

While tea importers and jobbers are optimistic over the immediate market outlook, there is no disguising the fact that the present market is very quiet.

Buyers seem to have determined to operate on a hand-to-mouth basis for the duration of the summer, the sellers declare, and orders are confined to small parcels. Prices are strongly held in all primary markets and with stocks in this market not excessive, the statistical position of the market is quite strong.

RICE

Trading in the spot rice market continued confined to small parcels in today's market. Domestic grades show a steady tone for the small volume of spot business now passing. The market on imported varieties is inclined to weakness.

BUTTER

The butter market is showing signs of weakness. Arrivals show a daily increase and with buyers holding off for lower prices, a decline of ¼ cent was established. Creamery extras were freely offered at 38½ cents without attracting any attention. Call sales: 25 tubs creamery extras at 38¼ cents; 25, 100, 250 tubs do. at 38¼ cents, 25 tubs do. at 38 cents. There were no sales recorded for future delivery.

EGGS

The egg market is going from bad to worse. Supplies on the spot are far in excess of the demand and with liberal shipments in transit prices were again reduced ½ cent per dozen on nearly all grades. Call sales were 50 cases Minnesota extra firsts, 25 cents; 15 cases Ohio luck eggs, 29 cents; 50 cases Ohio extra firsts at 25 cents for spot delivery.

In futures sales were 6 cars refrigerator firsts, seller December at 31¾ cents per dozen.

COPPER

Although second hands are reported to be shading the copper market 1-8c, practically all of the producers are asking 14⅝c a pound and up for electrolytic delivered. Some increase in export buying is reported from Germany and England. The export price is about 15c c.i.f. European ports. Lake copper is held at 15c delivered, while casting is offered at 14 3-8c refinery.

In London standard copper started upward, the price advancing 7s, 6d to £65 for spot and £65 15s for futures, while electrolytic was firm and unchanged at £72, 10s spot and £73 for futures.

ZINC

Zinc eased off another 5 points to 6.10c a pound St. Louis for spot, July and August with the two following months commanding premiums of 5 and 10 points respectively.

The upward movement in London continued a gain of 5s being registered, spot closing £29 2s 6d and futures at £29, 5s.

LEAD

Evidently the low prices have started something in the lead market and buying was of such volume today that the independents pushed their prices up to 6.20 and 6¼c New York although the leading interest continues to quote 6c a pound. The St. Louis market advanced to 5.95c. London market held firm and unchanged at £24 for spot and £23 10s for futures.

FUEL OIL

Bunker fuel oil was reduced 10c a barrel today by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and other leading marketers in this district. The new quotation f. o. b. terminal is $1.60 per barrel which means $1.66½ per barrel f.a.s. The decreased price of crude oil was given as the principal reason for the drop.

BONDS

Bonds continue dull. The market in Liberties was quieter while other governments were also moving slowly.

Foreign governments held well around current trading area. Austrians opened at 91 and after sagging fractionally recovered well. Canadian 5s of 1952 advanced ¼ point. Queensland 6s were quieter but strong. Mexican 5s were up ¾ to 53¾ after touching 54.

Industrial bonds were better. American Agricultural 7½s moved from 97 1-8 to 97½, closing at the top.

Rails were steady with a fair show of activity on the part of the cheaper issues. The Katy adjustment 5s advanced ¼ to 50¼ after a block of $175,000 bonds had been absorbed at 50 in the early trading. The Missouri Pacific 6s, 1949, rose ½ to 92¾, while the general 4s gained ⅛.

NEW YORK CURB

[A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, July 18.—While net changes were generally small in today's New York curb market the tone was unmistakably better.

With the exception of Prairie Oil and Gas which jumped six points higher, the oil shares moved within a very narrow area. Most of them, however, were slightly higher on the day.

Industrials were in demand most of the day but advances were small. Gillett Safety Razor gained 1½. Reo Motors declined fractionally as did also the other motor shares.

Mining stocks were active and advanced fractionally.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Following are the closing quotations and sales on the New York Curb Market. Furnished by Logan and Bryan, members of the New York Exchange, 636 South Spring street.

INSURANCE VISITORS BOUND FOR NORTH

MISSOURI DELEGATES SEE SIGHTS OF LOS ANGELES, LEAVE FOR BAY CITY

Members of the $250,000 club of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company left last night for San Francisco in their special train in which they made the trip from St. Louis to Los Angeles, stopping at the Grand Canyon.

The first day of the visitors' stay was devoted to an automobile sightseeing trip about the city, while on the second day a trip was taken to several near-by beach resorts, followed by a tour of the principal moving-picture studios.

The party comprises agents of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company, each of whom had written not less than $250,000 worth of insurance during the past fiscal year, and who are located in various cities of the country, from Maine to California. Included in the party were M. E. Singleton of St. Louis, president of the company; Vice-Presidents John J. Moriarty and T. F. Lawrence and W. O. Dutton, west coast supervisor.

INCOMES

Your capital must now return a higher interest rate to provide the same living it did formerly. The world is operating on a new basis. You are paying more for every necessity. Unless you are receiving more on your investments you are out of joint with the times, and you are the loser.

YOUR MONEY SHOULD EARN 8%.

It's a Lazy Dollar That Earns But 4%.

It is a matter of record that modern commercial banking institutions such as finance companies have for years past consistently earned 8% and upward; and this without entering speculative fields.

Capital Finance Corporation

opens the way for you to meet present living conditions with a larger income through modern commercial banking. Its preferred stock pays 8% dividends. Back of every preferred share at all times there will be in the Corporation's treasury $100 in cash, or more than $100 in collateral security. To the common stock will go all the earnings in excess of 8%. Since the average yearly returns from financial institutions is officially reported to be over 20%, the common shares of Capital Finance Corporation should increase your income materially.

PLAN RODEO FOR FUND TO FIX STREETS

North Long Beach to Give Show This Week End at Aviation Field

Giving a rodeo to raise funds for grade-crossing abolition, flood control, street repairs and sanitation is the novel idea of North Long Beach, a community adjoining the Signal Hill oil field, and a big round-up will be put on at the Daugherty aviation field next Saturday and Sunday. The Misses Frances De Laplante and Nylic Vaughn of Los Angeles have been chosen as judges for the big event. They were selected by Dorothy Merrell, famous cowgirl.

Nylic Vaughan

The North Side Chamber of Commerce is staging the event, and hopes by this means to raise a large fund with which to obtain the needed improvements. The Signal Hill oil field has proved a problem which residents of the district have been unable to solve. The heavy trucks have torn up the streets and overflow water, mud and oil from the wells have made sanitary conditions intolerable, it is asserted.

The rodeo, according to "Skeeter" Bill Robbins, veteran cowboy and showman, will be the biggest the West has seen in some time. Many of the star horsewomen of the Southwest, including Dorothy Morrell, many times a champion, and Helen Gibson, also of film fame, will be among the feminine attractions.

Frances De Laplante

Cowboys from the Hollywood motion-picture colony, as well as from up around the Canadian border and the Southwestern States, are arriving in Long Beach daily to compete for the prizes.

Motorists of Los Angeles who have occasion to use the streets leading into Long Beach and know the condition of them are being called upon by the North Side Chamber of Commerce to patronize the rodeo and thus assist in building up a fund which will go for improvements. The Daugherty aviation field will accommodate 20,000 persons for the rodeo, with a few reserved seats.

FRATERNAL SECRETARY OF DEKES VISITS HERE

James A. Hawes, general fraternity secretary of the D. K. E. Fraternity, is visiting here, and on the 20th inst., a dance will be given for him at the Hotel Coronado which many members of the fraternity are expected to attend. They will visit Tijuana the next day. On Monday, the 23rd inst., a dinner will be given in his honor at the University Club at 7 p.m. Friday, the 27th inst., a barbecue will be held at the Uplifters' ranch in Santa Monica at 3 o'clock. The automobiles going to Coronado on Friday are to meet in front of the University Club between 12 and 1 o'clock. Mr. Hawes hopes to meet all of the Dekes at all of these affairs.

DIVORCE WON BY BRIDE

Got Too Many Clothes from Mate Who Disappeared

A husband's custom of deluging his bride with costly gifts of clothing was used as the basis for a divorce action brought by Mrs. Lena Bell Stoliker yesterday. She was granted a decree by Judge Clock.

Mrs. Bell said she met Virgil M. Bell in the East and that after she came here he followed her and they were married. Her husband worked in a downtown department store, she said, and told her that he could buy clothes cheaply for her.

She said he told her to go to a certain place and pay for packages, which he would send C.O.D. She paid $5 for the first one, and said, and was amazed when she opened it to discover some costly gowns and silk undergarments.

Later, she said her husband told her other packages were awaiting her. She was suspicious, she said, and asked not to go after them, but said he compelled her to go. On March 25, 1922, she said her husband suddenly disappeared and a short time after the department store detectives came looking for him, telling her he had stolen many articles from the store. C. M. Mooslin was her attorney.

Governor to Name Judges in Fortnight

Gov. Richardson announced yesterday before leaving for Salinas for a swing through the northern and central sections of the State that he would make public his appointments to the Superior Court bench about August 1. Six new judges are to be appointed but they will not take office until September 1, the Governor said, because no court room is available.

The new judges, Gov. Richardson declared, will all be efficient hard-working men who will do their utmost to clear up the crowded court calendar. The field from which the selections will be made, the Governor indicated, has been narrowed down considerably.

Gov. Richardson will arrive at Salinas this morning to attend the annual rodeo there. From Salinas he will proceed to the Presidio of Monterey and from there to San Francisco, returning to Los Angeles by way of Sacramento, where he will stop off for a short time.

Home Remedy Fails to Save Poison Victim

Mustard water and other home remedies prescribed by her mother proved no match for deadly strychnine, and three days after swallowing the poison tablets, police say with suicidal intent, Mrs. Delores Ford, 40 years of age, died yesterday at noon at her home at 726 East Pico street.

The woman took the poison last Sunday, Police Officer Thomas, of University division, reported, and was found by her mother, Mrs. E. Leihy, with whom she lived. The mother used the home remedies rather than call a doctor, the officer reported, through fear of notoriety.

According to the mother, her daughter at first rallied, but had a relapse yesterday and died suddenly. Mental trouble was given by the mother as the cause for the suicide, Mrs. Ford having once been an inmate of a sanatorium. The body was removed to the mortuary of Robert Sharpe & Sons.

None of these corporations were as logically situated to make a success of the Refining business as I am today.

HARD FEAT TO MAKE FEET FIT

Message From Shoe Man Tells How to Dress Up the Bunion Bushes

If milady's bunion squad will please stand at attention, the latest bulletin from the land of footwear will now be read and all will act accordingly—if you care to travel with fashion.

Through a communication received from J. C. McKeon, vice-president of the National Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' Association, The Times is enabled to present herewith some advance information as to the coming fall styles in footwear, the motive which has prompted the innovations, and the spirit in which they should be received. In the first place, Mr. McKeon states that "the selection of one's personal apparel is truly an art," and in order that the pedestrian's desires to conform to this edict may be satisfied, the Allied Style Conference of Shoes and Leather, held recently, decided to provide the means and light the uncertain way.

It was unanimously agreed that art and utility should predominate in evening footwear. The toes of women's kickers will be of medium round type and the heels will be constructed of wood, Cuban shape, and full Louis in the French and Spanish shape, varying between Baby Louis and two and an eighth inch height, in keeping with the taste of the wearer. Outside of full and Baby Louis, other members of the Louis family are barred in this class, it was intimated.

Now as to the colors for evening wear, here's the menu: Black will be freely worn, but if one objpects to the mourning type, choice may be made from beige, thrush, hazel, otter, Congo, log cabin and autumn brown.

For afternoons, black or brown satins brocaded with gold and silver bullion. The larger the foot the more bullion. Street shoes will be similar in type and color, with heels running lower and quite frequently of solid leather. This innovation will please, it is believed.

Conservative footwear will follow the usual trend, it was pointed out, with possibly broader and fuller toes.

It was also intimated that many beautiful rhinestone and cut-steel buckles, imported and domestic, will be shown by the shops, largely for use on tongue slippers and plain pumps.

As nothing was said about the male, it is presumed he will wear shoes as usual.

SHOPLIFTERS GIVEN SENTENCES AND FINES

James Cannon, 1339 East First street, pleaded guilty before Judge Crawford of pilfering merchandise from Bullock's and was given 180 days in jail.

Joseph Herrell, 528 South Main street, also came before Judge Crawford and admitted he took merchandise from a local store. A six months' sentence was imposed.

A plea of not guilty was entered by G. Cota and Jose Morales, charged with stealing a dress at Hamburger's, when they faced Judge Crawford. They asked for a jury trial. They got it and a sentence of 180 days each.

Bruce W. Helm, giving 115 North Fourth street, Alhambra, as his address, and claiming to be an oil promoter, pleaded guilty before Police Judge Chambers of taking one pair of trousers from the J. W. Robinson Company. He was fined $100 or 100 days in jail and paid the fine. The defendants were arrested and prosecuted by operatives from the Retail Dry Goods Merchants' Association.

Thousands Beg Right to Fish in City Reservoirs

A petition bearing the names of 13,000 fishermen of Los Angeles will be presented today to the City Council asking that the city permit flies to be dropped into the city reservoirs.

The reservoirs are said to be swarming with fish, but an ordinance, adopted some time ago, forbids fishing. The ordinance was framed so as to prevent pollution of the water but the "regular" fishermen believe one could be drawn up that would permit fishing and yet protect the water. The fishermen offer to pay fees, which would go into the civic treasury.

A delegation of the fishermen called on Councilman Gregory yesterday, and he agreed to bring the matter before the Council today. The fishermen particularly want to use Chatworth Reservoir, which is accessible and said to contain some very fine fish.

COUNTY PROPERTY VALUES HAVE ENORMOUS ADVANCE

Incompleted Report of Assessor Shows $280,000,000 Boost; May Lower Rate

County Assessor Hopkins in a report to the Board of Supervisors at the close of the session of the Board of Equalization today, showed figures indicating the marvelous increase in assessment values in the city and county over last year. The report made is yet to be completed. Hopkins said the rate of increase shown should serve to reduce radically the present tax rates, unless, within the coming year, excessive expenditures are made.

According to the incompleted report the increase in assessment for the county for buildings is $85,000,000 over 1922. This is the largest ever known.

The increased assessed valuation of real estate is $195,000,000. Personal property valuations are yet to be compiled.

The total increased valuation of all property, not including property assessed for railroads and public utilities, is about $300,000,000, according to the report.

RATE SHOULD BE CUT

"Under these figures showing the marvelous development of Los Angeles and Los Angeles county," the report continues, "the present tax rates should be less, unless expenditures are excessive.

"The increase of valuations of 1922 over 1921 was twice as much as it was in 1921. To perform the work of assessment for the present year it required an army of 320 deputies and 220 clerks, with work yet to do. Increased valuations such as shown indicate that it will not be long before Los Angeles will be the largest community in the United States with the exception, possibly, of New York and Chicago.

"There is no city in the United States which ever has shown such an increase of valuations as has taken place here within the year. According to present figures, Los Angeles county has twice the assessed valuation of San Francisco county.

CITY INCREASE ENORMOUS

"Including everything, the increased valuation of Los Angeles city is about $200,000,000 over the figures for 1922."

Statistics compiled by properly credited authorities and published recently show real estate valuations of Chicago at $3,415,635,240; New York at $10,249,991,335, and San Francisco at $885,139,105.

The total real estate assessment valuation of Los Angeles published in the same book of statistics is $784,418,770. These figures cover only the city proper.

AUTO RULE DEFINED IN CRASH SUIT

Machines on Right Have Right of Way Only When They're First

A decision of importance to motorists was handed down yesterday by Presiding Justice Conrey and Associate Justices Houser and Curtis of the District Court of Appeals in the case of L. W. Donat against H. T. Dillon for damages growing out of an automobile collision at Bakersfield.

The court ruled that machines traveling on the right have not the right of way over machines on the left except when they reach the intersection first. The decision of the Superior Court, which found Dillon guilty of negligence and awarded damages to Donat, was reversed by the higher court.

Testimony showed that at the time of the accident Donat was riding an automobile driven by H. C. Riddle. This car was approaching the street intersection from the north. The Dillon car was traveling in the opposite direction.

After giving the proper signal, Dillon turned to the left at the intersection. At the time he made the turn, according to the evidence, the Riddle car was 100 feet from the intersection, traveling rapidly, while the Dillon machine was moving at a low rate of speed.

The two cars collided and Donat was injured. He brought suit against Dillon, charging that the defendant was negligent and had failed to observe the traffic rules.

GIRL FIGHTS RETURN HOME

Declares Tacoma Couple Who Caused Apprehension Have Not Proved They Are Her Parents

Leota Rosamond Bray, small but full of spunk, raised her almost five feet of height in Judge Crail's court yesterday and declared she would not go back to the care of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bray, formerly of Deadwood, S. D., but now of Tacoma.

"So far as I know they are not my parents," she said: "My earliest recollection of them was when I was five years of age. I'm 17 and able to earn my own living and I've been doing it."

Miss Bray came before Judge Crail on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by Attorney J. R. Wilder, who declared the girl was past 14 and so could nominate her own guardian, and that she was being held at Juvenile Hall without authority of law. When Margaret Pullen, superintendent of Juvenile Hall, said that since the writ was

RED EVIL IS HARD HIT BY KNOWLEDGE

Education of Public May be Recommended as Best Remedy for Menace

Education of the public as the best means of combating the Red menace is expected to constitute the recommendations of a Los Angeles Harbor committee of citizens tomorrow, after a two-months investigation of the May strike called by I. W. W. at the harbor.

The committee is composed of representatives of every civic and fraternal organization in San Pedro, and three representatives chosen at large. It is expected to advocate the stamping out of wobblies from the State, and to advise the need of arousing public opinion, through education, as the only means of combating Red propaganda and Red crime.

The committee's findings are based entirely on the May strike, and do not touch upon the strike called by the I. W. W. a week ago, which fizzled out.

FIGHT FILM QUIZ LAUNCHED HERE

Federal Aides Refuse to Surrender Pictures

Indictments Will be Sought to Fix Responsibility

Jury May be Asked to Return Conspiracy Charge

The investigation of the transportation into Los Angeles of the Dempsey-Gibbons prize fight motion pictures will eventually lead to the Federal grand jury, where indictments charging conspiracy to violate a Federal law will be requested, it was indicated yesterday by United States Attorney Burke, and Leon Bone, head of the local Department of Justice office.

The films, which were seized by Department of Justice agents at the Horsley studios Tuesday night, were still in the safe in the Department of Justice offices yesterday despite an effort on the part of a news-pciture organization to gain possession of them.

COURT ORDER

The pictures were taken by an operator of the organization at Shelby. The identity of those who were guilty of bringing them across the California State line was not made known by Federal officials, but as a conspiracy is supposed to include all those who had a hand in the illegal affair, it is expected that numerous persons will be named in the indictment.

C. J. Hubbell, manager for the International News Reel yesterday went into Superior Court where he requested an attachment against the films, asserting that his corporation was to receive $5000 for "shooting" the fight. A writ of attachment was issued, and a deputy sheriff served it upon Agent Bone. The films, which are being held as evidence, were not surrendered.

U. S. Atty. Burke stated that the films were considered as evidence, and in case he was forced to give them up he would go into Federal Court and ask for an order that the films be retained in the custody of the Sheriff.

Shortly after the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nev., a Federal law was passed making it a misdemeanor to transport fight films interstate. This was violated here in 1921 when a nominal fine was assessed and paid, and the pictures shown for several weeks. In this case, however, as it was pointed out by Agent Bone, a conspiracy according to his assertion, was entered into by a number of men to violate a Federal law. The penalty for conspiracy is two years in the Federal penitentiary, $10,000 fine, or both.

The films seized Tuesday comprised four reels of fight film and one copy of four reels.

Escaped Man Is Held on Charge of Helping Rob

Arthur P. Winter, 40 years of age, was charged in a complaint issued yesterday by United States Commissioner Long with implication in the robbery of July 13, 1921, of the post office at Boey, Minn., and remanded to the County Jail to await removal proceedings.

With Jack Wilson and Phil O'Mera, Winter is asserted to have held up the Boey Post Office and to have taken and forged nearly 100 postal money orders. Wilson was arrested in Milwaukee and O'Mera in Minneapolis. All three were indicted by the Federal grand jury in St. Paul.

According to Postal Inspector Webster, Winter has served time in the Federal penitentiary at McNeil's Island and in Folsom and San Quentin prisons.

While under arrest on a larceny charge at Lincoln Heights Station, Winter escaped several weeks ago, when he broke from a guard while painting a fence.

He was arrested yesterday by the police narcotic squad, who know him to be an addict.

DOLLEY WINS HIGHER POST

Will Go to San Francisco as Chief Dry Agent in Charge of All State Forces

Harold H. Dolley, Federal prohibition agent-in-charge for Southern California, was notified by State Director Rutter yesterday to report to San Francisco and assume the duties of chief agent in charge of field operations.

The office to which Mr. Dolley succeeds has been created within the last few days, and is one of vast responsibility. He will direct the enforcement of the Volstead Act in the entire State of California, with all active agents and investigators in the field under his authority.

Mr. Dolley's promotion is credited to the regard in which he is held by Director Rutter, who worked with his assistant before the passage of the prohibition law while both were in the Department of Justice.

GANG BOOTY IDENTIFIED BY VICTIMS

Additional Evidence is Obtained Against Band of Petting Party Robbers

Additional evidence against the "Spooner Bandits," an asserted desperate gang of criminals who have obtained $100,000 in loot in more than seventy-five crimes in Los Angeles, was obtained yesterday by Detective Lieutenants Cato and Cahill when several victims called at Central Station and identified a quantity of the recovered valuables as theirs.

Mrs. Sam Dikey, 3618 Mettler street, claimed several of the articles and identified Alfred Rodriguez, said to be the leader of the "Spooner Bandits," as one of the men she saw leaving her home shortly after the robbery. Mrs. Dikey said that Rodriguez was disguised as a schoolboy in short trousers and that he made his escape on a bicycle.

In a confession to the police, according to the officers, Rodriguez admitted he and his associates who are now under arrest had committed seventy-five robberies and burglaries. The victims of the robberies, he said were chiefly "petting parties" on dark side streets.

Other arrests of members of Rodriguez' gang were predicted last night by the officers.

Final Rites for Mrs. Fred Alles This Afternoon

An old-time resident of Los Angeles will be laid to rest today when final rites are conducted for Mrs. Fred L. Alles, who died suddenly Tuesday evening at the family home, Pico street and Westlake avenue. Services will be conducted at 2 p.m. at the chapel in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

With her husband and two children, Mrs. Alles came to Los Angeles nearly forty years ago, and for more than one-half of that period the family has resided at the present home.

As a charter member of the Friday Morning Club, Mrs. Alles took keen interest in the growth and activities of that organization, and for many years she was associated with the Needlework Guild.

Ong Lum Pays Prosecutors Great Honors

Ong Lum, Chinatown's leading baker, and one of her most respected citizens, called upon Dist.-Atty. Keyes in his office Monday afternoon to pay his respects to the new official.

After an elaborate interchange of compliments, in the Chinese fashion, Ong Lum said: "In my country, a good public official is admired above all men. I hear that you are a good official. Therefore, I come to admire you."

A pleasant visit followed and Ong Lum was introduced to Asst. Dist.-Atty. Fricke.

Yesterday afternoon Ong Lum appeared again at the District Attorne's office, and behind him came six members of his family, carrying two huge Chinese cakes. The cakes stood three feet high, a monument of Chinese art.

On one cake was inscribed "To our District Attorney, Mr. Asa Keyes." The other was inscribed to Mr. Fricke.

THREE-RING CIRCUS ON TAP

Exposition Attractions Would Make Barnum Feel Cheap; Film Stars Cheered

They ran the legs off the best three-ring circus ever seen in these parts at the Motion Picture Exposition and Monroe Doctrine Centennial last night. Barnum himself would have felt cheap at taking the money for his show if he had been there to see what was offered at this one.

Miss Ruth Justice

Three-ring circus is a good way of suming it up. The Exposition management put on its great show in the Coliseum, Warner Brothers motion picture producers put on a big show of their own, and finally the public threw discretion to the winds and ran a show in a ring of its own.

The Warner Brothers big attraction included a preliminary of impromptu appearances of some of their best known stars in front of the Warner bungalow. So great an attraction did the stars hold for the crowds on the grounds, that the preliminaries had to be called off early to permit the throngs to move on to the Coliseum to see the night show of pageantry, vaudeville, and cowboy sports.

STARS ARE CHEERED

After the first few numbers of the regular show in the large bowl, the Warner Brothers' stars and their skits were trotted out in the glare of the studio sun arcs, transported to the Exposition grounds for the occasion. The crowds cheered with roars of ap-

POLICE NIP BANDIT PLOT

Wholesale Looting of Small Stores Frustrated by Arrest of Two Suspects; Third Escapes

A well-organized scheme for plundering small stores went wrong through carelessness yesterday, according to the police, and resulted in the capture of two of an asserted trio who are believed to have had a dozen or more victims in the past few days. The system was a new one to the police.

Harry Minkler, 22 years of age, and a boy of 17 who refused to give his name are the prisoners. According to Officer Alsup and Detective Lieutenants Smith and Jackson, they admitted rifling cash registers of seven stores by means of the plan. Only two of these thefts have been reported to the police, but the total amount of plunder is believed to have been considerable.

The plan said to have been concocted by the three went wrong yesterday afternoon at the Pacific Hat Store, 336 South Hill street. There a stranger entered, believed to have been the man in the plan who is not yet arrested, and told the proprietor, William Siegel, who appeared to be alone in the store, that he was wanted on the telephone next door.

Siegel went out, leaving the store apparently unguarded, and the boy, according to the police, entered, opened the cash register, took out $17 and started to run out. Siegel's brother Herman, however, was in the rear of the store and saw the boy leaving. He yelled for the police and the boy ran into the arms of Officer Alsup.

Information he gave led to the

FILMLAND OUT FOR "PRE-VIEW"

Producers, Directors and Stars Boost Plan

Theater Men Supporting New Screen Section

Call Innovation of "Times" Need of Screen World

Leaders of the film world here, producers, directors, stars and theater owners, yesterday joined in commendation of The Times for inauguration of The Pre-View, the sixteen-page film magazine section the first number of which was published yesterday morning, and which will continue as a regular section of The Times every Wednesday.

The men and women who are leaders of the industry and who realize the problems and difficulties of production, were unanimous in a verdict which, summarized, may be worded as follows:

"Motion pictures have long needed a kind of periodical which has not been in existence here or anywhere. The Pre-View is it."

For several weeks the curiosity of filmland and of the city and Southern California in general has been aroused concerning the appearance and general nature of the Pre-View. Yesterday's first issue was eagerly awaited. The attitude of the motion-picture colony here, summarized in brief excerpts from letters, telegrams and verbal statements from people prominent in the film colony, is as follows:

OF TREMENDOUS VALUE

"I believe that in the Pre-View The Times has introduced into the field of motion-picture publications, an organ that unquestionably will prove of tremendous value to both the general public and those associated directly with the cinema industry," said Hal Roach. "To the exhibitor it is bound to be of great value, giving as it does advance information on pictures, from the most natural source—Los Angeles, the center of production. The first number of the Pre-View gives great promise for its future success. All that remains for the Pre-View to be of greatest value to all, is to maintain the sincere standard of fairness, manifested by The Times, in the handling of its entire editorial policy. May the Pre-View enjoy the complete support of the entire industry."

SCHENCK ENTHUSIASTIC

Joseph M. Schenck, producer of Norma and Constance Talmadge and Buster Keaton photoplays, said

"The first copy of The Times Pre-View has just reached my hands. I predict a splendid future for this magazine and heartily congratulate The Times on its quality.

"The Pre-View fills a long-felt want. Heretofore the public has has to wait many long weeks before receiving reliable information concerning the latest photoplays. By its enterprise and foresight The Times will now be able to give everyone interested in the late photoplays unbiased opinions regarding them months before the photoplays are shown in the theaters of the nation.

"The make-up of The Pre-View is artistic and attractive. The reviews will have especial weight because of the recognized authority of those writing them. The general public as well as those in the film colony will find the magazine a delight for it is at once instructive and written in an attention-compelling style.

"Here in Los Angeles is where motion pictures are made. Los Angeles has long needed a really representative motion-picture magazine of the particular type which The Times has now brought forth."

HIT THE BULL'S-EYE

M. C. Levee, president of the United Studios, says of the Pre-View: "The Times has hit the bull's-eye with its new Pre-View. The name of your publication tells the whole story. Your Pre-View will undoubtedly win you the hearty support of every theater owner throughout the country. This advance service of giving full information on new productions will enable exhibitors everywhere in the United States to decide their bookings months in advance. This will overcome last-minute bookings, which have resulted in the lack of preparation for the proper presentation at the theater of new productions. The Pre-View is

FOSTER-MOTHER WINS GIRL

Woman Who Bore Child and Gave Her to Sister Loses Second Court Fight for Possession

For the second time within two years a mother's attempt to get possession of her 5-year-old daughter failed in Judge Hewitt's Superior Court yesterday.

Judge Hewitt denied the writ of habeas corpus sought by Mrs. Lois Pollan, the mother, to get her daughter June, who was remanded to custody of Mrs. Elsie Shosted, her foster-mother, Mrs. Pollan's sister.

Mrs. Pollan's first court attempt to get back her child was made in Duluth, Minn, eighteen months ago.

Commenting on the extraordinary story revealed by testimony in the case, Judge Hewitt said, "I hope this little girl may grow up ignorant of the great sorrow she has caused."

The child was born in Independence, Kan., five years ago, while her mother was unmarried. The mother said that the child is a war baby, her father having disappeared after he had gone to France. But Mrs. Shosted testified that her sister and her former husband, now dead, had admitted before June's birth that the child was theirs, and that she had passed off the little girl as her own to save her sister's honor and her husband's good name.

Mrs. Pollan said it had been understood that she was to have her child when she wanted it, but Mrs. Shosted said it was agreed that she should keep the baby. When June was two years old, her mother married Clayton Pollan, a captain in the United States Army, and he promised to help her get back the baby. They followed Mrs. Shosted to Duluth, where a writ was sought, and denied. Mrs. Shosted then came to Los Angeles, and married her present husband. The Pollans recently traced her here, and again brought court action.

PARADE TO OPEN NARCOTIC WAR

"Onward Christian Soldiers" is Marching Song

Saturday Demonstration First Gun in Campaign

Noted Speakers to be Heard on Drug Evils

"Onward, Christian Soldiers" will be the marching song of the narcotic education parade Saturday.

Bearing banners telling of the drug evil and of the determination to end it, thousands will step in time wtih the mighty rhythm of the hymn tune. From end to end of the column throughout the parade the bands will play no other music.

The marchers, provided with printed words, will sing as they march. Those on the curbs will be expected to join the singing, and whenever any care to join the ranks they will have only to fall in step and a place will be opened.

Fifteen thousand American flags, given by Arthur Letts insure a flag for every marcher. The Daughters of the American Revolution have charge of the flag distribution.

The parade will traverse downtown streets at noon, beginning at 11:30 a.m., and reaching the Coliseum before 2:30 p.m., where a mass meeting will hear Gov. Richardson, Mayor Cryer, former Senator Flint, Capt. Richmond Person Hobson, Aimee Semple McPherson, Rabbi Magnin, Susan M. Dorsey, Harry Chandler, Dr. Brainerd of the California Medical Association, and others qualified to speak in consonance with the motto of the event.

Numerically the largest representation in the parade will be that of Angelus Temple, whose evangelist-pastor, Mrs. McPherson, suggested the marching song for the parade, and will herself speak on "Evangelism as a Force Against Narcotics."

With the telegraphed approval of the Secretaries of War and Navy, both branches will be represented, the Navy by Capt. LeRoy N. Taylor of the staff of the Eleventh Naval District, San Diego, and the Army by 150 artillerymen from Fort MacArthur, under command of Maj. Ruhlin.

CIRCUS ON TAP AT EXPOSITION

plause such well-known Warner Brothers stars as Marie Prevost, Harry Meyers, Irene Rich, Johnny Hines, Wesley Barry Louise Fazenda, Eddie Burns, Margaret Sneddon, Bruce Guerlin, Speck O'Donnell, Gertrude Short, and Aleck B. Francis. All eppeared under the able direction of William Beaudine. The famous police dog Rin-Tin-Tin put on his spectacular jumping exhibition in which he lowered his own record for high jumping.

Then came the public's own entries in the night's entertainment in the shape of a parade of entrants in the free-for-all masquerade and imitators of popular stars. Charlie Chaplins, "Doug" Fairbanks and Pola Negris were running around the exposition grounds by the dozens. Prizes were awarded for the best imitations of Mary Pickford, Lloyd Hughes, Norma Talmadge, Gloria Swanson and the other three stars mentioned above. The crowd entered with hilarious fun into the judging of the competitors as they came up to be looked over.

The show with its Kosloff dancers, the vaudeville stunts, the cowboy sports and the great finale of the Montezuma pyrotechnic display, was staged in addition to the Warner Brothers' offerings.

MONETA CELEBRATES

Prior to the opening of the show Moneta had her day at the exposition, the thriving community bursting forth with a parade at the head of which rode Ruth Justice, who, as winner of the Moneta beauty contest, was crowned the Moneta queen of the exposition. The Moneta crowd had its own retinue of hand-maidens and ladies-in-waiting, together with lively court jesters to attend the queen. L. F. Stevens, president of the Moneta Commercial Club, crowned the queen. Miss Viola Foster sang a number of appropriate songs.

Another attraction yesterday was added to the list of free sideshows and entertainments being offered the public at the exposition. This is a daily vaudeville show given each afternoon and evening at the main band stand in the Court of Honor.

In the woman's auditorium yesterday was given a long and varied program, the principal feature of which was the presentation by a group of Los Angeles clubwomen of a medal to Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoes, grand-daughter of President Monroe. The medal was commemorative of the Monroe Doctrine Centennial. In reply, Mrs. Hoes made a talk on Americanism.

CROSSING HUMPS ADVISED

Traffic Expert Urges Grade Subways Where Possible, but Believes Bumps Would Lessen Accidents

Subways wherever possible and "humps" at the approaches to every grade crossing in California are the main features of a plan of W. F. Lemon to minimize grade crossing accidents. Mr. Lemon is assistant chief of the service department of the State Railroad Commission. He has occupied that post for nine years and during that time has conducted investigations of approximately 4000 railroad accidents.

"There is only one way to protect the automobilist in the grade-crossing danger," Mr. Lemon stated yesterday. "That is to protect him against himself, and I believe the plan which I offer is not only feasible but is also the best one at present.

SUBWAY PLAN BEST

"The subway, of course, is the best plan. But that is expensive and I doubt that it can be accomplished generally for years. In the meantime the 'hump' system can be installed, and if it is, I warrant that it will cut off at least 75 per cent of the accidents.

"However, the plan, to be effective, must be uniform. It must be used at every grade crossing and there must be signs at a reasonable distance with the warning, 'Railroad Crossing! Look Out for the Humps!' or some sign of similar nature."

Mr. Lemon detailed his plan. Briefly, it is to have "humps" running the full width of the road at the approaches to grade crossings. These "humps" would be placed at about twenty, forty and sixty feet from the crossing. They would be about eighteen inches in width and of sufficient height that if crossed at eight or ten miles an hour, the auto would slip over them with a scarcely perceptible bump, but if passed at a high rate of speed would instantly attract the attention of the driver with a highly uncomfortable bump.

WOULD WAKEN DRIVER

The second bump, Mr. Lemon believes, would cause the driver to materially decrease his speed and the third bring him to a halt. After the plan had been in operation only a short time, he says, people would know it is absolutely necessary to reduce to a very low speed just before the crossing was reached. Having reduced the speed they would, he believes, come to a full stop with a train approaching.

In this Mr. Lemon figures the pyschological effect. It will require no great mental concession for the driver to stop when he has already come down to a speed which is barely moving along. And few, indeed, would be so foolhardy, he says, as to attempt to pick up speed so as to pass an approaching train, with only twenty feet for the "pickup."

sure to become one of the greatest individual mediums of service the motion-picture industry has at its command."

Maurice Tourneur, director of M. C. Levee pictures, echoes the expression of his producer with the following statement:

"Congratulations on the newest and most ambitious undertakings in the publishing field affecting motion pictures. The Times Pre-View renders a distinct service that cannot help but become a national institution, to be recognized and appreciated by not only motion-picture patrons and the trade here, but by the film industry in general throughout the country."

Blanche Sweet, star of "Anna Christie," says: "The city of Los Angeles is talking Times Pre-View. It will not be long before the attention of photoplay fans and motion-picture people throughout the country will be focused upon it."

Helene Chadwick, Goldwyn star, says: "Wednesday will be a big day in the life of every motion-picture person in Los Angeles from now on. The Times Pre-View is the reason. Congratulations."

LOGICAL FIELD

William C. De Mille, now directing the production of "Spring Magic," for Paramount, said:

"There is a logical field in both New York and Los Angeles for journals which should reach the exhibitor. Yet until the advent of the Pre-View, Los Angeles has been without such a publication.

"I have just read the first issue. I think it is an excellent idea, which should prove particularly interesting to the public and most certainly of interest and value to the exhibitors of motion pictures."

Cecil B. De Mille said:

"I want to tell you just how interesting your first issue of the Pre-View was to me and what a really important place I think it fills in the activities of the great industry which is so absorbing to all of us. Always, your personal attitude toward motion pictures has been highly constructive. Believe me, I appreciate this fact and know that my fellow-producers feel likewise.

"I think the Pre-View, under your direction, is destined to be a very powerful force in the Los Angeles film colony. In fact, I feel that it is due to create a good feeling for us wherever it is read, and that its influence will not be confined to Los Angeles."

PICTURES TELL THE NEWS

Richard Dix said:

"Pictures tell the news much more effectively than words, in my opinion, and for this reason the Pre-View is an excellent magazine People on the screen are interested in what is going on at other studios, but they often work so hard that they do not find time to read the news of the studios as it appears in ordinary daily newspapers. Your new magazine, therefore, fills a long-felt want."

Pola Negri volunteered the following:

"When I first saw the Los Angeles Times' Pre-View, I said: 'What wonderful photography!' Then it was explained to me what an important good presswork plays in reproducing this magnificent addition to the Los Angeles Times. I think the journal is to be congratulated upon its initial number, which is well worthy to take the place in the ranks of the foremost American magazines. I found the first issue unusually interesting and informative. I shall look forward to future numbers with the greatest eagerness."

OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE

Sol Lesser, head of the Principal Pictures Corporation, read the first issue of the Preview from cover to cover, and said:

"This publication will at once win for itself a position of national importance, and it should have an influence with producers, exhibitors and the public which cannot be overestimated. The appearance of the magazine combines dignity and beauty, and the text of the reviews and articles shows that it is to be a publication worthy of respect and in no way comparable to the cheaply done periodicals which have given the public everywhere the wrong impression about filmdom and its people."

"The general make-up of the Preview' surpasses any film magazine in the country," said Emmett Flynn, Goldwyn director, last night. "It is interesting and easily read. My congratulations to my friend, Hallett Abend."

"I cannot help but thank The Times for the Preview, when I think what a help it is going to be to the exhibitors and film men the country over," said King Vidor, Goldwyn director, last night. "I must say," the director continued, "it is as well gotten up as any fan magazine I have ever read, and fully as interesting."

GUIDE FOR FANS

Joseph W. Engel, senior vice-president of Metro Pictures Corporation and general manager of Metro studios, who is also president of the Motion Picture Producers' Association, said: "One of the chief reasons for the success of the Preview lies in the fact that it is published in Los Angeles, thus assuring prompt, first-hand and intelligent news and reviews. In a short time it should prove invaluable to motion-picture exhibitors throughout the country as well as a guide for all theatergoers. The only possible criticism of the Preview is that it was not started long ago."

Rex Ingram, the famous director, said: "In the first issues of the Preview I found intelligent criticisms of productions and news of the industry written in a clean, brief, graphic modern newspaper style. If it continues along this line and expands, as I am told it will, reading the Preview will become an unshakable habit."

Norma Talmadge said: "I just got my copy of the Preview. It's a beauty. The motion-picture field is such a large one that many of us, even those who are intensely interested in all phases of the new art, cannot keep abreast with what's what at other studios. Now we won't have to wait months before we can get expert opinion on the plays which are being made all around us here in Hollywood. Good luck to you all!"

Constance Talmadge offers the following: "The Times newsboy brought me a copy of the new Preview Magazine right while I was in the midst of 'The Dangerous Maid' at the United studios. My director, Victor Heerman, Conway Tearle and I sat down on an old-fashioned bucksaw of the period of James II of England and enjoyed the magazine together. It's the brightest, best written and most up-to-the-minute review of the latest productions which has yet come out of Los Angeles. I don't see how we've done without just such a review for so long. Congratulations to you all!"

KEATON IS PLEASED

Buster Keaton wired:

"It was very thoughtful to send the advance copies of the Preview Magazine to me up here at Truckee. Just one hasty glance, before I settled down to an absorbed reading, convinced me that you had hit the bell. I gave one copy to Joe Keaton, my dad; another to my wife, Natalie. We have long needed a pre-view magazine, publisher right here in Los Angeles. And now we've got it, splendidly gotten up and published by a newspaper which always has had the best interests of the motion-picture profession at heart."

Julius Bernheim, general manager of Universal City, said:

"In my opinion The Pre-View is one of the most important newspaper developments I have seen. I like particularly the fact that it is going out after the national circulation."

William Koenig, business manager of Universal City, supplementd this with: "The Pre-View is an excellent addition to the publications of Los Angeles and from the film industry's standpoint it is doubly important. I like the policy of straight news instead of 'crabbing' criticism, which is shown in the first number."

Priscilla Dean, Universal star, said:

"It's great. I like the charactre of the reviews and the way the art is handled."

Virginia Valli, Universal Star, added: "The Pre-View is very artistic and nicely balanced. It has my best wishes from the start."

Herbert Rawlinson, Universal star, said: "It looks like a million and it reads as well. My opinion is that it will take a jump into the top fan magazine class at once—although it's a trade journal, too."

FILLS GREAT NEED

"The Pre-View fills a great need," said B. P. Schulberg, producer of Preferred Pictures. "It will be of inestimable value to theater owners all over the United States for it will give them, well in advance, fair and complete reviews of forthcoming releases, which should be of great aid in making up advance film bookings. To the public no less than to the exhibitors the magazine will be of value and interest, and it should benefit the industry here not alone by arousing curiosity about those productions which it finds worthy of praise, but because it will give the film devotees everywhere an insight into the working methods, problems of plans of the producers.

"The Times deserves the thanks of the motion-picture industry for The Preview. It is marvelously written and supplies Los Angeles with a long-needed medium," said Abraham Lehr, vice-president of the Goldwyn Pictures Corporation, last night.

"The reviews in The Preview were more than reviews, they were masterpieces," said Tod Browning, Goldwyn director, last night. "My sincere thanks to The Times for such a great medium, one that the film industry has long needed."

"I have been reading theatrical reviews for several years and I have never read more intelligntly written ones, than in The Preview," said James Kirkwood, Goldwyn star, last night. "The man editing the magazine certainly knows motion pictures."

Lloyd Hughes, leading man in "The Huntress," expressed the following opinion of The Preview: "This magazinefills a long-felt want from the standpoint of the actor. The manner in which the work of players is featured in your premier number indicates that the player at least, will be given full recognition in a manner never before attempted. You have it within your power to develop new talent by encouraging and giving credit to the exceptional work of players who do not happen to have the star part. The manner in which you have performed this service in your first issue will win you the heartfelt indorsement of every actor and actress in Los Angeles whether they are leading players or extra people. More power to you!"

ern California would soon be augmented by a number of new agents.

Mr. Dolley said he would leave at once, turning over his duties to Daniel J. O'Leary, the oldest agent in point of service in California, who has been named to succeed him as enforcement chief for Southern California.

C. H. Wheeler, who was relieved of the duties of chief of agents for Northern California at his own request, pending the outcome of an investigation of the disappearance of 600 cases of whisky, will be succeeded by W. R. Paget, his assistant.

"The new appointments should not be construed as a criticism of Wheeler in any way," said Director Rutter. "Wheeler has been one of the most conscientious, hard-working and effective agents in the United States, in my opinion.

"Appointment of Dolley as chief of agents for the entire State has been under consideration for a long time before the investigation of Wheeler's work started. The move was held up by the opposition of Los Angeles officials and prominent citizens to removal of Dolley from that city. The United States Attorney's office, the prohibition unit, the press, the Anti-Saloon League, and many citizens were opposed to the transfer of Dolley to San Francisco."

O'Leary and Paget will perform the duties of group executives formerly performed by Dolley and Wheeler, but they will lack the full authority enjoyed by their predecessors. They will be directly responsible to Dolley, who also will have authority to make any changes in the force he considers necessary. "And he is a strict disciplinarian," said Mr. Rutter in explanation.

MUSIC TREAT FOR CHILDREN

the Hall of the Mountain King," from the popular Peer Gynt Suite. But best of all was the American number, "To a Wild Rose," by the great American composer, MacDowell, whose grave on the hillside overlooking Peterboro, N. H., is covered by the roses he loved so well.

The response to this number was the triumph of the program. The children did not applaud, for that is not their way. They sat forward in their seats and at the end gave little sighs of content.

"The best yet," said Doug, Jr., and Mrs. Carter and the director were happy, for both of them had said that their chief hope was to instill in the hearts of these young Americans an appreciation of American music that is not jazz.

Two-thirds of the children present are taking music lessons, as indicated by the number of hands raised when Mrs. Carter asked them: "How many of you love music and love it best in Hollywood Bowl?"

A thousand diligent pencils were busy in the memory test. Six different airs were played by the orchestra and the children were instructed to put down the ones they recognized. "Humoresque" was obviously the best known.

"My favorite," whispered Doug, Jr., when they played Massenet's Elegie.

If I have any musical memory at all, the others were: Traumerie; Beethoven's Andante, fifth movement; Overture 1812, and a familiar Polonaise.

"Let's get up there and show them a little jazz with the traps," said Doug to his chum, Robert Gillette, who sat beside him. Then he added:

"I'm going to take lessons on the saxophone as soon as I can, I'm so fearfully busy just now."

This lad is taller than his famous dad and has to wear long trousers—though he is nearer 13 than 14. Douglas is modest and declined to stand up when introduced.

"Oh, go on," he said to Bob, "what do they care? Mother, you come take my seat. I look like a pig here on the front row." But Mrs. Evans declined her son's urgent invitation.

Immediate guests of the host of the day in his season box were: Mrs. James Evans, Sr., Mrs. James Evans, Jr., young Doug's mother; Flo Belle, Fairbanks, Mary Margaret Fairbanks, cousins of Doug's; Robert Gillette, his chum; Carlton Horkstra, Fritzi Colgans, Margaret De Mille, tiny little Miss Evelyn Elliott and her not-much-bigger brother Duncan, Miss Alice Elliott and William Elliott, manager of young Fairbanks.

Doug, Sr., was there, happy in helping the cripples up the hill, his bright orange and black sweater making him a picturesque figure, but he kept in the background, leaving all the sunlight of publicity to shine on his son.

Transportation of the children was arranged by Auto Bus Owner' Association, fifteen busses: Pacific Electric, room for 1000, and the Victor Girard Company.

Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, superintendent of schools, was chairman of the committee, and Miss Jennie Jones, supervisor of the orchestra department of the public schools together with her assistants, Miss Mary B. Ludlow, Miss Alma Stickel, Miss Lorna Reavis and Miss Grace M. Dering, were active in making the event a success.

"It is a success beyond my fondest anticipation," said Miss Jones, who has conducted orchestras of children in many cities in the United States. "I never saw anything to equal it."

DEATH PLAN OF LUNATIC UNCOVERED

Woman, Escaped From Patton, Tells of Scheme to Slay Judge Clark

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

VENTURA, July 18.—An attempt on the life of Attorney Robert Clarke, former judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court, and on Dist.-Atty. Henderson of Ventura by Mrs. Zella Meyers, an escaped inmate of the State Asylum at Patton, was checked today by the vigilance of Sheriff Clark of Ventura.

Twelve years ago Mrs. Meyers was sent to the asylum from Ventura, by the action of Attorney Clarke ,then on the bench. Recently she escaped and has been at large for several days past.

Two days ago, she asked Dist.-Atty. Henderson to help her in damage proceedings against the county. This morning Mr. Henderson was sitting alone in the Sheriff's office. The Sheriff came along the hall of the Courthouse and saw Mrs. Meyers standing beside the door, cautiously reaching into a handbag she held. She saw him and hastily went downstairs.

He became suspicious and followed her into the Pioneer Museum on the first floor. After a struggle, he took the bag from her and found inside a revolver, fully loaded.

Mrs. Meyers then confessed that she had bought the pistol, intending to shoot and kill Mr. Henderson, and then proceed to Los Angeles to kill Attorney Clarke, whom she blamed for her incarceration.

GIRL BATTLES RETURN HOME

issued a warrant had been sworn out accusing Miss Bray of being a runaway girl. Judge Crail dismissed the writ and remanded the case to Juvenile Court.

Mrs. Ruth Violet Southern, motion-picture actress and school friend of Miss Bray, said the young advocate of self-determination was making a start in the pictures and seemed able to take care of herself. The girl came to Mrs. Southern's home from Deadwood a couple of weeks ago, and was traced there through her baggage checks when the Brays got the Women's Protective Association of Tacoma to wire Sheriff Traeger to arrest and hold her.

"Mr. and Mrs. Bray told me I was born in San Francisco, but never definitely said I was their child and I don't believe I am," the girl told the court. "We all lived in Deadwood until recently, when the Brays moved to Tacoma, leaving me there. I was supporting myself. Then they wired me to come on and join them, but didn't send any money. I wrote Mrs. Southern asking if I could come to her home and she said I could, so I came. I have earned my own way the past three years and besides helped pay installments on a piano that the Brays now have. I don't want to go back to them, and I won't."

A telegram from the Brays, saying they were unable to come to Los Angeles, but asking that the girl be placed in charge of a probation officer and held as a runaway, was read in court.

POLICE HALT BANDIT PLOT

capture of Minkler a few minutes later at Sixth and Main streets.

Minkler's part in the program, police say, was to enter a store a few doors from the hat store and put in the telephone call for Siegel, then keeping him in conversation long enough to permit the boy to tap the cash register and make his escape.

The scheme was worked Tuesday in the hardware store of E. S. Hess at 856 South Figueroa street, when $55 was taken. This was the other theft that had been reported to the police, who are investigating five other cases they say the prisoners told about.

The name of the third man, who carried the message into Siegel's store, is said to be known to the police, and his capture is expected.

and the District Attorney's office were informed that charges might be expected from that quarter."

In support of his contention that Leon was trying to befog the issue, the police officers pointed out that Leon pleaded guilty to one charge in order that others of a similar nature on the calendar against him might be dropped.

CHEFS DE CUISINE MEET AT BANQUET

MEETING OF CULINARY STARS NOTABLE EVENT AT WINTER GARDEN

The Chefs de Cuisine Association of California had its first annual get-together banquet at the Winter Garden last night. E. B. Liedhart, chef at the Ambassador Hotel, is president of the local organization, and, together with Otto J. Hoag, catering manager of the Winter Garden Corporation, is largely responsible for its creation.

In the future, social gatherings are to be held the first Monday of each month at the association's headquarters at the Alexandria.

It is hoped through the organization to provide closer co-operation among chefs, hotel proprietors, caterers and business men of allied interests. The local group expects later to affiliate itself with the Chefs de Cuisine Association of America and Canada.

The chefs were entertained by the Winter Garden Revue, with Bert Fiske's Orchestra providing the music for the dance which followed. About sixty members of the association were present.

BARITONE AT NOON

William F. Grode, baritone, was the noon-hour singer, his rich, resonant tones being heard to advantage in "A Dream," by Bartlett, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Tate, and "The Homeland," by Johnson. Carrie Preston Rittmeister accompanied him.

Esther Hancock, a skillful violinist, gave fine tonal quality and feeling to "Gypsy Serenade," by Valdez, and "From the Canebrake," by Gardner. Mrs. Rittmeister played her accompaniments.

"Uncle Remus," E. M. Bonnell, sauntered into the studio with the smallest harmonica in the world, taking his word for it. It is a trifle more than an inch long and just one-half inch wide. But he played on it.

Catherine Kiersey, guitarist, and Marguerite Kiersey, mandolinist, two charming and accomplished KHJ entertainers presented the evening program for the young folk of Radioland. They executed duet and solo numbers with pleasing melody.

Liquor Seized on Ships Forfeited Under Duty Act

Liquor seized by customs agents on vessels and placed in the custody of the prohibition forces will be forfeited under the Tariff Act of 1922, Collector of Internal Revenue Goodcell was notified yesterday by Commissioner Blair.

When proceedings are brought the liquor seized under the customs laws will be placed and remain in the custody of the Collector of Customs to await disposition according to law.

It is contemplated that the customs officials who seize liquor shall have the full determination as to the custody of the liquor unless an action asserting violation of the Volstead Act has been instituted by the prohibition agents. In the latter case the liquor shall be held by the prohibition department until the proceedings have been terminated.

Wife's Suit Says Mate's Weight Was Too Much For Her

In her bouts with her husband she needed a handicap, Mrs. Darrell Lindsey told Judge Summerfield in alimony proceedings. At catchweights, William Roy Lindsey tipped the scales at 160 and she at only 113, she said, so she always got the worst of it. Judge Summerfield awarded her $15 a week temporary alimony and $50 counsel fee and gave her custody of her child.

In her complaint for divorce Mrs. Lindsey asserts her husband was chastising the family dog when she interfered. "If I can't beat the dog I'll beat you," she says he said, and did.

San Fernando Stage Line to Incorporate

The Original Stage Line, operating between Los Angeles and San Fernando, has filed application for incorporation before the State Railway Commission. Examiner W. C. Fankhauser conducted a hearing on the application yesterday.

This stage line is one of the oldest in the State and had the same humble beginning that all of the earliest lines had. If the application is granted the company will be incorporated for a period of fifty years and with $150,000 capital stock.

Application for incorporation was filed by W. C. Dunlap, present owner of the line. In the incorporation he is to transfer half of the business to R. F. Fitz. These two and Clyde R. Moody are to form the board of directors.

Seven years ago Mr. Dunlap adopted the name Original Stage Line for the line he had been operating between Los Angeles and San Fernando. At that time he had two touring cars.

In the application for incorporation the assets of the concern are given as $84,710.23 and the net worth $54,710.23. From two touring cars the line has grown to twelve large busses, three of fourteen-passenger capacity, two of nineteen capacity, four of twenty-two capacity and three which will carry twenty-five passengers. The line transports freight as well as passengers

EX-DEPUTY SENTENCED

Former Sheriff's Office Employee Goes to Road Gang for Theft

Richard Jones, former Deputy Sheriff, yesterday before Judge Cole in Superior Court pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny and was sentenced by the judge to six months at the county road camp. Jones was accused with two others of the grand larceny of some valuable clothing from Mrs. Elizabeth Hanlon of Belvedere. The things were stolen when the three officers searched the house, presumably for liquor. After the consent of Dep.-Dist. Atty. Van Cott to the reduced charge, Judge Cole lectured Jones severely upon the duties and obligations of an officer.

ATTACK ON ZONING OF WILSHIRE

Petition Asks Opening to Business of Part of Great Projected Boulevard

The courts may be asked to decide the city's right to determine the zoning classifications

A. J. Hill, formerly County Counsel, appeared before the City Council yesterday as representative of certain Wilshire Boulevard property owners who are seeking to have the block on Wilshire just west of La Brea avenue placed in Zone C, where business establishments are permitted. It is now in Zone B, where apartment houses are permitted.

The City Planning Commission has refused the request. Since the property is not developed, the legal question involved is whether the city has a right arbitrarily to determine the zone of virgin territory.

The property owners through Mr. Hill have appealed to the Council over the head of the planning commission. The Council referred the matter to the Welfare Committee, and Councilman Criswell suggested that the property owners test the question in the courts.

"If this can be done we may as well throw the whole zoning system into the discard," Mr Criswell said.

Councilman Mushet took the stand that it would be unwise to bring the matter into the courts if it could be settled otherwise; that the courts should be the last resort. The property owners, however, may ask for a judicial decision.

The matter was referred to the Public Welfare Committee and is expected to come up again at a meeting of the Council this morning. The proposal to open an important part of Wilshire Boulevard to business houses is regarded by the Community Development Association as gravely imperiling the great project fathered by the association to widen the boulevard and make it one of the finest residence streets in the world. The Association will send representatives to the meeting this morning to protest against the petition.

QUARTET OF THEFT SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Four Mexicans, Paul Herera, Jesus Hunez, Ascencion Ramirez and Geremimo Manriquez, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Sepulveda and Johnson on a charge of robbery. The four suspects are accused of holding up and robbing Lochlin Dernier and Deane Kirtland on a road near San Gabriel last Sunday.

WHISTLING

The national chairman of the Democratic party says that the election of Magnus Johnson in Minnesota is a protest against Republican domination. But, as the Democratic candidate received less than 5 per cent of the total vote, it is hard to figure out where any comfort or consolation comes to the Democracy.

THE DOG STAR

Gov. Baxter of Maine has received more cheers than criticism for his action in placing the flag on the Statehouse at half-mast on the occasion of the death of his pet Irish setter. If it had been an English bloodhound or a dachshund it might have been different, but an Irish setter commands a heap of consideration in the North Atlantic region.

THE WRONG TRACK

A missionary who has just returned from thirty-two years of consecutive service in Zanzibar now declares that it is the cities of the civilized world that have gone pagan. There is nothing in Africa as bad as London and the missionary wants to go back to his Zanzibarbarians and be fumigated. Darkest Africa may yet be sending missionaries to shine up New York.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

Now we seem to be swapping petroleum for linseed oil. The other day a cargo of 4000 barrels of linseed oil all the way from Hull, Eng., was unloaded at San Pedro and the customs duties were over $50,000. This was said to be the biggest tariff item ever garnered from a single shipment at this port. With oil coming in and oil going out it is no wonder that we are well greased.

VOICE OF A CRITIC

Bertrand Russell says that America is seeking to inflict her narrow and selfish conception of culture upon the world and at the same time is taking most of the joy out of life. He talks like a man who had a grievance against the Eighteenth Amendment. So far as known we are not trying to make the world over into a Washington model. We are not trying to run the universe. If we were we would be more persistent in collecting our debts.

FAIL TO QUALIFY

As near as can be guessed the Cabinet and entire government in the Philippines threw down their tools and quit work because Gen. Leonard Wood gave a hearing to a government detective who had been suspended and disciplined by the Manila machine. Whenever the Filipinos are lustiest in their demands for complete independence they do something to demonstrate their incapacity. They take their politics as children do their marbles and kites.

SEEING THE SHOW

This is playtime. The dwellers in the Los Angeles district contribute one-twentieth of the amusement taxes of the country. We are paying as much as if our population was 6,000,000 instead of 1,000,000. In practically all other sections of the country the government revenues from theater admissions have shown a decided shrinkage during the last few months. But here there has been a steady increase until it would seem that $1 out of every twenty taken in at the box office is garnered in the Angel belt.

IMPORTED SWISS CHEESE

Grover Bergdoll is now in Switzerland, where the cheese comes from, but his mother is anxious to have him return to America. If he comes back to America the American Legion will be glad to welcome him at the wharf. The members will turn out with their branding irons and other paraphernalia of remembrance. It is said that if Bergdoll returns and serves his sentence more than $1,000,000 worth of property will be saved to the family. Otherwise it may be used in the payment of claims against Germany. How much will a Bergdoll stand for $1,000,000?

THE NATION'S SONGS

The Fourth of July, 1926, will not only be the 150th birthday of our respected country, but will be the centennial anniversary of the birth of Stephen Collins Foster, the nation's favorite bird of song. It would be a fine thing if on that day Los Angeles could unveil a monument or bust of the loved composer. Such a creation might well grace the new Wilshire Boulevard on its impressive progress to the sea. Stephen Foster lived in the days before jazz. Else he might have written something about the snake's hips, hot lips or of not having many bananas. As it was, he was content to give us "Old Folks at Home," "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Gentle Annie," "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground," "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming" and a hundred other more or less sentimental ballads. Yet Stephen Foster has done more than any other man before or since his time to set America to music. They may have forgotten him in Tin Pan Alley, but he is safe in the hearts and homes of the average millions of the nation.

WILSHIRE PROJECT IMPERILED

Something more than a year ago a group of men, active in civic affairs and endowed with the ability to envision the future, and the future needs of the city, laid plans for the development of Wilshire Boulevard into a thoroughfare which, for beauty and utility, would be one of the finest in the world. The plan, one of great magnitude, and of far-reaching significance, called for the widening of Wilshire Boulevard to an average of 200 feet, and for its beautification with fountains and monuments designed by the best artists obtainable.

Since the inception of the project, work has proceeded quietly and steadily toward the common goal set by the Community Development Association. But selfish interests, or interests indifferent to the larger aspects of the undertaking, have several times endangered the success of the plan. When the City Council attempted, early this year, to establish a fifteen-foot setback on Wilshire Boulevard, between Park View and Vermont, so as to provide for widening the boulevard, a fight promptly developed. On another occasion an attempt was made to force a change in the zoning restrictions, so as to permit the erection of business buildings on Wilshire Boulevard, but the City Council promptly took action against such change.

Another attempt to put Wilshire Boulevard, which offers unparalleled opportunities for development, into the category of the commercial, is now being made, and a petition is now before the City Council asking that a considerable section of the boulevard, west of La Brea avenue, be rezoned for business.

When the City Planning Commission originally zoned Wilshire Boulevard it had in mind the fact that the boulevard could be made one of the most beautiful residential thoroughfares in the world, through the erection of the fine apartment-houses, for which the boulevard is admirably adapted, and there has been no change in circumstances which would warrant a reversal, or even a modification, of that opinion.

The latest attempt to bring about a change in the zoning of Wilshire Boulevard constitutes not only a blow at the plans of the Community Development Association—plans which certainly could not be properly carried through if the requested change is made—but it attempts to throw into the discard the ideals of the City Planning Commission, and to reject the very principles upon which city planning is founded

There is no alternative for the City Council. As in the previous instance, and in fair consideration of public welfare, it should promptly and unequivocally reject the petition, in order that the plan for a greater and a more beautiful Wilshire Boulevard can proceed unhampered. The principle of city planning and zoning has been repeatedly upheld in the courts, and the bluff of threatened court procedure made by the self-seeking interests which propose to commercialize the boulevard, is unworthy of serious consideration.

HARD COAL—AND HARD FACTS

It is difficult for residents of Southern California to appreciate the interest displayed by the press and the public in the recent report of the Federal commission on the condition of the hard-coal industry. A lump of anthracite is regarded here as a curiosity, not as a necessity. It is used as a fuel neither in our homes nor in our industries. But east of the Mississippi it plays no mean part in the life of the people; and it is for this reason that there is vast interest in the suggestion that the hard-coal industry should be declared a public utility.

Declaring the product of any industry a public utility is to place it under the supervision of the municipal, State and Federal authorities. It takes from the producer the right to fix the selling price of the article which he produces or the wages of those who are employed.

Public utilities come under governmental control. They are the care and the sport of commissions. The regulation may be of doubtful benefit at times to the producer and consumer; but it is at all times highly beneficial to the politicians, for it is an unfortunate truth that government control means political control.

Yet experience has demonstrated the wisdom of governmental regulation of public necessities. In this way alone can the public be protected, alike from the owners who are often greedy for profits and from the employees who form themselves into unions and are incessantly clamoring for increases in wages.

Private industry is operated for profit. If it is an industry that lends itself to monopoly the profits may become excessive and the public may suffer. Labor unions are operated mainly for the purpose of increasing the wages of the employees. The menace to the public lies in the fact that wages are at times raised to a point where the selling price of the article produced becomes excessive; for there is no escaping the economic truth that the wages of the worker must be paid by the article that he produces.

Whenever there is an increase in the pay of those engaged in the hard-coal industry there must be a corresponding increase in the selling price of coal. This increases the fuel cost of the industries that use anthracite and it is added to the selling price of their manufactured products. We pay our share of the increase, along with other parts of the country. But the burden falls heaviest on the workers of the East, who are compelled to use coal in winter to heat their homes. Whenever there is an increase in the price of coal there is increased misery in winter among the poor.

As the Federal commission points out, there is still another factor to be considered in the price of coal. The freight charges for transportation comprise one-fourth the cost to the consumer of the coal. The increases in freight rates that took place under government operation, and have been only partly reduced, increase the cost of coal.

So there are two complaints about the hard-coal industry—nay, there are three. The consumers protest that the cost is excessive, that it increases the cost of living and works a hardship on the poor. The miners protest that they are not receiving a living wage; and the owners and operators protest that their margin of profit is so narrow that it does not pay as much as 5 per cent interest on the capital invested.

One thing is apparent: The wages of the miners cannot go up and the selling price of coal go down. Yet that is just what the agitators are insisting upon. The very ones who are clamoring for higher wages for the workers are raising an equal clamor for lower prices for coal.

It is not probable that any considerable saving could be effected by government supervision; for commission control does not mean lower operating costs. On the other hand, experience proves that the operating costs are very likely to increase.

The chief argument for the creation of the Interstate Commerce Commission was that Federal regulation would lead to a decrease in freight rates. Yet the freight rates are considerably higher than they were when competition and a consideration of what the traffic would bear were the determining factors.

This is equally true of other public utilities. And when any government has taken over a utility and attempted to operate it the cost to the public has increased and the service has not been bettered. Recognizing this fact, the Federal commission advises against any attempt at government ownership and operation. But it recommends in favor of government regulation. It points out that the anthracite fields are now one-fourth exhausted; and that, as the fields lessen, the cost of the fuel is likely to increase.

There are warnings alike for the operators and the miners; for it is intimated that there has been at times what looked very much like collusion between them to increase alike wages and profits, and that the public was the sufferer.

As one reads that report one wonders what is going to happen to eastern industry when the hard-coal fields are exhausted. And the rate of present increasing production sets that date in the not remote future. It will be the problem of the next generation; and is very likely to lead to a vast shifting of population westward.

Fortunate are we of Southern California that there is a supply of white fuel sufficient for all our industries.

A CURE FOR CRIME

Dr. Von KleinSmid, in an address to the Southern Branch of the State University on the subject of "Crime," has advocated birth regulation for stamping out the criminal element. It is those who never should have been born, the doctor contends, that so largely recruit the ranks of the lawless and dangerous. He believes that at least 50 per cent of the inmates of our penal institutions are mentally and morally defective and "the sin of their birth is at the door of the United States, a sin for which the citizens of America in general will have to answer."

Before the nation adopted so drastic a remedy for crime more certified data and more scientifically accurate evidence would be necessary. Birth regulation is a radical measure. If it were certain that the crime in the world could be cut in two by its adoption the end in this case would justify the means. Because any weapon that would cut crime 50 per cent in every generation would, in the course of 100 years or so, furnish us with a practically clean world.

But, although we know that in many cases the sins of the fathers and mothers are visited on the children, how much of the crime of the race is attributable to heredity and how much to environment, example, wrong feeding, unnaturally acquired habits, pernicious teaching and other causes are still subjects on which the learned disagree.

So, while birth regulation would unquestionably help to raise public morals, no one can affirm with authority that it would diminish the other causes of crime that may tarnish those who are born with the finest hereditary record.

A great many specialists will affirm that the drug habit and alcoholism have done more to vitiate humanity than any other single agent and that those who are by birth blest with clean minds and bodies often fall victim to the drug peddler and the rum thirst. Perhaps, then, we had better cure the nation of drug addiction before we start to regulate birth.

Again the preaching of anarchist doctrines brings perverts into the ranks of the dangerously criminal. Bolshevism is an acquired habit, not an inherited disease. So, perhaps, it will be time enough to call in birth regulation after we have stamped out Red propaganda.

Unclean tenement districts and overcrowded slums will produce warped minds and impure bodies on so extensive a scale that it would be cheaper and more expedient to rebuild the tenements on hygienic lines and decentralize the slums than to practically wipe out the slum-dwellers—which birth regulation would amount to.

Too much meat or too little bread, according to other authorities, may swell the number of the undesirables. Let us, then, settle these economic matters first before adopting more drastic measures.

There are many other causes for crime that require the vigilant attention of the public and the police. When these have all been attended as thoroughly as their particular physicians declare they should be we may find, after all, it won't be necessary to resort to birth regulation.

But—who shall decide when doctors disagree?

TWO MINUTES OF OPTIMISM

BY HERMAN J. STICH

Rich Men and Wise

A Boston newspaper recently published the names of the twenty wealthiest men in Massachusetts. Their fortunes, conservatively estimated, ranged from $45,000,000 to $15,000,000. Not one of them was a scion of a moneyed family. Only two of the twenty had had any money at all to begin life with. The other eighteen started out on their nerve.

One of the wealthiest started as an office boy in a bank. His first dollar saved he deposited with his employers and he kept adding to it until he had enough to buy a share of conservative stock. Mastering details, he worked slowly till he knew the banking business thoroughly and then he switched to a leading brokerage house. In the course of time the new concern took him in as a partner. The rest of the story needs no recounting.

Another on the list, in boyhood, had an idea that the city he lived in must grow. It couldn't shoot up; it was bound to spread. For three years he studied maps, consulted engineers and studied real estate values. Then, feeling sure of himself, he borrowed a few thousand dollars, bought a large tract in the suburbs and developed it. So his millions were made.

A third, a brewer, saw prohibition coming. He left the business and dumped his money into restaurants. "When people can't stand around and drink they'll eat more," he figured. He was right. The chain lunchroom system he now controls is one of the largest in the world.

When sugar sold twenty-four pounds for $1 a fourth reasoned that it would not always be so cheap. He made his way to Cuba, worked on plantations, studied conditions there and slowly, but surely, secured influence and affluence. High prices today, he claims, are not of his making; he insists meager profits in great volume are accountable for his fortune.

The other sixteen millionaires tell similar stories. They saw openings where others were blind. They looked a few years ahead, carefully planned their life's work and carried it out.

Some rich men are lucky; most of them are wise—that's why and how they acquired wealth.

THE BELGIAN CONTROVE

BY JAMES MAIN DIXON

At this critical time in world relations, when Belgium is co-operating with France in the Ruhr occupation, and it is doubtful whether the French policy be wise, it might be supposed that the resignation of the Belgian Cabinet was due to a division of national opinion on this international question. For M. Theunis, the Premier, has handed in his resignation to the King and has been asked to construct another Cabinet.

And yet the trouble has nothing to do with anything across the Belgian border; it is all over the language that is to be used for instruction in one of the state universities. There are two of these, one at Liege, the other at Ghent—Gand, if we give it the French spelling; the other two universities of Brussels and Louvain are private institutions.

What unites Belgium is neither race nor language, but religion and national tradition. More than half the people are of the same blood as the neighboring Dutch and speak a language known as Flemish, which is practically the same as the language of Holland. At one time, 100 years ago, when Belgium and Holland were united for a time in the kingdom of the United Netherlands, King William established a university at Ghent where the instruction was in Dutch. But when the Catholic Belgian broke away, in the year 1830, from their unsympathetic neighbors to the north and chose a king of their own the instruction reverted to French, the language of culture and the upper classes.

It must be remembered that there is no Belgic language. The name is taken from the ancient Celtic tribe which, in the time of Julius Caesar, was dominant in these regions. The national terms "Belgium" and "Belgian" are therefore Walloon in their associations and origin. Netherlands is a Germanic name, given by the people who invaded these plains at the time of the break-up of the Roman Empire.

These lowlands or Netherlands, whose people spoke for the most part Platt-Deutsch or Low German, were in the Middle Ages a prosperous part of the great dukedom of Burgundy. Philip the Second of Spain fell heir to them and at the Reformation sought to stamp out Protestantism there with a cruel hand. The northern half, after a bitter struggle, asserted its independence of Spain and became a powerful Protestant kingdom under the Orange family, which still rules there and which gave to England a sovereign in William of Orange. But the southern half remained Catholic and was attached first to Spain and then to Austria.

TEMPERATURE

BY CARL CLAUSEN

At this time of the year, when the mercury is climbing up, every man's fancy turns to beach and mountaintop, and not a few of us would like to take a flying visit to the North Pole, if we could get back in time for lunch; and this brings to my mind the question of temperatures.

To most people the Far North, that portion of our earth which lies within the Arctic circle, is a desolate stretch of ice-covered rocks or tundra, with the mercury at or below the freezing point all of the time. Fiction writers are largely responsible for this idea. They speak glibly of the "desolate, barren stretches" and of "the eternal polar silence." The vegetation, they tell us, is "stunted" and "clinging," or a few scattered mosses or lichens. In refutation of this Sir Clements Markham points out that he knows of the existence of 762 species of Arctic flowering plants and only 332 species of mosses, 250 of lichens and twenty-eight of ferns. The plants include the following, familiar to every one of us, poppy, bluegrass, chickweed, heather, bluebell, arnica, cat's paw, cress, timothy and edible mushrooms.

The Arctic grass plains have caribou in herds of tens of thousands and sometimes hundreds of thousands in a single band, with lesser numbers of musk oxen, wolves, polar foxes, unbelievable swarms of lemming and hundreds of thousands of owls, hawks, swans, gulls, loons and cranes.

So much for the "desolate barren stretches."

"The eternal polar silence" is another favorite pipe dream of the fiction writer. If a barnyard full of lusty fowls is silent, then the Arctic North is. There is a squawking of ducks, cackling of geese and the screaming of loons on every headland. The call of plover, snipe and sandpiper and the ever-present buzz of mosquitoes. Stefansson tells us that the scream of the loon is somewhere between the shriek of a demented woman and the yowling of cats on a back fence.

Seventh and Broadway, with the klaxons of every auto for two blocks screeching, would be about what "the eternal polar silence" amounts to.

Then there is the temperature. Contrary to belief, the North Pole is not the "cold pole" of the northern hemisphere. The coldest spot north of the equator is on the continent of Asia north of Irkutsk, Siberia, where the temperature is said to fall occasionally to 90 degrees below. On the other hand, on Great Bear Lake, seventy-five miles north of the Arctic Circle, the mercury rises for many weeks during the summer to 90 degrees in the shade and does not fall at night, as the sun never sets at that time of the year, so there is no respite through the cooling darkness, which is the delight of our own Southern California climate.

On Herschel Island, 200 miles within the Arctic Circle, the lowest winter temperature recorded is 54 degrees, while at Havre, Mont., the United States Weather Bureau gives the minimum figure for winter cold—68 degrees below. At Fort Yukon, Alaska, the maximum

SEES SAFETY AS GREATEST NEED

Medical Adviser Calls for Co-operation

Death Toll is Huge From Carelessness

Dr. Wells at City Club Pleads for Physical Fitness

The great need in America today is co-operation in solving all the problems of the body politic, municipal, State and national; and one must get away from the national habit of letting the other fellow do it, according to Dr. Franklin C. Wells, medical director of the Equitable Life Insurance Company, who is now making a tour of the United States in the interest of safety under the auspices of the National Safety Council, the American Chamber of Commerce and the Association of National Railways, in his talk yesterday noon to the members of the Los Angeles City Club.

This is true of all American problems and is particularly true of safety, which has become one of the big problems of the nation, in his opinion. He preluded his talk with illustrations and stories of the need of vision in seeking such solutions.

"What we need," said he, "is for everyong to think and work. Seeking the line of least resistance, which has become almost a national habit can mean only retrogression. Al must join in the solving of these problems and must be made to realize that equal responsibility rests on every citizen. Clear thinking, hard work and strong personal interest on the part of each citizen will accomplish much."

NEVER SAFE

In speaking of "Safety" Dr. Wells remarked that no one is ever safe. In walking along the street, in every movement of one's work, and even while sleeping one is in the midst of danger, and the problem to be solved is to render the danger as small as possible.

Modern means of transportation have brought up new safety problems. Two hundred and twenty-five people met accidental deaths every day in the United States last year, and one-fourth of these were children under 10 years of age. There were 340 accidental deaths in Los Angeles alone during the year 1922, and 500,000 workers lost an average of more than four months' time off work during the year on account of accidents, an economic waste running into millions of dollars to say nothing of the suffering, said the speaker.

The railroads, he contined, have for a number of years been conducting safety campaigns among their employees with excellent results and lessening accidents in spite of the fact that the number of employees has greatly increased; but what they now need is the co-operation and education of the general public along safety lines.

GRADE CROSSINGS

One of the greatest causes of accidents in the country now is grade crossings, 1810 persons having been killed and nearly 6000 injured in accidents at grade crossings during the year 1922. Dr. Wells advocated doing away with grade crossings, but stated that inasmuch as this appears to be impossible for some time, other means must be adopted until ti can be brought about.

There are more than 250,000 grade crossings in the United States, and to put automobile traffic either over or under them will cost $2,500,000,000, which is prohibitive fo rthe railroads to bear alone; and so must be borne in part by the city, county and State governments in conjunction with the railroads, he declared.

Personal carelessness is an important factor in automobile accidents, according to the speaker, who advocated a rigid examination into the physical and mental fitness of people who desire to drive automobiles.

To emphasize this point, the speaker cited instances of people dying of heart disease while driving, of people totally deaf and dumb who jeopardize their own and the public's lives by driving and of children operating cars who have no conception of the responsibility they are undertaking.

"Make rigid traffic laws, and imprison all violators," said the doctor, "and reckless driving will become less common."

Physical fitness of the individual is as important to the body politic as any other consideration in the safety of the nation. Dr. Wells estimated that not more than 18,000,000 out of the population of 105,000,000 are really physically perfect; and stated that old age is getting the average business man of 40, 25 per cent faster today than it did a few years ago.

EXAMINE DRIVERS

No motorist would think today of running his automobile month after month without having a mochanic look it over once in a while to see that all the machinery is in good working order. The human machine is just as important as the automobile, he said, and advocated every one having the family doctor look him over for defects and weak points at least once each year

Seventy-five per cent of the school children of the nation have small physical defects, which if found in time can be corrected, but which neglected become chronic, according to the doctor, who urged prevention as the better part of cure.

The things outlined, he said, were some of the things to be remedied, and gave the davice of Socrates to the Grecian youths, that the way to reach Mt. Olympus was walking steadily toward it each day, as the way to cure some of the national evils.

Lou R. Palmer of the National Safety Council, preceded Dr. Wells. David R. Faries, counsel for the Automobile Club of Southern California, in introducing the speaker said that whereas safety had formerly been a problem of the individual it has now become a problem of the people, and so should be seriously considered by all.

DISPUTE ON REFUSE ENDS

County Health Officer Will Drop Suit When Pasadena Completes Sludge Plant in November

The prolonged dispute between the county health officials and the city of Pasadena over the methods employed by that city in disposing of its refuse was temporarily settled yesterday through an agreement based on a plan outlined by Director Gillespie of the State Bureau of Sanitary Engineering. The agreement was approved by Judge Hewitt of the Superior Court.

It provides for the immediate construction of an activated sludge plant to handle the refuse, for which a bond issue of $400,000 has been voted by Pasadena, and the adoption of measures to abate the nuisance created by the sewage until the plant is completed.

The case reached the courts some time ago when Dr. John L. Pomeroy, county health officer, filed a complaint against the city of Pasadena, demanding that it be enjoined from maintaining its "sewer farm" on the ground that it constituted a menace to the health of not only the residents in Pasadena but those in adjacent communities.

Dr. Pomeroy contended that the sewage overflowed from the "farm" to the streets, creating an extremely unhealthful condition.

At a conference yesterday, however, Dr. Pomeroy agreed not to press the case if the city would hurry with the construction of the new plant. City Attorney Howard of Pasadena and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Beckett were also present at the conference.

It was agreed at the conference that while the new plant was under construction the city would take every precaution to abate the nuisance. As a part of this plan, it was decided that the sewage from Pasadena should no longer be run off to the San Pasqual wash, from which it often overflows, and that temporary ponds should be erected to hold the excess flow.

JURY FREES DEFENDANT

A jury of ten women and two men in Police Judge Frederickson's court yesterday found D. C. Lambert not guilty of disturbing the peace and set him free. Lambert was arrested June 23, last, by Officer Hoy after a struggle which took place at Second and Hill streets. Miss Margarte Mulcahy complained to the police that Lambert had annoyed her and Officer Hoy, investigating, asserted he saw Lambert speak to the young woman, who went back past where the man was standing while the officer watched. Lambert denied the charge.

In My Garden

By Jesse A. Currey

Have you ever grown Spanish cardoon in your garden? If you have failed to try this vegetable you have missed something that is really quite satisfactory and a valuable addition to the table. In appearance the plant resembles greatly a French artichoke, but bears no fruit. Its stalks and roots are used. After blanching you will find that the inner stalks are tender and crispy. It is very useful and gives a fine flavor when used like celery in soups, salads and stews, although many persons use them together with the main root by boiling and serving with a sauce. To successfully grow cardoon requires plenty of moisture in the dry weather. When nearly full grown the stalks should be tied up and wrapped with straw and earthed up, being given the same treatment as celery.

VALUABLE NEW FILM IS REPORTED STOLEN

FRED NIBLO OFFERS REWARD; THINKS BOYS MAY HAVE CARRIED IT OFF

Either boy bandits of unusual daring, or accomplished porch-climbers of more maturity, late yesterday stole one reel of film from Fred Niblo. The film is useless to the thieves, but priceless to the director.

The film was the first reel of "Strangers of the Night," a Niblo-Mayer-Metro production which has just been completed. It was to have been shown tonight at the Writers' Club and can be replaced only after weeks of work.

Doran Cox, chief of staff for Fred Niblo, saw three small boys climbing over the roof of the projection room at 5360 Melrose avenue and shouted at them. They slipped through a fence which, by reason of Mr. Cox's girth, was quite impossible for him.

Whether or not they had the film is occupying the attention of Detective Lieutenant Haak of the Hollywood police. Niblo is so anxious to get the film back, that he will pay a reward and ask no questions.

"YOUR SERVICES ARE NO LONGER REQU

That "knowledge is power" has been proved by at least one woman, who has recently become assistant buyer in the china department of a large department store.

After three years of mediocre service and limited sales of china and glass, this young lady was called to the employment office. She was curtly informed that her services were no longer required.

Tears came—it was a humiliating ordeal. The employment manager told her she had shown no improvement since the first months she had been at work.

"You knew nothing of your stock—you lack the most essential factor in salesmanship—knowledge of your merchandise. Unfortunately for us you seem disinclined to learn. Hiring and breaking in new employees is a heavy item of expense for any organization."

"But I do know my stock," she protested earnestly. "I can shut my eyes and put my hand on every piece of china in that whole department."

"Can you tell me any process in the manufacture of any brand of china that would make it superior to another—worth a higher price?"

Self-convicted and silent, the girl took her pay envelope and walked away with down-bent head. Bitterly she resented being dismissed for so trivial a reason and she was thoroughly angry that anyone should have expected her to know more of her merchandise that its location and price.

The next day this young counter-server sought and found work in another department store. Business was brisk at that season of the year and three years' continuous employment in one shop promised experience at least.

"When the student is ready the teacher appears," say the people of India. It is a very profound truth.

On her way home that night she got into conversation with a young girl about her own age, who was studying salesmanship in an evening high school. The stranger was very enthusiastic about her work and somehow awakened a response in the girl's mind.

The employment manager's accusation still rankled. What right had he to expect her to work and study the ways of manufacturing china all at the same time? Being discharged because of ignorance is not easily forgiven; her cheeks still burned with the shame of it.

She didn't like school, of course, yet this strange girl talked as though she were having a good time. It might be worth a trial anyway, she thought. If she could have this teacher tell her something about china perhaps she could sell more of it. To read books and study, however, gave her "the creeps." Not for her, Oh, no!

Seated in that classroom this indifferent girl saw a new world open. To her great amazement she discovered not only an unflagging interest in the lectures, but a delight in reading books on ceramics which the teacher, in a personal chat, suggested as a foundation.

In the department her sales began to mount. She soon saw the unwisdom of attempting to impart her knowledge, but she learned to speak as one with authority and her own conviction carried weight. Customers sought her advice when they were shopping. When they were ready to buy her courtesy was remembered and they brought in friends who were equipping or refurnishing their tables.

Trade journals opened up new fields and in the household magazines she frequently found material that added to her store of knowledge.

After a while the head of the stock room returned to her home in the East and the girl was offered the vacancy, notwithstanding the fact that she was younger in service and years than other saleswomen.

A year and a half slipped by and just a little while ago she dropped in to see her former teacher.

Eyes a-sparkle, every cell in her body vibrating with the joy of victory, she was not the girl who had entered that classroom with slouching shoulders and halting steps eighteen months before. This girl's head was high, her step was light and quick and she gave back glance for glance.

Knowledge was her's, and power, but better than these was the teacher's delighted exclamation when she heard the news.

MAH JONGG TEA NOTABLE EVENT

Girl Just Home From School Honored

[Murillo Photo for Western Press Service]

Miss Marjorie Flowers

ONE of the smart events of the week was the mah jongg tea given by Miss Marjorie Flowers and Miss Phyllis Flowers at their home, 543 Third street, Santa Monica. The guests were asked to greet Miss Alice Hicks, who is at home from school in the East for her summer vacation. The Misses Flowers are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Flowers, and are popular members of the younger set in Los Angeles. Miss Marjorie was graduated last year from the Convent of the Sacred Heart in San Francisco.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"A Fella Needs a Friend!"

"A fella needs a friend, Doc Lu, a fella needs a friend! I'm larded thick with hateful fat till I can hardly bend. I love the soup within the bowl, I love the chicken fried, I love the sweet alluring pie, but oh! I'm growing wide. One hundred-eighty on the scales and cheeks that look like jowls, a tummy rounded like a pot and hardly any soul. Od zooks, I need a helping hand that I may worry through. Oh, save me from my appetite—oh, help me, dear Doc Lu!—M. G."

We sent instructions on, M. G., we sent them long ago. Ere this, your jowls are memories, your tummy is no mo'. Do write again and write right soon and tell us, tell us true, how happy now you are, M. G., since you have left the zoo.

Cryptic Tonsils and Coated Tongue

S. F. P.: Physicians do not advise the removal of tonsils simply because they are enlarged unless they are enlarged sufficiently to obstruct the breathing. It may be that your tonsils are what is known as cryptic tonsils, and they harbor decaying balls of mucous cells and bacteria. Occasionally, these little balls form in what are apparently healthy tonsils. There are always crypts or pits in perfectly healthy tonsils, but if the crypts are excessive and deeper than normal and do not get rid of their cast-off cells and harbor bacterial growths, they certainly do cause the breath to be bad.

You say your bowels move regularly but your tongue is coated and your breath is bad. Do you chew your food thoroughly? Do you eat plenty of coarse and hard foods? The coating on the tongue consists of the cast-off cells on the tongue plus the growth of the very numerous germs which are always in the mouth, such as various yeasts, molds and other organisms. When the secretion of saliva in the mouth is normal in amount and quality, it kills off the most of these bacteria and so they do not get a chance to settle down and multiply. In fevers, when the mouth is dry, because the salivary glands are also affected by the toxin which is causing the fever and so produce very little saliva, the tongue becomes thickly coated with these bacteria, molds and yeast.

It may be possible that your tonsils are so large that you are a mouth breather at night. Persons who sleep with their mouths open have coated tongues in the morning because the surface of the tongue gets dry and the germ-killing saliva does not get in its work. Constipation will also cause a coated tongue. It may be possible that you do not have a full evacuation of the bowels every day. Perhaps you had better add some agar or bran to your diet.

When you wash your teeth in the morning, clean your tongue also. A piece of flexible whalebone can be drawn over your tongue or you can use a piece of dental floss. There are tongue scrapers which can be bought. If you haven't any of these (but you should have dental floss) you can use your brush. Do not scrape so hard that you irritate the tongue.

A Constant Reader—"Please publish a recipe for ginger snaps."

Answer: Ginger Snaps—Cream together three-fourths of a cup of sugar and six tablespoons of melted lard. Add one teaspoon of baking soda dissolved in one-fourth cup of water, one cup of Barbadoes molasses, one teaspoon of ground ginger, one teaspoon of salt, and four cups of flour. (Pastry flour is best to use.) The dough should be as soft as it is possible to roll out. Roll very thin. Cut with a cookie cutter and place on a buttered pan. Bake in a hot oven for eight minutes.

A Reader—(1) Kindly explain the use of a three-minute bread mixer. (2) Please tell me if a lady is introduced to a man, or vice versa.

Answer—(1) In making white or wholewheat bread, begin by pouring the warm water or milk into the bread mixer; add the shortening, sweetening, salt, and then the yeast dissolved in tepid water. The flour is now added all at once (exactly three times as much as there is liquid), and the handle of the mixer is turned for three minutes. I am a great believer in bread mixers—if you can afford one (for we can't afford all the modern conveniences). It takes only six minutes to mix up two loaves of bread in one of these mixers—and there is nothing to be cleaned up afterward! Also less flour is needed than by the old method. After the bread rises, cut it down and form it into loaves with as little handling as possible, not even using a bread board (simply shape the loaves with the floured hands.)

(2) The man is always introduced to the woman thus: "Miss Smith, may I present Mr. Jones?"

Young Girl—I would so much appreciate an article on how to make pretty bead chains with the beads you can buy in bunches. I thought I might make some of these this summer and sell them in a fancywork store.

Answer—Good for you! I am sure you will suceed. Ambition always brings results. Of course I will write on this subject. I shall make a "tour of inspection" through the city shops this week for the sole purpose of studying the prettiest chains. An article on "Making Your Own Bead Chains" will appear in this column next Wednesday (July 11.)

Answer to "Constant Reader"—I am sorry but I cannot print recipes for any kind of wine in this column. Write again if I can help you with household problems.

Tomorrow—The Housekeeper's Wardrobe.

[All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be inclosed with the question. GRADE CROSSING PARLEY CALLED

Safety Committee and City Council to Act

Plan to Outline Program on August 2

All Interested Bodies Asked to Meeting

Widespread but hitherto unorganized demands for the elimination of dangerous grade crossings promised soon to take concrete form when the Public Safety Committee of the City Council decided yesterday to issue invitations to representatives of all interested bodies to attend a joint meeting August 2 at 1:30 p.m. for the purpose of evolving a definite program. In case August 2 proves inconvenient to any of those concerned, the earliest following date suitable will be set.

Those to be especially invited to attend are the Public Utilities Committee of the City Council and the Council in general, the Los Angeles Board of Public Utilities, the County Board of Supervisors, the State Railroad Commission, representatives of the Traffic Commission and the railroads, both steam and electric, and of the Automobile Club.

THOSE PRESENT

In addition to the Public Safety Committee, those present at yesterday's meeting included Paul Hoffman, representing the Traffic Commission; E. B. Lefferts, safety director of the Automobile Club, and Chief Engineer Lorentz of the Board of Public Utilities.

After the meeting Mr. Lorentz expressed the opinion that the responsibility of formulating a definite program would probably fall jointly to his own department, the city engineer and the engineering department of the State Railroad Commission, and that the work would be accomplisehed progressively, the most immediate needs being met first, so that neither the railroads, city, county or taxpayers would be burdened with a sudden, unreasonable expense.

Chairman Sanborn of the Public Safety Committee called attention to the recent franchise to the Santa Fe road to enter the harbor district, which was given with the understanding that the company would separate the most important crossings in that district.

SITUATION DISCUSSED

D. W. Pontius, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Electric Railway, discussing the situation, said:

"Separation of grades is the only means by which accidents between trains and automobiles can positively be prevented, and to advance this plan the Pacific Electric Company is willing to join in conference at any time and co-operate with the State Railroad Commission, city authorities, Automobile Club of Southern California and other organizations, co-operating and doing its share to any reasonable financial bounds.

"Co-operation of the public and State and municipal authorities is absolutely essential to effect the separation of grade crossings.

"The Pacific Electric Company has agreed to pay its share for the separation of grade crossings along the Los Angeles River for which the city has voted bonds to the extent of $2,000,000."

As an indication of the sincerity of the company's intentions in behalf of the safety of the public, Mr. Pontius declared that no meeting of executives is ever held without a discussion of this subject, and that every suggested device, expedient and practice is given the most thorough investigation and test.

As one result, he said, "step accidents," or those occurring while passengers are boarding or alighting from cars, had practically ceased. While accidents had increased numerically, the official said, their proportion as compared with the growth of population and traffic, had actually decreased. Arrangements are now being made by the company to block-signal more of the company's lines at an expense of $500,000, and the company, according to the general manager, has always been at the forefront in the matter of safety devices, particularly in developing the present style of automatic flagging. At 304 crossings these wig-wag signals have been installed, and more are in course of preparation.

INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT

So far as the industrial district is concerned, Mr. Pontius explained, the grade-crossing question is tied up with that of the proposed union terminal at the Plaza, which is now before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the United States Supreme Court.

Also, he said, permission to build the overhead line from the rear of the station at Main and Sixth streets, would eliminate sixty grade crossings at once. Furthermore, he added, the company, as soon as authorized, proposes to build a tunnel and terminal under Pershing Square which will eliminate twenty-one other crossings; or if denied the use of Pershing Square, it will build on Hill street, between Fourth and Fifth, as originally planned.

Officials of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, while stating that their lines had very few grade crossings that could be called dangerous, declared themselves heartily in favor of the movement to eliminate all such crossings.

FAMOUS STORY FOR SCREEN

Goldywn Announces Production of "Gulliver's Travels," Directed by King Vidor

"Gulliver's Travels" is to be filmed on a magnificent scale by King Vidor, Goldwyn director, according to announcement last night by Vice-President Abraham Lehr. Probably no recent word from the screen front has caused as much interest. The Jonathan Swift classic is as well known as "Ben-Hur" and it presents marvelous pictorial possibilities.

It was learned that Mr. Vidor and the Goldwyn company have been making secret preparations for the productions for the last three months. Elaborate and detailed photographic experiments have been completed. The ingenuity of director and cameraman will be tested in showing Gulliver's visit to Lilliput, where he is a giant in comparison to the natives, and to Brobdingnag, where the size of the inhabitants makes him the smallest dwarf.

TESTS SATISFACTORY

"Camera tests at the Goldwyn laboratories have proved that these things can be shown on the screen with absolute fidelity," said Mr. Vidor last night. "The motion picture is the ideal medium for telling 'Gulliver's Travels,' much better than the printed word, although I am not saying that we shall do a better job than Swift did.

"I have long wanted to film this classic, which appeals to the young by its fantasy and to the adult by its satire. It has been in the back of my head for a long time and I have just been waiting for the opportune time to do it. My association with Goldwyn gives me the facilities for such a production.

"I believe there is a crying need for more imaginative and fanciful productions on the screen. Our growth has been retarded by our worship of realism. Most people get their fill of realism in their own lives and they seek escape into the realm of imagination for their entertainment. The cinema is ideally suited to portray fantasy and myth."

ON LOCATION

Mr. Vidor will not direct "Gulliver's Travels" until after he has finished "Wild Oranges," Joseph Hergesheimer's novel. He and his staff will leave in a few days to film the story in the exact spot described by the novelist, thirty-five miles from Savannah, and on St. Simon's Island, off the Georgia coast. The cast, not yet announced, will follow later.

The director has just finished the filming of "Three Wise Fools," which had wide popularity on the stage. It will be released August 19.

Arcade Building Is Sixty Per Cent Rented Already

Though the Mercantile Arcade Building, now being erected at Mercantile Place and Broadway and Spring street, will not be completed till December 1, 60 per cent of the office space in it has already been leased, according to announcement yesterday by A. C. Blumenthal & Co., Inc. builders of the $2,500,000 structure.

"This proves that office space in Los Angeles is in greater demand than in any other city of the United States," the builders said.

The new building has 300 office suites and a score or more of business quarters, facing the Arcade and the two streets. A bank, a bond house, a fur store, a women's wear shop, a clothing store, a shoe store, a barber shop, a beauty shop, a public stenographer, a cafe, a tea room and a cafeteria already have taken space. The entire basement of the double building has been taken by the latter enterprise, which, it is said, will be the largest in the world. The building is going up at the rate of two floors a week.

DEATH PROBE REPORT

Inquest Over Victim of Quarrel Recommends Man's Arrest

A Coroner's jury conducted an inquest yesterday into the death of William Symski of 344 West Avenue Forty-five, and recommended that Symski's neighbor, Frank Snyder, be held. It was testified that Symski and Snyder quarreled over a flower garden and that Snyder, in the course of the quarrel, shot Symski twice. The verdict declared that Symski came to his death from two gunshot wounds. The inquest was conducted at the Los Angeles Undertaking Company's rooms.

TO SIFT ABEL DEATH

Coroner Nance set today at 9:30 a.m. for the inquest into the death of A. H. Abel, who was run over and killed by an automobile Monday at the corner of Pasadena avenue and Avenue Fifty-three. The police assert J. P. Reinert was the driver of the car.

PACT WILL ASSIST OIL SHIPMENTS

Recognition of Mexico Would Solve Production Problem in Los Angeles

Oil operators in Southern California are inclined to think that the signing of a treaty bringing about recognition of Mexico by this country would be of great assistance in solving the flush production problem in the Los Angeles Basin fields.

Such a treaty, it is expected, would either abolish or sharply modify the present import and export tax which Mexico levies on petroleum. Local companies which would be directly benefited are the General Petroleum Corporation and the Pan-American Petroleum Company.

Both organizations have large refineries in Mexico. The other operators in this district would, it is expected, be benefited by the ability to dispose of large quantities of oil which companies owning refineries in Mexico would desire to purchase here and ship to those properties.

The General Petroleum Corporation, for instance, has a refinery in Tampico capable of handling upward of 8000 barrels of oil per day. This plant has been shut down since the fall of 1922, owing to lack of Mexican oil to operate it. The company is now stripping two wells in the south field of Mexico and buying 1200 barrels a day.

In the California fields it has a potential production of about 100,000 barrels of crude per day. Just now it is getting out 52,500 and shutting in 45,000, while buying 5000 barrels from other producers. It believes that in a short time, if conditions in Mexico were satisfactory, it could put nineteen tankers to work, hauling oil from here to its Tampico refinery.

The Mexican Eagle organization is already buying large quantites of oil here. It is able to do this because it has the retail trade in Mexico, and only has to pay an import duty, whereas at present American concerns desiring to use their refineries in Mexico on American oil, have to pay duty in and duty out, the producers assert.

Irish Spud Does Yeoman Duty as Mayhem Weapon

Is an Irish potato a murderous weapon? This momentous question so puzzled Justice Scott yesterday that he took another twenty-four hours to decide it.

The issue came up in the case of August Navarro, charged with mayhem on complanit of Louis Buckey. The two are rival produce dealers.

According to the testimony, Navarro and Buckey were having breakfast on the 10th inst. with Clement Zumel, one of their clients, in his fruit stand at Compton. They started to discuss the respective merits of their fruits and vegetables.

Zumel testified that words proved inadequate, and that the combatants resorted to knives and forks as weapons. He said he grabbed Buckey, and that Navarro picked up an Irish potato from a near-by barrel, and threw it, knocking out Buckey's eye.

WOMEN WORKERS SAY WAGES ARE IN ARREARS

Six women employed by the defunct Dollar Point Pencil Company, located at 1001 West Sixteenth street, appeared at the State Bureau of Labor yesterday and filed complaints to the effect that they had not been paid for from three to five weeks. The company was closed by attachment yesterday afternoon. It employed thirty persons, the women said, at a salary ranging between $16 to $40 a week. The other employees also have not been paid, they said. The women are Isabel Kessel of 222 South Toluca street, Helen Bates of 5115 South Denker street, Mrs. N. Reising of 5115 South Denker street, Mrs. M. Ferguson of 19 A U.S. Island, Venice; Mrs. J. H. Martin of 5965 South Hoover street, and Gertrude Kessel of 222 South Toluca street.

Ladies' Day at Masonic Club

At the luncheon of the Masonic Club on Friday, which will be ladies' day, a musical program will be given. Mr. C. S. Delano and Miss Clara M. Wilcox, associate teachers on the guitar, banjo, mandolin, ukulele and Hawaiian steel guitar, will give a program of popular selections. Mr. Delano has for many years been well known in the musical world of Los Angeles. There will be songs by everybody to round out the evening.

DELAY ON OIL LEASE IS COSTLY

Appeals Court Rules Firm Did Not Give Notice in Time; $1600 Must be Paid

Delay of less than ten hours in cancellation of an oil lease cost the Amalgamated Oil Company $1600 through a decision handed down in the Court of Appeals by Presiding Justice Conroy and concurred in by Justices Curtis and Hauser. The decision received yesterday reverses that of Judge McLucas in the Superior Court.

April 10, 1919, C. C. Conroy leased to Thomas T. C. Purman a section of land in Los Angeles county. The lease carried oil rights and lease payments were on a graduated scale, increasing each month that drilling was not started. All payments were to be made in advance for the succeeding month.

Purman later assigned the lease to the Amalgamated Oil Company, and that concern assumed obligations as lessee. Payments were made promptly up to and including February, 1920.

But the check mailed to Mr. Conroy early in February did not reach him until February 10. In the meantime the Amalgamated Oil Company decided to cancel the lease. They notified him to this effect on February 10, and at the same time ordered that payment on the check sent him be stopped.

Mr. Conroy brought suit to compel payment. Judge McLucas ruled in the Superior Court that the Amalgamated Oil Company was not liable for payment of the $1600, since the lease had been canceled the first day of the month in which this payment came due.

Some time after the decision Mr. Conroy died. The Title Insurance and Trust Company, as executor of Mr. Conroy's estate, appealed the decision of the Superior Court.

In reversing the decision of Judge McLucas, the Court of Appeals ruled that the new month began immediately after midnight of February 9, and although the lease was canceled early the morning of February 10, payment for the full month was due.

ARBUCKLE SIGNS

FATTY WILL MAKE PICTURES IN BERLIN

By Grace Kingsley

Roscoe Arbuckle is in Berlin, where, backed by American money, he is to produce comedies, according to cable and telegraphic word just received. He has been engaged to act for a German film company, and is going to produce a long series of comedies.

In this attempt to stage a comeback, says the cable message, Fatty has a good chance of being successful, as his old pie-throwing comedies are even now drawing laughs from packed houses throughout Germany.

The German press speaks of Fatty's pictures being tabooed in American theaters on account of the Rappe affair, but sees no reason for their being barred in Germany.

Arbuckle has recently been engaged by a Chicago cafe as an entertainer, and succeeded in making a hit in that work.

Harold Lloyd Soon

Harold Lloyd and his bride, after their honeymoon tour of the East, departed last night at 8 o'clock for Hollywood via the Santa Fe, according to word just received. On the same train was Tom Meighan, who received reporters at his hotel yesterday—no lady reporters—clad in his B.V.D.'s and a black dressing-gown. Lila Lee is also traveling in the same caravansary. She has been visiting her parents.

Julian Issues Statement

Because of the fact that he feels that some sort of misunderstanding is going on in the minds of theater-goers and others regarding the directorship of "Merry-Go-Round," which is creating a furor in New York and which is coming to the Mission shortly, Rupert Julian, who took over and made the picture after Erich Von Stroheim had shot only a small part of the picture, is issuing a statement in regard to the matter.

He did this only after the New York Universal office had asked for this statement. It is as follows:

"At request of Universal will give facts concerning production August 25. Universal placed me in charge October 7. Without any opportunity whatever for preparation, I assumed charge, and in order to progress with as little chaos as possible, I retained the staff and most Von Stroheim.

"Assuming charge on October 7, From day to day I built the story and characterizations of 'Merry-Go-Round' as it now stands. After several weeks of working on the production I called in Mr. Harvey Gates, well-known scenario writer, to collaborate with me on the love story of 'Merry-Go-Round.' As it now stands, it is absolutely original in collaboration with Harvey Gates. In the production as it now stands, the entire footage, with the exception of approximately 600 feet, was directed by me. The introduction of Norman Kerry, Dorothy Wallace and Sidney Bracey, the groom, was not done by me. One scene of Kerry in a carriage and the banquet scene at El Viras and the elopement of the countess with the groom were not mine. All the scenes carrying the story thread were directed by me as well as all scenes in which crowds were used.

"I had no part in any quarrel or controversy between Universal and Mr. von Stroheim. I have had no thought of raising any question regarding the situation in which I was placed except that I have found that through a misunderstanding some of the New York newspapers have credited Von Stroheim with doing important sequences in this production when those sequences were actually originated and directed by myself."

Picture Stars at Actors' Fund

If you want t osee the picture stars in all their glory, be sure to visit the Exposition tomorrow evening. The afternoon and evening have been turned over to the Actors' Fund, for which benevolent purpose Daniel Frohman is now working in the West.

The stars will occupy boxes at the Exposition Stadium in the evening and each will be introduced in person.

"The stars have given their word to be present," said Mr. Frohman, "and I feel sure they will not disappoint me in such a worthy cause as the Actors' Fund."

Included among those who will be present are Mary Pickford, Charles Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, Norma Talmadge, Constance Talmadge, Pola Negri, Pauline Frederick, Lois Wilson, Thomas Meighan, Jack Holt, Antonio Moreno, William S. Hart, Will Rogers, Mary Astor, Louise Dresser, Agnes Ayers, Priscilla Dean, Mae Murray, Conrad Nagle, Richard Dix, Frank Mayo, Mae Busch, Claire Windsor, Creighton Hale, Lionel Belmore, Lew Cody, Blanche Sweet, George Walsh, Elinor Boardman, Wallace Beery, Leon Errol, Bessie Love, Enid Bennett, Fred Niblo, Carmel Myers, Ford Sterling, Pauline Starke, Hobart Bosworth, Helene Chadwick, Edmund Lowe, Patsy Ruth Miller, James Kirkwood, Kate Lester, William Haine, Raymond Griffith, Theda Bara, Kathlyn Williams, William Desmond, Madge Bellamy, Clara Kimball Young.

New Thriller at Universal

A new chapter play entered production yesterday at Universal City with two of the best stars Universal has ever had in that field. They are Eileen Sedgwick and William Desmond. Miss Sedgwick just completed a screen version of "Daniel Boone," in which she costarred with Jack Mower, and Desmond has completed a series of features.

Among the other players chosen for the supporting cast are Ruth Royce, known for her work in previous Universal chapter plays, and Margaret Morris, previously leading woman in two-reel western pictures made by Universal.

"Beasts of Paradise" is the tentative title. William Craft is directing, under the supervision of Fred J. McConnell, who is in charge of serial production.

It's a sea story, with adventures on islands, wrecks and the intrigues of various people connected with a large shipping company. Desmond plays the son of the company's president, Miss Sedgwick his secretary, Miss Royce a feminine "heavy" character and Miss Morris a native servant girl—with dancing frills.

Some island along the Coast of California or Mexico will be the location of the unit for at least six weeks, beginning after ten days or so of interior shooting. Fred Datig, casting director, and the director are now choosing the remaining members of the cast.

DANDELION LEAVES

Do not use the leaves of blossoming dandelions for table greens. They are too old and will prove bitter.

TWO "SALLY" STARS MEET AGAIN

Reunion Takes Place on Pickford Lot

Leon Errol, Jack Pickford and Marilynn Miller

THE stars of "Sally" met yesterday at the Pickford-Fairbanks studio where Marilynn Miller Pickford's husband, Jack, is at work on a new production.

Leon Errol, now an Orpheum star, dropped out after the matinee to call on the two. Mr. Errol and Miss Miller worked together for three years in New York in Ziegfeld's "Sally," which closed a few months ago.

ADE HERE TO WORK ON MEIGHAN STORY

George Ade, the humorist who arrived early this week, conferred with studio officials of Paramount pictures for the first time yesterday on the filming of "All Must Marry," Ade's new story which will be Thomas Meighan's next starring vehicle.

"Hollywood has progressed wonderfully since I was here three years ago," he said. "It then took two minutes to cross Hollywood Boulevard owing to the traffic, whereas it now takes five minutes."

Mr. Ade will only work in the mornings, spending the remainder of the day in the open air. His associates say that in this way he is able to work intensively, accomplishing more than if he worked steadily all day. Alfred E. Green will direct Mr. Ade's story which has been adapted for the screen by Tom Geraghty.

"All Must Marry" is the story of a man who made a will stipulating that all his children must marry or his money would go to charity. Mr. Meighan will play the role of the only member of the family who was unsuccessful in choosing a mate and the attempts of his brothers and sisters to persuade him to marry, form the basis of humor in the picture.

SMILES AS PRICE OF HIS MACHINE DROPS

Buster Keaton, he of the solemn visage, is not only a screen comedian but is the possessor of quite a sense of humor.

Automobile owners are familiar with the many slashes in the prices of gasoline buggies. Buster, an owner of one, smiled—yes, really—at the first drop in price, but his countenance was as solemn as usual at the second.

Then he sat down, grabbed a piece of paper and dashed off the following ad for insertion in a Los Angeles newspaper:

"For Sale—My eight-cylinder automobile, in perfect condition and run but 6000 miles Reason for selling: Expect another drop in price. Buster Keaton."

Buster is now at the Symphony, assisted by Phyllis Haver, in "The Balloonatic," his latest three-reel comedy, and, according to those who have seen it, his funniest.

LOEW PICTURE LINE UP IS INTERESTING

The world premiere of the Warner Brothers' picture, "Where the North Begins," in which the famous screen dog hero, Rin-tin-tin, appears, will take place at Loew's the 28th inst.

On August 4 Loew's will present the Selznic special, "The Common Law," Robert W. Chambers's famous love romance. In the cast are Corinne Griffith, Conway Tearle, Elliott Dexter, Hobart Bosworth, Bryant Washburn, Dagmar Godowsky, Phyllis Haver, Harry Myers, Miss Du Pont, Doris May and Wally Van.

On August 11 May Murray will be seen in "The French Doll," said to be the most ambitious film romance in which this dainty and lureful star has yet appeared.

Another attraction which soon will charm fans from the screen of Loew's State Theater is Constance Talmadge in "Dulcy."

VACATIONING HERE BETWEEN PICTURES

Between pictures Lewis Dayton, popular leading man of the screen, is vacationing at Catalina Island.

Dayton is a newcomer to Southern California cinema life, though he is famous throughout Europe, and on this, his first trip to the magic isle, he is delighted. Next to his profession he likes fishing and swimming and every day sees him in or on the water. He is fully convinced that he will land a record tuna or at least a swordfish or maybe just a mackerel—but something, anyway.

THEATER SHOWS TWO PREMIERES OF FILM

It is fitting that the world premiere of the revival of Mary Pickford's "Daddy Long Legs" should take place in the theater where the picture had its original world premiere—the Kinema here. The revival of this picture, which Marshall Neilan directed, will open there Saturday.

In honor of the occasion, Art Smith, now chief projectionist of the theater circuit, will run the first show Saturday morning. Former ushers and doormen are planning to return for the day also, and an invitation has been extended to Emile and Oliver Kehrlein, Oakland and Fresno theater owners, who built the Kinema, to attend the showing.

ROMANCE OF MODERN GIRL WITH IDEALS

Can a modern girl, reared in a sordid environment and compelled to work for a living, remain faithful to her ideals?

That is the question which is answered in "East Side West Side," which comes to Grauman's Third-street Theater Monday. The heroine is one of three girls who live together in a furnished room in the crowded East Side of New York. She meets a young man of wealth from the West Side and romance is born. Then comes conflict when their love is thwarted and the plot of the story hinges on the young couple's efforts to overcome the obstacles that are placed in the way of their love. The cast is headed by Eileen Percy and Kenneth Harlan and the production directed by Irving Cummings.

CLARA HORTON HOSTESS

Clara Horton will be hostess at the Palais Royal tonight. Miss Horton, who will also be hostess to a large party of motion-picture friends at dinner, has consented to present the trophy to the winners in a dance contest. A number of motion-picture stars will be present during the evening.

PLAYDOM

TOM MOORE TO TALK

SCREEN ACTOR WILL PLAY IN STAGE COMEDY

By Edwin Schallert

Those who like to know what motion-picture stars' voices sound like after seeing them many times on the screen will shortly have their curiosity awarded at least in one instance. That instance, it happens, is Tom Moore, who was formerly starred by Goldwyn in such pictures as "Hold Your Horses," and who has lately been free-lancing. Moore is shortly to be seen in a stage play at the Mason.

The title of the play is "Dust of Erin." So you know that Tom's brogue will suit the occasion and those who like their comedy straight will have it right from the shoulder, according to the promises of Moore and his manager, Terence Duffy.

Hart's Name in Title

Ever since Doug Fairbanks started the style of an actor using his own name in combination with the title, we have wondered who would be the next to carry the custom along, and now, it seems, Bill Hart is to do the deed, for his first picture on his return to Paramount is to be called "William S. Hart in Wild Bill Hickok." You can catch the resemblance, of course, to "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood," which was the way "Robin Hood" was titled on the screen.

Members of the cast have not been selected for the feature, and neither has the director, but the continuity is being prepared by Albert Shelby Le Vino from an original scenario by Hart.

Wilson Builds Elaborate Set for New Story

A hotel lobby in "Other Men's Daughters," a Ben Wilson production for Grand-Asher, is one of the most elaborate that has been constructed at the Berwilla Studio in a long time.

By a peculiar process the scenic artists have given the pillars and walls an effect closely resembling green marble, while the marbled floor and ornate furnishings give the set the look of a very expensive caravansary a la the Ritz.

In this picture appears Bryant Washburn and Mabel Forrest in the leads, with Wheeler Oakman, Kathleen Kirkham and Martha Franklin and others in the important roles. The story is by Evelyn Campbell, who wrote "Mine to Keep" and "The Love Trap," and the adaptation is by Frank Sullivan. Ben Wilson is directing.

BOY VIOLINIST IN CONCERT TONIGHT

Max Epstein, the boy violinist, will appear at Choral Hall (Philharmonic Auditorium) this evening when he will present a program in which he will be assisted by William Tyroler. One of the features of the program will be the playing of the "Kreutzer Sonata," by Beethoven, and a "Concerto," by Mendelssohn, as well as some charming shorter numbers. Mr. Tyroler will also present a solo, "Liebestod," from Tristan and Isolde by Wagner.

This is the last opportunity to hear Max before he leaves for New York, where he plans to study for two years.

FILM MAN LEAVES ON EUROPEAN TRIP

Abraham Stern, secretary and treasurer of the Century Comedy Company, will leave today for a three-months combined business and pleasure trip to Europe. He will sail from New York on the Leviathan on the 28th inst., after visiting his brother there, who is now on his way from the old country.

MRS. NANCY RALSTON OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

In the family home at 2123 Aubry street which she has occupied continuously since she came to Los Angeles in 1888, Mrs. Nancy Ralston yesterday celebrated her ninety-sixth birthday. She was visited by most of her five children, fourteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, all of whom are living, and by many of the friends she has made during her long residence in Los Angeles. Mrs. Ralston has been a member of the West Adams Presbyterian church for thirty-five years.

10 SPECIALTY SALESMEN.
A concern well known to you has opportunities in its sales department for 10 capable salesmen. It has a new proposition to sell which already has the approval of business men to whom it is to be sold, and now needs keen-minded, strong-limbed salesmen to turn interest into orders. These men must be experienced enough to realize that it is their business, not to sell a prospect something he doesn't want, but to make him want what we have to sell. We can not use "one time" specialists, as our reputation is too high to permit misuse.

In answering this advertisement you may be assured that we are not selling oil, stock, books, etc. On the other hand, it is a specialty in a field where substantial earnings are the rule rather than the exception. If you should associate with us, you should be able to earn at the start from $50 to $60 a week on a salary and commission basis. You can earn more, and we'll be pleased to pay it to producers.

If you consider yourself a capable salesman and wish to associate with an aggressive organization, we will be pleased to hear from you. Write us a brief letter outlining your age, experience, etc. Address Y, box 300, TIMES OFFICE.

CAN USE four real salesmen with cars on Greater Goodyear Park, where an average of 20 lots daily are being sold. See EVANS, cor. Central and Florence Aves.

And more is what our ranchers have earned from their spring crops at CARLSBAD BY THE SEA.

Today, while writing this ad, we received a letter from another of our ranchers, who has cleaned up enough from his spring crop of beans to pay for his land in full. These certainly are happy days for CARLSBAD people.

Hundreds of our clients are going in for Avocados, Bulbs, Flowers, Vegetables, etc. The deep warm soil, the efficient water system and the very even climate make for growing conditions that cannot be excelled.

Climate! During these summer days our maximum temperature has been 72 deg., our minimum 62 deg.

Naturally our fine irrigated land and highly improved ocean front lots are selling each day. Think of buying this rich land at $750 per acre and paying only 10% cash and 10% yearly.

Why, if you will work and look after your crops, there certainly is a little fortune here for you. See us at once.

MOUNTAIN, CANYON PTY. For Sale, Exchange, Wanted

MODJESKA'S HOME

located in the Forest of Arden, Cleveland Forest Reserve, Orange Co., Cal., 52 miles from Los Angeles, reached by splendid roads with easy grades. It was the first mountain home development of any importance made in all Southern California.

Madame Modjeska lived there for over 25 years and spent many thousands of dollars in beautifying it. The original home and grounds are open to the public under certain reasonable restrictions.

A portion of the original home property has just been subdivided into mountain home sites with roads built, water mains laid and ready for immediate building. Wooded lots are offered at $250 to $500 on terms of $50 to $80 down and a like sum every six months.

Considering price, terms, location, improvements, accessibility, view, environment and desirability, these sites are the most attractive offering now available in all of Southern California.

Our representative can be found on the property every day in the year. Drive out to Modjeska's Home, take your lunch, eat under the beautiful trees, and if interested, take a look at these attractive mountain home sites.

Free booklet, map, price-list, with description of roads, a short history of Madame Modjeska, and general information concerning the property will be sent free on request. CHAS. S. MANN, 507 Loew State Bldg., Seventh and Broadway. METROPOLITAN 3201.

And more is what our ranchers have earned from their spring crops at CARLSBAD BY THE SEA.

Today, while writing this ad, we received a letter from another of our ranchers, who has cleaned up enough from his spring crop of beans to pay for his land in full. These certainly are happy days for CARLSBAD people.

Hundreds of our clients are going in for Avocados, Bulbs, Flowers, Vegetables, etc. The deep warm soil, the efficient water system and the very even climate make for growing conditions that cannot be excelled.

Climate! During these summer days our maximum temperature has been 72 deg., our minimum 63 deg.

Naturally our fine irrigated land and highly improved ocean front lots are selling each day. Think of buying this rich land at $750 per acre and paying only 10% cash and 10% yearly.

Why, if you will work and look after your crops, there certainly is a little fortune here for you. See us at once.

MODJESKA'S HOME

located in the Forest of Arden, Cleveland Forest Reserve, Orange Co., Cal., 52 miles from Los Angeles, reached by splendid roads with easy grades. It was the first mountain home development of any importance made in all Southern California.

Madame Modjeska lived there for over 25 years and spent many thousands of dollars in beautifying it. The original home and grounds are open to the public under certain reasonable restrictions.

A portion of the original home property has just been subdivided into mountain home sites with roads built, water mains laid and ready for immediate building. Wooded lots are offered at $300 to $500 on terms of $50 to $80 down and a like sum every six months.

Considering price, terms, location, improvements, accessibility, view, environment and desirability, these sites are the most attractive offering now available in all of Southern California.

Our representative can be found on the property every day in the year. Drive out to Modjeska's Home, take your lunch, eat under the beautiful trees, and if interested, take a look at these attractive mountain home sites.

Free booklet, map, price-list, with description of roads, a short history of Madame Modjeska, and general information concerning the property will be sent free on request. CHAS. S. MANN, 807 Loew State Bldg., Seventh and Broadway. METROPOLITAN 3801.

FALSE TEETH CHOKE MAN

Charles E. Logan, marine engineer on the government steamboat Swan, was choked to death by his false teeth when he fell into the Monongahela River.

It had been thought Logan was drowned when he fell into the water while hurrying back to his boat from a visit to his 4-year-old daughter. He had dreamed the child had been drowned and hurried home to learn the dream was false.

Exasperation

One day while walking home I was much annoyed to find a dog following me. I turned two or three times and tried to frighten it away. When feeling that it was not coming back, suddenly I heard soft footfalls. I turned and said: "Will you go home?"

Imagine my embarrassment to find an unknown man walking behind me.—[Exchange.

INDORSE GREAT MUSIC PAGEANT

Commercial Club Approves "The Wayfarer"

Luncheon Given in Observance of U.S.C. Day

Plans for Melody Festival Are Told

Resolutions heartily indorsing the presentation of the dramatic American pageant, "The Wayfarer," in Los Angeles next September were adopted yesterday by the Commercial Board at a luncheon at the Alexandria. The resolution followed an address by Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, and president of the Wayfarer Organization, who told briefly of the efforts being made to give the people of the Southland a musical pageant never before equaled in this section.

In observance of University of Southern California Day, Dr. Von KleinSmid was made chairman of the program and entertainment was furnished by members of the university faculty. The program included vocal solos by Lillian Backstrand, instructor in voice at the college of music; violin selections by Alberta Zena, piano accompaniment by Mabel Culver, and an address by Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, and a talk on "Keeping Step With Los Angeles," by H. J. Stonier, executive secretary of the university.

Mr. Stonier briefly reviewed the history of the university since its founding in 1880 with twenty-two students, saying that this year the enrollment was nearly 8000, with 735 graduates. Aside from its educational and moral value to the Southland, Mr. Stonier said that the institution constitutes one of the greatest financial assets to this community, nearly $5,000,000 a year being spent by the university and the students in various ways.

E. G. Judah, managing director of the Commercial Board, spoke briefly of the various activities of the organization, saying that the board is trying to render to the members the same kind of service which the Automobile Club gives to motorists. He said, in part:

BOARD'S ACTIVITIES

"As an instance of what the board is doing, take the following example: A safe company had been organized on a good sound basis. The stock had been sold and the factory built, ready for operation. The officials were wideawake and eager to proceed with business. One thing alone delayed them. They were in need of a certain public utility, for which they had made application but which had not been installed. They were losing money and time.

"The Commercial Board took the matter up with the proper officials of the utility corporation with the result that the service was soon installed, to the relief of the young company. This is only one of many instances in which the Commercial Board has already operated in aiding new companies."

At a meeting tonight at the Pacific Southwest Trust and Savings Bank, Sixth and Spring streets, managers and representatives of more than 225 industries will be present to discuss the coming production of "The Wayfarer" and to devise ways and plans for carrying the "Wayfarer's" message to the 60,000 and more employees which these industries represent. Dr. Von KleinSmid will be the principal speaker and others will be Irwin Rice, president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and E. G. Judah of the Commercial Board as well as J. T. Fitzgerald, Alton E. Allen and Merle Armitage of "The Wayfarer" Society.

TREMENDOUS PAGEANT

"The Wayfarer" is a tremendous pageant of Christianity and Americanism and the purpose of this meeting is to give the big business men of Los Angeles and their employees an idea of the magnitude of "The Wayfarer" and the influence which it exerts on the business and social life of a community.

Meetings of a similar character will be conducted from time to time until "The Wayfarer" production September 8 to 15. "The Wayfarer" chorus is now 1000 strong and is rehearsing every Monday and Friday night at Bovard Auditorium under the baton of William Tyroler and Hugo Kirchhoffer.

AVOID GAS AFTER EATING

Bloating and distention of the abdomen, drowsiness after eating, pressure and pain around the heart, hands and feet cold and numb, nervousness, are the more common symptoms of this torment—gas.

All is due to the fermentation of food in the stomach.

Physicians state that the best absorbent they have found for this foul gas is Standard No. 10 Gastritis. These little tablets also quickly relieve the pain and distress that comes after eating.

If people would only give some attention to their diet and carry these wonderful tablets for emergency use they would quickly find that many of these ailments and symptoms would permanently disappear.

SANTA FE TO ENTER HARBOR

Commission Authorizes Immediate Construction of an Extension of Belt Line System

Definite action on the entrance of the Atchison, Topeka Santa Fe Railroad into Los Angeles Harbor was taken by the Harbor Commission yesterday in authorizing the immediate construction of a 3000-foot extension to the Municipal Belt Line system which will serve the Santa Fe exclusively. The extension will be built by the railroad company, according to Edgar McKee, chairman of the commission, at a cost of approximately $20,000.

Construction of the roadway, which will extend from the present terminus of the Belt Line at Wilmington to a point northward where it will connect directly with the Santa Fe right of way, will be started immediately, Mr. McKee said. The immediate cost will be borne by the railroad company but will be remitted by a rebate system, the Harbor Department returning one dollar of the construction cost for every Santa Fe car passing over the municipal belt line system at the port.

By the use of the municipal belt line and the interchange tracks now employed by the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific systems, the Santa Fe will have complete access to all parts of the harbor. The system's traffic will be handled at the port at a flat switching rate of $3.50 per car, according to Mr. McKee.

Entrance of the Santa Fe into the port district will serve as an important agency, Mr. McKee said, in relieving the present serious cargo congestion. He pointed out that in the unprecedented growth of trade through Los Angeles Harbor during the year, 9,932,213 gross tons of shipping have used municipal wharves during the first six months of 1923, as compared to 6,607,106 tons which docked at the city wharves during all of 1922.

POSTMASTER IN TROUBLE

Arizona Official's Reported Anxiety to Have Fling in Los Angeles Results in His Arrest

A desire to have a fling at the night life of Los Angeles, inspired to some extent by a too liberal acquaintance with moonshine, is responsible for the predicament of Frederick B. McElroy, postmaster of Gold Rod, Ariz., according to police.

The postmaster is held today at the County Jail pending the disposition of his case by postal authorities, to whom the matter has been turned over by the police. He is charged with making off with a quantity of postal money orders, a number of which are said to have been cashed here.

McElroy's asserted quest for the pleasures offered by the city came to an end in a hotel at 533½ South Spring street yesterday morning. A curious hotel clerk and Detectives Parsons and Sherrard were responsible for the sudden climax.

The suspect sent his suit case to the Rosslyn Hotel some days ago and later followed it. At the hotel he was informed by the clerk that the suitcase was being held for him. McElroy thereupon is said to have turned about and to have hurried from the hostelry. The clerk, becoming suspicious, opened the suit case and found therein a large number of blank money orders. He informed police and the two detectives later arrested McElroy. It was stated by the arresting officers that McElroy had become acquainted with "a fair young thing" during his short sojourn here and gave her a number of the money orders which she is said to have filled out and cashed.

McElroy left Gold Rod, according to advices from that town, after imbibing liberally of some high-proof moonshine. He is said to have made a full confession to postal authorities.

SHIP FOUND TOO COSTLY TO OPERATE

Susquehanna Arrives Here on Farewell Trip Under Swayne & Hoyt Register

Completing her farewell voyage in the Porto Rican-South American service of Swayne & Hoyt, the Shipping Board liner Susquehanna passed quarantine at daylight yesterday, bringing sixty-nine passengers and 2679 tons of cargo. Thirty-four of her passengers were aliens, claiming German, Swiss, French, Spanish and Austrian citizenship.

Park Benjamin, New York multimillionaire sportsman, whose sister is the widow of Enrico Caruso, was an arrival on the Susquehanna. Mr. Benjamin is here from a sojourn in Buenos Aires, and plans to make only a short stay in Los Angeles before proceeding to Phoenix.

He denied reports current in New York of his approaching marriage, and declared that his present trip through the Southwest would be in the nature of a vacation.

Miss Gladys Lamphere of New York also disembarked here from the Susquehanna.

Other passengers included Mrs. Grace Erkenbreck, wife of the South American director of the United States Shipping Board, and her son and daughter, Master Eugene and Miss Betty Jane. They are here from Buenos Aires to spend several months in California.

Included in the 1032 tons of cargo which the Susquehanna is discharging at Los Angeles are large consignments of fertilizer, preserved meats, coffee, linseed and cocoanuts. She will sail for northern ports tonight.

The Susquehanna, which as a coal burner has been found too expensive in operation, will be replaced by the Shipping Board freighter, West Carmona, pending the allocation of another passenger steamer to the run, it was announced by the Shipping Board.

Oil Operator Acquires Site for Refinery

A tract of 231 acres located about one mile east of Torrance was purchased from the Dominguez Land Corporation for a consideration of $526,449 yesterday by C. C. Julian, who said he will use the land as a refinery site for the Julian Petroleum Corporation.

The site was chosen in preference to several others on which Mr. Julian had options, he declared, because it has the best strategic position, being easily reached by pipe line from Santa Fe Springs, Huntington Beach and Signal Hill.

Mr. Julian announced that he has quantities of material already on the ground for construction work on the Julian tank farm and pipe line and that work on these units would proceed as rapidly as possible.

WORLD-WIDE STRIKE BY WOBBLIES

Meeting on Liberty Hill Calls for General Tie-up Within Five Years

Wobblies in a meeting on Liberty Hill, Los Angeles Harbor, discussed last night a world-wide strike of shipping workers, municipal employees and railroad workers within the next five years, and openly hooted the injunction decision made in Sacramento Monday declaring it illegal for any person to show inclination toward the I.W.W. movement.

The speakers stated the injunction meant nothing to them, that they intended to continue their meetings, to carry their cards and wear their badges of identification. The police present made no arrests.

Several of the speakers in discussing the proposal strike stated that a tie-up of railroad, city and steamship workers would paralyze industry, and that they would bend their efforts to make such a strike complete within the next five years. It was said that several members of the order left on freight trains yesterday and last night for Texas, where they have been ordered to make war on the Ku Klux Klan.

TRICK STILL SEIZED IN POLICE RAID

Operator of Fancy Outfit in Wellington Arrested After Long Hunt

One of the largest and most unique liquor stills containing equipment that ranged from burglar alarms and doors that bolted automatically, to a series of electric fan ventilation exhausts, intake and a regulation windmill outside to blow away the fumes of the plant, was found last night when police raided 1204 Bay View avenue, Wellington, and arrested H. J. McClenny.

The raid and arrest were made by a squad of Los Angeles Harbor police headed by Capt. Clyde Plummer, who stated they had been trying to get something on McClenny for ten months, but had never been able to locate his plant.

The officers confiscated two 200-gallon stills, twenty-four 50-gallon barrels of corn mash, 400 gallons of corn whisky and about 2000 bottles, demijohns, jugs and other liquor containers, in one of the most elaborately devised stills they say they ever ran across. They stated the plant cost at least $5000 or more.

Liner Bearing Large Crowd to Gymkhana

Upward of 250 passengers are expected to sail on the coastwise liner Yale when this vessel sails for San Diego this afternoon carrying a large majority of the passengers to attend the Gymkhana at Coronado on the 20th, 21st and 22nd inst. This sailing, officials of the steamship company say, is the largest carried this season between the ports of Los Angeles and San Diego.

The Gymkhana, which is to be given under the auspices of the San Diego American Legion Post, will bring together many of the best army and civilian horsemen of the Pacific Coast together with their mounts. The show is expected to develop some daring feats of horsemanship, including the famous monkey drill and freak riding and jumping. Army and navy flyers are scheduled to appear in aerial exhibitions.

BIG GUNS FIRED BY COAST GUARD

Train Mortars on Targets Out at Sea

Men Begin to Show Results of Camp

Physical Tests Scheduled Next Two Days

By Maj. J. P. McQUAIDE

The result of all the painstaking drilling of the Coast Artillery Corps, National Guard of California, during the last ten days at Fort MacArthuh, began to show yesterday at regular practice at the mortars and disappearing guns. Several courses within ranges of eight and ten miles out at sea were charted the day before by Lieut. Howard. He also supervised all the accessories to complete practice. He gave directions to the master of the tug as to the courses, and also to the squad of noncoms who had charge of the targets.

The officer in charge of the records in all practices was Capt. Argo, C.A.C. Assisting him was First Lieut. Haines, C.A.C. The director of all the firing was Capt. Davidson, C.A.C. Capt. C. A. Donay was made responsible for the safety of the field of fire. It was his duty to see that the course was free from passing vessels. Assisting him was Capt. Carrington, C.A.C. Capt. John L. Farley, C.N.G., had charge of taking the pressures. Tug officer was Lieut. Howard, C.N.G. Corporal Brice of the Four Hundred Sixtieth Company of San Francisco and Private Johnson of the Headquarters Company were the range rope observers.

LIKE REAL WAR

The timekeeper was Capt. Argo. His assistants were Sergeants O'Brien and Todd. The recorder of azimuth was Lieut. Albert J. McGuire and his assistants, Sergt. Strickland of the Four Hundred Sixty-first Company, and Sergt. Heler, of Headquarters Company. Deflection observer of all the batteries was Capt. Albert T. Emerson and assistant Master Sergeant Casattas, whose duties were to observe and record angular deflection of the splash from each target.

The mortars were in use yesterday. There was something of the aspect of real war in the practice. All the men were out, grouping on little elevations near the batteries. The men were prepared with cotton in their ears to stand the pressure and roar. Visitors also were observed in the neighboring ground. As a precautionary measure, the onlookers were under surveillance during the firing. A provost sergeant with a staff of assistants was detailed to report to the senior instructor the conduct of all visitors. The record of all work done yesterday will be published in tomorrow's issue of The Times. All the work was confined to the mortars; that of tomorrow will be exclusively on the guns. Friday will see work at both.

Maj.-Gen. Charles G. Morton, U.S.A., will be in the camp before the work is over. He is expected early on Friday morning. An effort will be made to complete the physical tests tomorrow and the next day.

ATHLETIC EVENTS

Broad and high jumping and bar vaulting, according to the rules of the War Department, will constitute the field activities.

Late in the afternoon and early in the evening recreation events are arranged. Yesterday there was pistol-firing practice by the officers. At the same time, the band, captained by its leader, Harry Payson, defeated the Headquarters Company in a game of indoor baseball, played outside. A dance under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce will be given tonight in the Legion Hall.

The chaplain, went to a luncheon yesterday given by the Kiwanis Club of Long Beach. He was accompanied by five men, who gave an exhibition in the manual of arms. The chaplain made a talk, pointing out the possibilities of the National Guard and concluded by urging the patriotic people of Long Beach to get interested in their company. The guard officers will mingle with those of Fort MacArthur tonight, when dancing will be the feature.

Syndicate Sues Fresno Paper in Copyright Case

A bill of complaint charging infringement of copyright was filed in the United States District Court yesterday by P. E. Kroehler of Chicago, acting for the American Homes Bureau, a newspaper syndicate, against the Fresno Publishing Company, which issues the Fresno Evening Herald.

The asserted infringement of copyright occurred in the issue of April 12, 1923, when a page called "Own Your Home" was reproduced in the journal.

Kroehler asks that the court issue an injunction against the paper and that the Herald be forced to pay him $1000 as attorney's fees and $12,018 as damages, asserting that this is at the rate of $1 per copy of the paper sold, this being the amount fixed by statute in such cases.

The American Homes Bureau, its address being 53 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, prepares and sells to newspapers syndicated articles and drawings and the Herald is declared in the complaint to have reproduced the offered page without giving due credit to the bureau or to E. Bert Smith, an artist.

PORT NOTES

The enormous amount of lumber coming to Los Angeles Harbor from North Pacific ports, which broke all previous records for June, is predicted to feel a falling off during the autumn and early winter months, and already has resulted in a weakening of charter rates. Lumber rates to Los Angeles Harbor from Portland have been around $9, reaching a crest in May and June, several carriers since have been offered for future charter at $7.50. Other northern port rates are said to show a similar falling off.

This slowing up of incoming lumber is accounted for by local lumber wholesalers by the lack of railway cars in which to ship the cargo from the harbor, rather than any other factor, as the demand continues strong. Inability to obtain sufficient cars for loading, however, has resulted in scores of millions of feet of lumber being stored in the harbor's dozen wholesale yards, only a score of miles from retailers and consumers, where the market is acute.

William K. Sempey has been appointed general freight agent of the Los Angeles Steamship Company, it was announced yesterday. Mr. Sempey formerly was with the China Mail in the same capacity until the line disbanded. Grover Foster formerly was general freight agent for the Los Angeles Steamship Company, but resigned some time ago. Mr. Sempey assumed his new duties yesterday.

Changes of masters have been announced on the following vessels: Steamer Eastern Gale, H. C. Houdelette, Jr., vice F. C. Dellager, master; steamer Venezuela, Los Angeles, C. W. Gilbert, vice A. Martin, master; Steamer Carmel, Los Angeles, H. Nysen, vice G. Johnson, master, and steamer Catherine G. Sudden, Los Angeles, G. Johnson, vice J. P. Partin, master.

The Anglo-Mexican Petroleum Company also has joined the rapidly growing list of oil exporters out of Los Angeles Harbor, and her first ship, the Dutch tank steamer India, arrived yesterday from Buenos Aires to load oil for Tampico. The vessel is being handled by the Shell company and will load from the Union Oil station, inner harbor.
